TRIBUTE TO MISS ETHELWYN CASTLE

By The Rev. H. H. A. Corey

We record with sorrow the death of Miss Ethelwyn Castle on All Souls' Day, November 2, 1940. Her burial took place the next day at the old Kawaiahaeo Cemetery, where she was laid in the midst of other members of her distinguished family.

Miss Castle was in many ways and in many places a friend and benefactress of the Church, and there are many in the Church who will miss her keenly.

Hattie Ethelwyn Alfred Castle was born in this city on December 21, 1872, in the days of King Lunalilo—one of the two daughters of Charles Alfred Castle and Claire Eloise Coleman, his wife, and a grand-daughter of Samuel Northrup Castle, one of the founders and pioneers of the Hawaiian Mission from New England.

After her father's early death on April 30, 1874, which occurred in the fourth year of his married life and when Miss Castle was less than a year old, her mother took her and her sister, Eloise—now Mrs. B. L. Marx of this city—east to Canada, the birthplace of their maternal grandmother, where they spent thirteen years of their girlhood and young womanhood in what is locally known as the "Eastern Townships", or English-speaking section of the Province of Quebec.

In her later years, Miss Castle's recollection of this period of her life, with its ice and snow and jingling sleigh-bells, its rustic simplicity and kind-hearted neighborliness, was as keen and vivid as though its events had happened but yesterday; and one of her delights was to converse of that country with those who also know it. And, indeed, the Church in Hawaii is not the only part of the Church that has known her friendliness and benefited through the years from her kindness and solicitude. Though her life in Quebec ended many years ago, she never forgot it. She was a life member of the Church Society of the Diocese of Quebec, many of whose clergy know her as a beneficent helper and friend. And one of the absorbing interests of the last two years of her life was a gift of old records of Hawaii, which she compiled herself and gave to the University of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, Quebec, which is the Church University and Seminary for the two Dioceses of Montreal and Quebec.

Quiet, Unheralded Benefactions

Her goodwill to the Church and her benefactions to it here in Hawaii are, some of them, well known—such, for instance, as the beautiful Sacristy and Clergy Vestry in the Parke Memorial Chapel with its plaque, recording that the room was given by her and her sister, Mrs. Marx, in loving memory of their maternal grandmother, Caroline Bacon Coleman. Miss Castle has, I understand, provided in her will a fund to maintain this Vestry Room in perpetuity.

But there are many smaller benefactions to the smaller parishes and missions, that have never been recorded. The Mission Church of the Epiphany in this city, within whose parochial boundaries Miss Castle lived, although she herself was connected with the Cathedral; and the Church of the Holy Apostles, Hilo, are two, probably amongst others, which owe a debt of gratitude to Miss Castle, not for any great and outstanding benefactions, but for a wonderful general solicitude for their smaller wants and needs.

It was, I understand, due to Miss Castle's interest and initiative that the present happy arrangement for Diocesan Altar and vestment work, under Mrs. Clancey, was begun. And her keen interest in vestment fabrics, leading her to make many gifts of them to the work, has contributed substantially to keeping Mrs. Clancey the busy woman that she is. And I doubt if there is a parish or a mission in the Islands that has not many pieces of linen and other ecclesiastical fabric which were originally the gifts of Miss Castle.

Those who have felt her love and goodwill and have been blessed by her benefactions, now rise up and call her blessed. They extend their sympathy to Mrs. Marx, to whom her sister was so dear. And they pray to the Heavenly Father that she whose loss we on earth now mourn, may rest in peace, and that light perpetual may shine upon her.

Ordination of the Reverend Richard M. Lundberg

Of the many beautiful services held in St. Andrew's Cathedral during the Christmas season none was more deeply impressive than that of December 28, in which the Rev. Richard Martin Lundberg was advanced to the priesthood. The Bishop officiated. Mr. Lundberg was presented by the Rev. Albert H. Stone, M.A., Headmaster of Iolani school.

An atmosphere of dignity and devotion was established at the outset of the service by the sermon preached by the Rev. Canon E. Tanner Brown, D.D. Dr. Brown, addressing his remarks principally to the ordinand, inspired everyone in the Cathedral, as he emphasized the Joy of Ministry in the Priesthood, as well as the responsibilities. His stress upon the particular genius and place in Christendom of the Anglican Communion was clear and timely.

