LOOKING FORWARD

No one can predict the end of the war in Europe nor in the Pacific, but it is quite evident that although there are many battles ahead, we are on the road to military victory.

Today we hear of post-war planning and learn what governments, business and institutions are planning to do. They are all looking ahead to building and expansion in every branch of their life and activities.

Our Church in the Islands in the past few years has been bound by war time restrictions and we have had to give up many things we did in Church life in peace times. Today restrictions are being lifted in Hawaii and we must not be caught sleeping. We must not excuse ourselves by falling back on the old phrase of "it's the blitz". Now is the time to go forward and keep the Church in pace with other advancements. The time is ripe to expand our Church Schools, our Women's work, and our laymen's activities. If we are honest with ourselves, congregations large and small, would all have to admit that we are not doing all that we should at the present time.

We know from experience that our islands have had to meet changing events that came with amazing speed. We have learned that it is the wise and prudent thing to be prepared for anything. Now let us prepare for something good. It is time now for every mission and parish to take account of those things that were lost from our Church life since December 7, 1941. It is time to take account of our physical property and see where it is run down and what needs to be done. Many repairs and improvements can be made now by few laymen who are willing to give a few evenings to the Church. We need to go out and get the members of the parish who for lack of gasoline, or some other reason have grown careless and have lapsed in their Church attendance and interest.

New Work on Kauai

The Rev. Andrew N. Otani arrived on the island of Kauai June 28, 1944 to start an entirely new work with the older Japanese people. Mr. Otani has made his headquarters at St. John's Church, Eleele, and has been working under the direction of the Rev. J. Thurlow Baker who has been doing such a splendid work with our Japanese young people. Mr. Otani has been well received on Kauai and has developed work among the people at Wahiawa, New Mill, Hanapepe, Port Arthur and Eleele. Once a month he will go to All Saints' Church, Kapaa for a Japanese service. He is greatly in need of prayer books and hymnals in Japanese and would appreciate it if anyone who would like to make a contribution of these, would send them to him as soon as possible. A car is being provided for his transportation as it will be necessary for him to cover many of the communities on the island.

We look forward with keen interest to the development of this new work and feel certain that under Mr. Otani's leadership it will develop and grow stronger.

In the District of Honolulu, some congregations are planning for their future. St. Peter's Church, one of our Honolulu Chinese congregations, under the leadership of the vicar, the Rev. Y. Sang Mark, has started an extensive drive to build a much needed parish house and living quarters. They have $17,000.00 to date, but need $50,000.00 to meet their needs.

St. Luke's Korean Church, Honolulu, has a building fund of $9,000.00 and the Rev. Noah Cho hopes to increase this amount in order to build a new Church to rebuild the present inadequate and termite-eaten building.

Good Samaritan Mission, St. John's-by-the-Sea Mission and Holy Trinity Mission, all on the island of Oahu, have building ambitions and hope to raise funds to erect new buildings. Good Samaritan and St. John's have no Church buildings and desperately need a suitable place of worship for their growing congregations. Holy Trinity plans a more extensive program as they need a new Church, parish house and vicarage.

There are so many places where new work must be started, communities where we have no services. We need clergy, workers and buildings. We must expand and the opportunity is now.

On Kauai we have a small building fund for a church at Kekaha and we should build immediately. Plans were ready when the war came, but now building costs have increased so much that we do not have enough to go ahead. We will also need to help the Rev. Andrew Otani and his new work with the Japanese people on Kauai.

Let us not excuse ourselves from the work and responsibility that lies ahead in this District. We must press forward the work of our Church and the Kingdom. Accept your share of the opportunity that faces the Church.

Memorial Chapels at Good Samaritan and St. John's would be wonderful and fitting gifts for some one to make in memory of loved ones. These would not be costly structures, but simple chapels that would meet the needs of our people who cannot afford to build their own houses of worship. The Bishop would be glad to talk over the plans we have for these places and others, with any one who might be interested.

Pray for the Church. Remember the

Dr. I. Q. Enters Seabury-Western

James McClain, Dr. I. Q., quiz master of one of the oldest radio network quiz shows, has entered Seabury-Western Theological Seminary, Evanston, Ill., to study for the ministry.

He is quoted as saying: "I want to be a priest in a small community where I can be both father and confessor and shepherd of the flock."

Mr. McClain is married, has two daughters, and plans to continue his radio program during his three years of study at the seminary.

History Is Made

Every Parish, Mission and Institution in the District of Honolulu paid their 1944 Mission Quota 100% by August 1. This is a remarkable record and the Bishop and Diocesan Treasurer wish to thank the clergy, treasurers and congregations for their promptness in sending their contributions.