Assisting the Bishop were the Rev. Hollis H. Corey, M.A., vicar of Epiphany, who read the Epistle, and the Rev. Canon Y. Sang Mark of St. Peter's, who read the Gospel. Joining with the Bishop in the laying on of hands were, in addition to those mentioned, the Rev. Canon

Kenneth A. Bray of St. Andrew's Hawaiian Congregation; the Rev. Noah K. Cho of St. Luke's Korean; the Rev. Philip Taiji Fukao, vicar of Holy Trinity; the Rev. Wai On Shim of St. Elizabeth's; Chaplain J. Knox Bodel, United States Army (Retired), former vicar of Holy Innocents', Lahaina, Maui, and of Holy Apostles, Hilo, Hawaii; the Rev. J. Lamb Doty, missionary-at-large with special duties in public and private hospitals and government institutions; the Rev. B. S. Ikezawa, vicar of Good Samaritan Mission; and the Rev. Ardys T. Dean, curate of St. Andrew's Cathedral parish.

The newly ordained priest has been appointed by the Bishop as acting chaplain of Iolani School, with full time schedule in religious teaching, and as associate director of Christian Education for the diocese with Canon Brown, who holds the stall of Christian Education in the Cathedral. Mr. Lundberg was graduated from the Virginia Theological Seminary in 1940. He received an appointment by the National Council to the diocese of Kyoto, but with the turn of events in Japan has been transferred to the Missionary District of Honolulu.

DR. BROWN'S SERMON

The ordination sermon was based on a text from the ordination Gospel, I Am the Door. After stressing the importance of the faith of Christ in these days when thoughtful and bewildered humanity is turning to God's revelation of His Son, the speaker gave a charge to the ordinand:

"I suggest to you one secret which lies at the foundation of a joyful and successful ministry in the Priesthood of the Church. You are in the ministry of the most comprehensive Church in Christendom today, a Church which expresses within a common brotherhood nearly every type of reverent worship and approach, evangelic, catholic and modern; varied types of mind among the laity as well as clergy—in a word a Church which reveals the fine independence of the Anglo Saxon mind as well as devotion to established truth.

"The secret is to like people, yes to love them. Without this stabilizing attitude your ministry will be not only ineffective but unhappy. This Christian loving, as scholars of the Greek language are telling us, is not any of the three emotions called love for which the Greek has three words, not of the body, or the family or the Community but the new truth given us by Christ and for which the early Christian Church had to create a new word. The New Testament word which we call love has within it the attitude of Christ, sacrifice and unselfishness as well as devotion to humans as brothers under one Father.

"He is the Door and the Good Shepherd: and we too can be doors and shepherds if within our minds and hearts lies a fundamental affection for individuals, an affection which overlooks variations of temperament, differences of opinion and oftentimes unpleasant dispositions. For a productive and joyful ministry there is no secret equal to caring for and loving people."

DEATH OF THE REV. CANON D. DOUGLAS WALLACE

As we go to press, word has come of the death on the evening of New Year's Day of the oldest missionary clergyman of this diocese, at the age of 83.

Canon Wallace retired in 1933 after 28 years as pastor of Christ Church, Kealakekua. The funeral service, on January 2nd was in charge of Archdeacon James Walker who was assisted by the Rev. Kenneth Perkins, and the Rev. Shannon Walker, of Hilo. (The vicar of Christ Church, the Rev. Kenneth Miller, could not attend because of illness.) The service was held in Christ Church, with interment in the beautiful churchyard adjoining. We plan to give an account of Canon Wallace's life and work in the next issue of the Hawaiian Church Chronicle.

Here and There In The Diocese

Convocation February 7th

The 39th Annual Convocation of this Missionary District is called to assemble on Friday, February 7th, 1941. Meetings and services, in connection with Convocation, will continue through Wednesday, February 12th. Programmes will be sent out duly.