Another commendation must go to the following congregations who have paid their Diocesan Assessment in full for 1944 and pass into the 100% class:

Honolulu

St. Andrew's Priory School for Girls, St. Luke's Mission, Good Samaritan Mission, St. Mary's Mission, St. Alban's Chapel (Iolani School for Boys), St. John's-by-the-Sea, Cluett House, Cathedral English School.

Maui

Church of the Good Shepherd, Wailuku; Holy Innocents, Lahaina; St. John's, Kula.

Hawaii

Holy Apostles, Hilo; St. Columba's, Paaulo, St. James, Papaalooa.

Kauai

Christ Church, Kilauea; All Saints', Kapaa; St. Joseph's, Koolau; St. John's, Eleele.

work of our Church in Hawaii in your private devotions and in public worship. "Prayer changes things".

May we take for our motto, and really live up to it, these words—PRAY FERVENTLY, LABOR DILIGENTLY, AND GIVE LIBERALLY.

Pray for my soul. More things are wrought by prayer Than this world dreams of. Wherefore let thy voice Rise like a fountain for me night and day. For what are men better than sheep or goats That nourish a blind life within the brain, If, knowing God, they lift not their hands in prayer Both for themselves and those who call them friends? For so the whole round earth is every way Bound by gold chains about the feet of God. —Tennyson.

Our Church Visits Saipan

The Rev. Noah K. Cho, vicar of St. Luke's Korean Church, Honolulu, has just returned from Saipan where he participated in the invasion and occupation of the island. He served as interpreter with the Naval Intelligence Department for two months and was attached to the 4th Marine Division as he was able to speak both Korean and Japanese.

Since his baggage was limited he was unable to take his vestments and communion vessels but he borrowed a chalice from a Presbyterian Chaplain and had a service of Holy Communion on board ship on his way down.

In his own words he writes: "I hit the beach on invasion day at noon on Saipan and met Antonio, who was a native that spoke fluent Japanese. I asked him about Christian work in Saipan and he told me that there was only a Roman Catholic Church which was founded in the time of Magellan and was under the Society of Jesus, of Spain. Saipan had been under the Germans but had no German Lutheran Church at all. My work was mostly with Koreans but I also ministered to the Japanese and Okinawas. I was an interpreter as well as social worker. I found only seven Roman Catholics and six Protestants among the 1400 Koreans in Saipan and the 1000 on Tinian. I had to borrow a chalice and paten from one of our chaplains and my vestments from a personal friend, a Roman Catholic chaplain.

"On July 2nd I said the first Anglican service on Saipan. The altar was built by some Korean people. It was a very clear and calm morning and one officer, a senior warden of St. James-by-the-Sea, somewhere in California, made his communion. I made a short address to the people who attended and tried to introduce Christianity to them and tell them of the situation of Korea and the world. Many men were out working but the wounded men and women and children attended the service. There is no spiritual work amongst the people since they are practically all pagans and yet they show a great interest in Christian work as well as education and community interest. I found a Mr. and Mrs. Nakamura who were members of the Nippon Sei Ko Kai. She was a graduate of St. Anges School, Kyoto and was confirmed by Bishop Nichols. Since 1941 the Japanese Government has prohibited all types of Christian service in Saipan and even the Roman Catholics have not had any services for more than 30 months.

It is a land of flies, mosquitoes, no fresh vegetables, milk or good water. When I left the 1400 people cried and begged me to stay with them and help them spiritually."

The following notice appeared in the Chicago Daily News of July 13, 1944: "It's against the rules to quote an islander, but if the contented smiles on the Chamorro's faces mean anything, they are not unhappy about the arrival of the Americans. They held Holy Communion last Sunday—the first they have been allowed to have in three years. The Koreans held separate services under the Episcopalian clergyman who is of Korean extraction".

St. Andrew's Priory School for Girls and Iolani School for boys will open on September 5.

The Rev. Noah K. Cho, vicar of St. Luke's Korean Mission, Honolulu on Saipan with two mothers and their babies who were born in a bomb shelter during the invasion.

Acknowledgments

We acknowledge gifts and subscriptions for the Hawaiian Church Chronicle which have been received from July 17 to August 15. Where the amount is not given it is $1.00.

Mrs. Layton Danner; Mrs. Elizabeth M. Ling, $2.00; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kekaula $2.00; the Rev. Richard M. Lundberg $2.00; Mr. C. S. Crane $2.00; Mrs. Rose Haole; Mrs. John Chang $2.00; Mrs. A. S. McTighe; Mrs. Sarah H. Kauka $6.00.

Due to lack of facilities, not all the children who applied for admission could be received into the kindergarten but out of 80 children enrolled, 65 were graduated on June 15, 1944. The children come from various racial backgrounds such as Hawaiian, Chinese, Portuguese, Japanese, Caucasian-Hawaiian, etc., a typical Hawaiian school but everyone is happy. How true are Jesus' words, "Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven."

St. Mary's Boy Wins Citation

Brought to St. Mary's Home as an orphan with his sister at the age of seven and reared there amidst the encircling friendship of the Church, a young man at the end of July was given a citation for courage in action. This son of St. Mary's Home is 2nd Lieut. William Lee Yu Goo, USAAF, with the 8th Air Force Liberator stationed in England.

According to the story in the Honolulu Advertiser of July 29th, he was presented with the Air Medal by Major James C. McAtee of Viola, Illinois, with the following citation: "Exceptionally meritorious achievement while participating in bombing combat missions over occupied Europe. The courage, coolness and skill displayed by this man upon those occasions reflect great credit upon himself and the Armed Forces of the United Nations".

What a just pride must fill the hearts of Miss Hilda Van Deerlin and the other mothers of the Home over the record of their boy!

New Workers in Honolulu

ST. MARY'S HOME

Deaconess Laura Knepper and her sister, Miss Margaret Knepper have arrived in Honolulu from Monrovia, California. They will assist with our work at St. Mary's Children's Home and St. Mary's Mission. They are volunteering their services to the District of Honolulu and we feel most fortunate to have them as part of our Diocesan family.

Miss Margaret Knepper is not new to the islands as she taught in McKinley High School several years ago. She has been active in Y. W. C. A. work and has been working in the Henry Street settlement, New York City.

Deaconess Laura Knepper is a graduate of the University of Idaho and St. Faith's House, New York and has had considerable experience in settlement work and neighborhood visiting at Chase House in Chicago.

We welcome them with a hearty Aloha and know that they will endear themselves to the people of Honolulu.

CHANGES AT THE PRIORY

In a changing world, we still hope for some people and things to remain as they were, but even at the Priory Sisters come and go.

The change this year for the Sisters is in Aloha to Sister Martha Mary and Sister Evelyn Ancilla, who returned to the mainland some time ago. They have left many friends here (not the least being Susie, the Priory guardian with her clarion bark of warning to all and sundry.)

One of our old girls, Dorothy McNicol, accompanied Sister Martha to the Convent where she will make an extended, perhaps permanent, stay.

And Aloha in greeting to Sister Winifred Agnes and Sister Virginia Cecilia, both coming from the Mother House as teachers, full of enthusiasm for their new work, and even at this early date making real contribution to the comfort and appearance of the Priory and school.

They bring many greetings from Sisters who were stationed here in other years, and in particular from our Reverend Mother Olivia Mary, as well as from Sister Clara Elizabeth, now in charge of St. Dorothy's Rest, Camp Meeker, California, in whose hearts is a perpetual love of the Islands and the Island people.—+C. H.

ST. ELIZABETH'S CHURCH, HONOLULU did not waste any time after the return of their vicar from the mainland to have a dinner reception for his family and the Bishop's family. Everyone was glad to welcome the Rev. Mr. Shim and his family back to St. Elizabeth's. A bountiful dinner of Chinese foods was served after the Confirmation service on July 9. The rooms in the parish hall would not hold all who attended so it was necessary to set tables out on the lanai. The clergy and diocesan officers were guests at this delightful party.

ROBERT SHEERAN, Y1/c who served with the American Church Army before going into the service has just returned to the mainland. He is greatly missed in Honolulu because he has been one of our active lay readers for about two years, serving in many of our churches in the city. He made a myriad of friends, all of whom hated to see him leave and we all look forward to the time when the war is over and he may return to be with us.

These children are only a part of St. Andrew's Parish School, Honolulu but the interesting thing is that they were all baptized since they have been in school. Mrs. Dorothy Reid, the principal, has a daily class of religious instruction for all the children of all races. Many oriental parents have been brought into the life of the church through the interest of their children.

There have been 436 confirmations so far this year in the District of Honolulu. This is the largest number for any one year in the history of the Diocese. In the past ten years we have had the following confirmations:

1935	265
1936	217
1937	191
1938	226
1939	274
1940	158
1941	271
1942	320
1943	154

In the Journal of the Forty-first Annual Convocation of the District is the statement that in a certain year there were 411 confirmations but this is an error as that figure was really for two years—172 for one year and 239 for the next.

THE CATHEDRAL LOOKS ALL SPICK AND SPAN with a two-color asphaltic tile floor. Many people have been impressed with the improvement that has been made in the Cathedral and everyone feels that the new floor adds to its beauty.