First Celebration of Christmas in Hawaii

In the first public celebration of Christmas in Hawaii, in 1862, King Kamehameha IV, accompanied by the Anglican bishop and the British diplomatic representative, led a Christmas Eve procession through the streets of Honolulu singing carols. The king provided 20 torch bearers and there was a vested choir of 20 in the procession. After midnight heavy guns were fired from Punchbowl, lighted tar barrels were rolled down the hill and fireworks set off at Iolani palace. The well established Honolulu custom of using fireworks at Christmas traditionally dates back to this first celebration.—

Captain Roberts of Paauilo Writes to the President of the Woman's Auxiliary

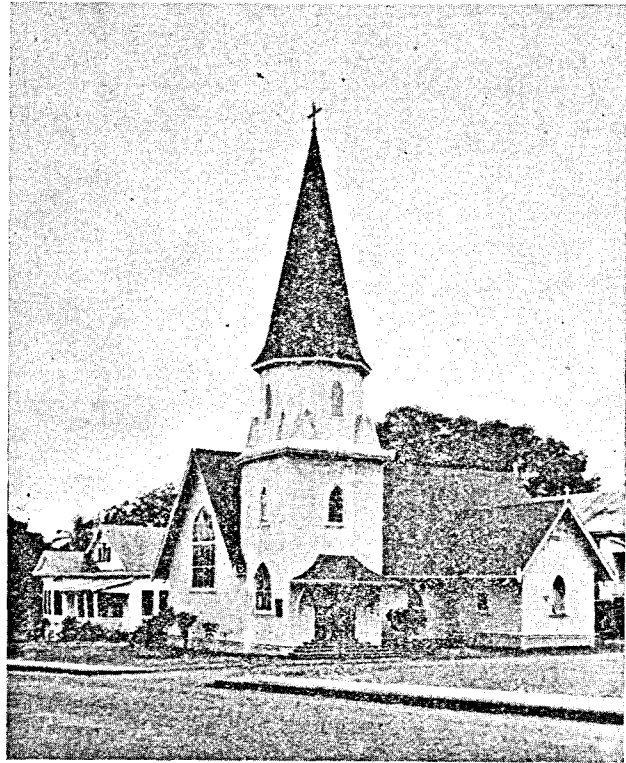

"I thought I would write a few lines to let you know how our work is progressing. I have religious instruction classes at six schools, reaching 200 children of all races, from Honokaa to Papaaloo. Then we have the two Sunday schools of 50 children. I use lantern slides in the camps at nights, for services, but my stock is nearly exhausted. I have started a Y. W. C. A. here at Paauilo and we have 20 members, aged 14 to 20, all Japanese. Mrs. Roberts is busy with her kindergarten each morning. The plantation is having our house painted outside, cream walls and green roof, so we will look smart. We varnished the chairs at the church and have new steps to the garden path."

Alert Postmen

Postoffice authorities even during the December rush are quite wise. The Church of the Holy Apostles received an envelope addressed, "Church of Holy Spiscopals" and St. Clement's was named on a received envelope "St. Cement's Church."

At St. Mary's

On Sunday, December 15th, eight children were baptized at St. Mary's Mission, most of them members of St. Mary's Home, by Dr. E. Tanner Brown of St. Clement's. Three of the children were confirmed the following Sunday, in a class of fifteen.

Convention Enthusiasm in Practice

As soon as the Rev. Kenneth D. Perkins, recent Deputy to the General Convention, returned to his charge at Holy Apostles, Hilo, Hawaii, things began to happen:

The first three Sundays showed an increase of ten pupils each Sunday with a goal of 70 by Christmas and 100 for the year.

The Men's Club on November 30 gave a dinner in honor of the Iolani football team which played in Hilo that Saturday. It was held at the vicarage and eighty-two were seated.

Unique Christmas Play

On his trip back to the Islands Mr. Perkins met Benet Costa of Honolulu and Hollywood, author of the radio play "Who Can Deny It," which has been given over nationwide hookups for two Christmases. Mr. Costa offered this play to the Holy Apostles' Players and it was given with great effect over their local station KHBC from 7:30-8:00 p. m. on December 22nd.

Result of Offering for British Missions

Throughout this Missionary Diocese, on December 15th, offerings were taken in response to the action of General Convention at Kansas City, to aid the work of the Church of England in many of its mission fields abroad. Of the $300,000 sum, which our Church as a whole in America is seeking to give as a first step in aiding British missions, we took as our aim, a very moderate aim, $800. We are pleased, but not surprised, that the Church in Hawaii has exceeded this amount by more than 20%. The treasurer reports that to date he has received $1,045.21. The fund is not closed, and further gifts may well be expected.

The New Faculty House for the Priory

This slightly and entirely serviceable building, just outside the Priory gates in Queen Emma Square, has been completed and is now occupied by some of the faculty of St. Andrew's Priory. It is said to be the best building of its kind in Honolulu. The cost was $23,000, for which the Priory is responsible. It has proved remarkably satisfactory, and adds much to the beauty of the Square.

The Chronicle Finances

It will be observed that this number contains a long list of contributions and subscriptions to the Hawaiian Church Chronicle. What cannot be observed, but is announced with deepest satisfaction and with thanks to the many interested friends who have come to our help, is the fact that we have closed the year 1940 with all bills paid, and with a small balance in the bank. Who would have thought it 15 months ago, when we owed nearly $1,100, or even at last Convocation time when we carried forward a deficit totaling $668.22. Something has happened meantime to clear this all off, and that is the widespread response to our financial statement.

Important Visitor to Convocation: Dr. William S. Keller of Cincinnati

It is with satisfaction that we announce a visit of five or six weeks to Honolulu by William S. Keller, M.D., D.C.L., and his family from Cincinnati. Dr. Keller is the founder of the Graduate School of Applied Religion, and has directed its work since 1923. There is only one school of the kind in the country, and its effective work is so well-known that we need hardly dwell upon it in this announcement. Dr. Keller will speak, as desired, during Convocation, both formally and in conferences. His stated subjects are: "Social Change and Christian Leadership," and "Social Training for the Pastoral Ministry". We are indeed fortunate in Dr. Keller's visit, and shall welcome him heartily in this visit to the mission.

Is This the First One in Hawaii?

"We are indebted to Mrs. I. S. Smith of Tucson, Arizona, for making us the lovely Church flag, which is on display today. The flag is really the gift of Mrs. Smith's parish Church School, St. Philip-in-the-Hills, to our own boys and girls.

Another recent gift to the Church is twelve hymnals with music from a Women's Society on the East Coast."—Rev. K. K. Perkins, Holy Apostles, Hilo.

Elections to the Chapter of St. Andrew's Cathedral

Two vacancies in the membership of the Cathedral Chapter, Honolulu, were caused by deaths during 1940, one of Colonel Curtis P. Iaukea, and the other of Mr. Charles D. Lufkin. To fill these vacancies, the Chapter, assembled on December 30th, elected Dr. James A. Morgan, of St. Andrew's Hawaiian Congregation, and Mr. Frank A. Lufkin, of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Wai-luku.

Four Tenth Anniversaries

From Honolulu Star-Bulletin

This is a season of the 10th anniversary celebrations in the Episcopal church of Honolulu, according to Bishop Littell.

He announces the 10th anniversary of the following units of the church:

Shingle memorial hospital at Hoolehua, Molokai, on January 8; Good Samaritan Mission, Palolo Valley, on January 5; St. John's-by-the-Sea, Kahaluu, on December 27, and St. Stephen's mission at Haleiwa on December 26.

In connection with the anniversary celebration by the Shingle memorial hospital, Bishop Littell has announced a gift of additions to the hospital and equipment from the William G. Irwin Charity Foundation through Mr. and Mrs. Paul I. Fagan. The additions to the hospital include new wards, rooms, guest cottage and quarters for the staff.

He also reported the purchase by the church of the property on which St. John's hall now stands.

"The property is large enough for the erection of a church, hall and pastor's residence," said the bishop. "We hope to be able to build later."

Bishop Littell will be on Kauai January 19 to consecrate the new Christ Memorial Church at Kilauea.

CHARLES DEXTER LUFKIN 1863-1940

In the death of Mr. Lufkin, the Church on earth has lost one of its most devoted and active members, and the Territory of Hawaii, particularly the island of Maui, will miss one of its most prominent and respected citizens. Mr. Lufkin died after a short illness in Puunene Hospital on December 1st at the age of 77. The funeral service was conducted at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Wailuku, by the Rev. C. Fletcher Howe, rector. Interment will be in Mr. Lufkin's former home town, Shelbyville, Illinois.

Mr. Lufkin was Warden of the Mission at Wailuku, and then Senior Warden, after the mission became a parish, a total service of thirty-eight years. He was repeatedly elected delegate to the diocesan Convocation. He was a member of the Chapter of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Honolulu, and could be counted upon for personal and financial support of many worthy religious and community enterprises. A little over a year ago, he and his son, Frank, gave the well-designed and serviceable Memorial Guild House to the Wailuku parish in memory of Julia Gilmore Lufkin, wife and mother.

Graduate of a Church School

C. D. Lufkin was born in Shelbyville in 1863. He was graduated from the well-known Church School, the Shattuck Military Academy at Faribault, Minnesota, and later studied at the Illinois State Normal College. He came to Hawaii in 1898 as superintendent of the money order system of island postoffices. In 1901 he organized the First National Bank of Wailuku. He also organized banks at Lahaina and Paia which later became the Bank of Maui, and finally merged with the Bank of Hawaii.

At the time of his death, he was a vice-president of the Bank of Hawaii, and head of the Lufkin Insurance Company on Maui. Mr. Lufkin is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lufkin of Wailuku, and by his grandchildren, Lucia, Charlotte, and Lindsay, their children. A sister, Miss Charlotte Lufkin, of Wailuku, also survives.

The affection in which he was held is indicated by the name almost universally used—Daddy Lufkin. The respect and confidence towards him were shown in his appointment or election to offices in many community and civic organizations during his long residence in the Valley Isle.

This Missionary Diocese is thankful for the life and work of Charles Dexter Lufkin, and may well pray for his continual growth in the love and service of the higher and hidden life of God's heavenly Kingdom.

OPENING OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, ELEELE

By Rev. J. Thurlow Baker, Vicar
On Sunday, November 3rd, approximately one hundred and seventeen people assembled for the opening service at the new St. John's Church in Eleele, Kauai.

The Ven. Henry A. Willey, Archdeacon of Kauai, officiated at this service and was assisted by Captain Harold Smith, C. A. The Rev. J. Thurlow Baker, newly appointed vicar of St. John's Church preached the sermon.

During the service, Archdeacon Willey described St. John's Church as the fulfillment of a dream he has had for a church at Eleele. Mr. Willey also remembered with thanks the following donors and their generous gifts which helped toward the completion of St. John's Church:

1. Land on which the Church is built and all stone used in Church and Rectory, McBryde Sugar Company;
2. Labor on Church and Rectory, Kalaheo Trade School;
3. Electric Orgatrone Organ, Dr. A. H. Waterhouse;
4. Pews and choir stalls (Church), Woman's Guild of St. John's;
5. Stained glass window of St. John Evangelist to be placed over altar, Mrs. Frank A. Alexander, in memory of husband;
6. Brass altar cross, Mr. and Mrs. John Sandison;
7. Brass altar vases, Mrs. Herman Meek and Family;
8. Gift of $1000.00 to complete building fund, Am. Church Building Fund;
9. Silver Communion Service, Rev. Canon Francis N. Cullen;
10. Silks and linens for altar, District Altar Guild;
11. Lecturn Bible, Mrs. Nelson Merrick Gay;
12. Altar Service Book, New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society;
13. Processional Cross, Mr. Fred Christian;
14. Choir vestments being made, Woman's Guild of St. John's Church;
15. Brass Altar Vases, Mrs. Herman H. Meek and Family, in memory of Mr. Herman H. Meek.

This opening service was truly inspirational and suggestive of a deep interest and appreciation for the presence of the Church in Eleele. With such a significant start, no less than an active and useful future can be expected of St. John's Church.

THE GARDEN BLOOMS

By Rev. Canon E. Tanner Brown, D.D.

The Island of Kauai is not named the Garden Island for nothing. The Episcopal Church agrees that this is a fitting motto for the work of the Church there. Sixteen years ago the Rev. Henry A. Willey and his wife settled on Kauai at Kapaa. Previous work had been done by the Rev. Marcus Carver on the Waimea side of the Island but no permanent building centered up the work.

One year passed and the Willeys had become a part of the Island and were established in the hearts of the people. Then All Saints' was erected in Kapaa fifteen years ago. Quietly and effectively has the work gone on from that center until today seven buildings have arisen to house the manifold activities of our Church and another will soon be constructed, four workers are constantly busy and three hundred communicants and a host of understanding friends are behind every development.

Fifteen years have passed since the day on December 6th when All Saints' Church was opened for services in 1925. Naturally they wanted to celebrate and what a celebration they had! The festivities opened in the spacious All Saints' Parish House with a supper attended by 150 members and friends. Boys' Club members arranged the building and Girls' Club members served the supper. Everybody seems busy on Kauai.

Greetings were given: for the Congregational Church by the Rev. Frederick Withington; for the Lutheran Church by Mrs. Dora Isenberg; and the Rev. Maurice Coopman of the Roman Catholic Church would have done the same had not illness prevented. Alohas came from the children Missions of this center: Mr. John Odan speaking for Christ Church, Kilauea, The Robert P. Shapard Memorial; Mr. Robert Watts for St. Paul's Church, Kekaha; and the Rev. J. Thurlow Baker, the new vicar in charge of St. John's Church, Eleele and points adjacent. Vocal solos were given by Mrs. Dwight Cunningham, soloist of the large choir and Mr. Albert Horner, who was celebrating his fifteen years as director of the choir. The address was given by Dr. E. Tanner Brown who came for the series of happy events and who was introduced by Archdeacon Willey as "Rector of St. Clement's Church, Canon of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Doctor of Divinity and Delegate Apostolic." It was hard for him to measure up to such an introduction but he did the best he could with such an inspiring subject as the record of the past fifteen years.

Anniversary services were held the following Sunday at All Saints' and in the evening at St. Paul's Mission, Kekaha.

The story of these years is the story of two spark plugs, Archdeacon Willey and his wife, and the way their loyal enthusiasm and quiet constancy of work has inspired Churchmen and friends to assist in the creation of this strong work throughout the Island.

The Garden will continue to bloom. Our heartiest congratulations to Archdeacon Willey and his splendid lay assistant, Robert Kondo, to Captain Harold Smith of the Church Army, and to the Rev. Thurlow Baker and his wife, who are digging in whole heartedly and creatively on the Eleele side. Paul and Apolus took turns in planting and watering. The Kauai Churchmen plant and water and dig and hoe and cultivate with unremitting enthusiasm.

CHRISTMAS WORSHIP AND FESTIVITIES

Reports received from most of the parish and missions throughout the Islands indicate that the Christmas season has been one of unusual fervor. The church buildings, except in places where rain proved a serious difficulty in transportation, were crowded for the midnight services on Christmas Eve, and in many instances again later in the morning. Celebrations of the Holy Communion were provided in the many missions where there is no resident priest, by the voluntary assistance of clergy who gladly added the privilege of helping these missions, to their own parochial duties. Among these were the Rev. Kenneth D. Perkins who celebrated at Papaaloa after two services at Hilo; Headmaster Stone who went over the Pali at midnight to St. John's-by-the-Sea; the Rev. J. Lamb

Doty, who visited St. Stephen's, Waialua as well as St. Mary's, Honolulu; and others, like the Archdeacons, who visited the congregations which they serve in their regular course, on Hawaii and Kauai.

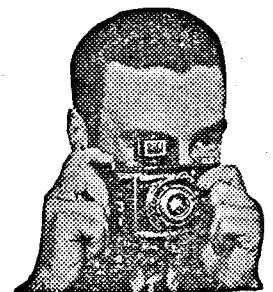

Offerings seem to have been generous, and apparently will cover all our obligations to the diocese and General Church for 1940. Branches of the Woman's Auxiliary and Sunday Schools on the mainland, together with our local Christmas Cheer Fund, provided our scattered schools, both Sunday and weekday, throughout the Islands with presents and good cheer. An interesting example of goodwill was seen when the boys in the lower grades at Iolani brought to their Christmas exercises over 150 practical gifts, such as canned foods and the like, for the Mission at St. John's-by-the-Sea. Altogether Christmas seems to have been a season of deep inner joy, with outward merriment as well.

At Wailuku and Paauilo

The fullest accounts of Christmas sent by any of our missionaries, have come from the Rev. C. Fletcher Howe and Captain William Arthur Roberts, Church Army—who tell of bright services, and of children's gatherings at Wailuku; Kula; Paauilo; Ookala, Papaaloa and Waipunalei. Rain on Maui and along the Hamakua coast was in contrast to the glorious weather all over Oahu. At Paauilo, the church organ has been repaired and Capt. Roberts directed the Christmas Tree party on the plantation for 500 children; as he did also at Ookala for 400 more. Wailuku missed Charles Lufkin, regular and dependable at worship, keenly.