Lay Readers

We are proud of our Lay Readers and the work they are doing in our District of Honolulu. We have 23 licensed lay readers who are taking regular services or stand on call when needed. With the shortage of clergy their assistance is invaluable. They have been taking services in our missions, at the Seamen's Church Institute, and some in military camps where we have no Episcopal Chaplains to minister to our churchmen. We wish we had space to mention each one and the splendid contribution he is making to the life of the Church in the Islands, but we do want them to know how greatly we appreciate all they are doing to help us.

The following are faithfully serving this District.

Mr. Robert Kondo, All Saints Kapaa; Mr. W. Wm. Buttles, Iolani School, Honolulu; Mr. Frank Tyau, St. Elizabeth's, Honolulu; Mr. Stanley J. Hartmann, Good Shepherd, Wailuku; Mr. Rowland Shephardson, St. Clement's, Honolulu; Captain Henry C. Putnam, St. Clement's, Honolulu; Mr. Murray Johnson, St. Clement's, Honolulu; Mr. James H. Tabor, St. Clement's, Honolulu; Lieut. Col. Edouard L. Doty, St. Clement's, Honolulu; Mr. John D. Borne, St. Clement's, Honolulu; Mr. Franklin H. Ward, Puunene, Maui; Mr. Carl Eshelman, Christ Church, Kealahou; Mr. Tai Soon Lee, St. Luke's, Honolulu; Pvt. John Mills, Military Service; Col. Wm. C. Farnum, St. Andrew's Cathedral; Mr. Antone Cacatian, St. John's, Eleele; Mr. Lawrence Gillingham, St. John's, Eleele; Mr. Shurei Hirozawa, St. John's, Eleele; Mr. Jack Yoshikawa, St. John's, Eleele; Mr. Stanley T. Sumida, St. John's, Eleele; Mr. Nagel Huskin, St. John's, Eleele; Mr. Shigeo Uyeda, St. John's, Eleele; Pvt. Francis Guswaller, Military Service.

OBITUARIES

The Rev. Frank N. Cockroft, retired priest of the District of Honolulu died on January 12th in Seattle, Washington.

Mr. Cockroft was born in Lancashire, England in 1868 and he served as Vicar at Holy Innocents Church, Lahaina, Maui from 1915 to 1936 when he retired. During his time the beautiful church building and parish house were built and they stand today as monuments to his memory and his faithful ministry.

His many friends throughout the islands are grieved to hear of his death and we join his family in sharing their sorrow. We have remembered him in our private prayers and at our altars in the District.

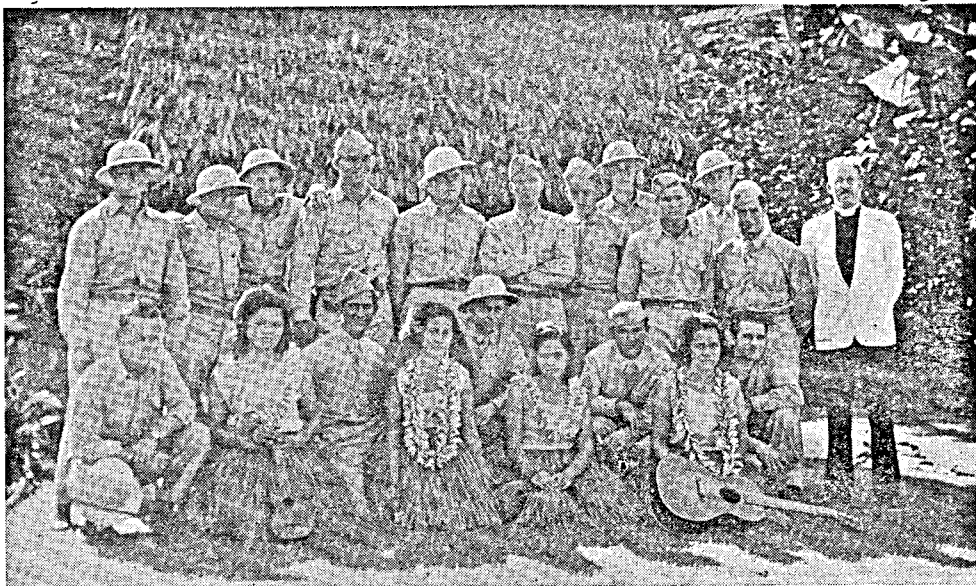

(Unfortunately this announcement appears late in the Chronicle as Mr. Cockroft's death came when we were changing Bishops and the details with the Church Pension Fund were not handled through Honolulu).

Mrs. E. K. Oakes, church worker in Hawaii for 25 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Hanna, Orgeon City, Oregon, where she had gone last March. Mrs. Oakes was born in Iowa, July 16, 1871 and was within one day of being 73 years of age. The first work she undertook was as a teacher at Iolani School, placed there by Bishop Restarick and she remained on the faculty for many years, resigning to establish her own private school, her specialty being the teaching of English to Chinese students.

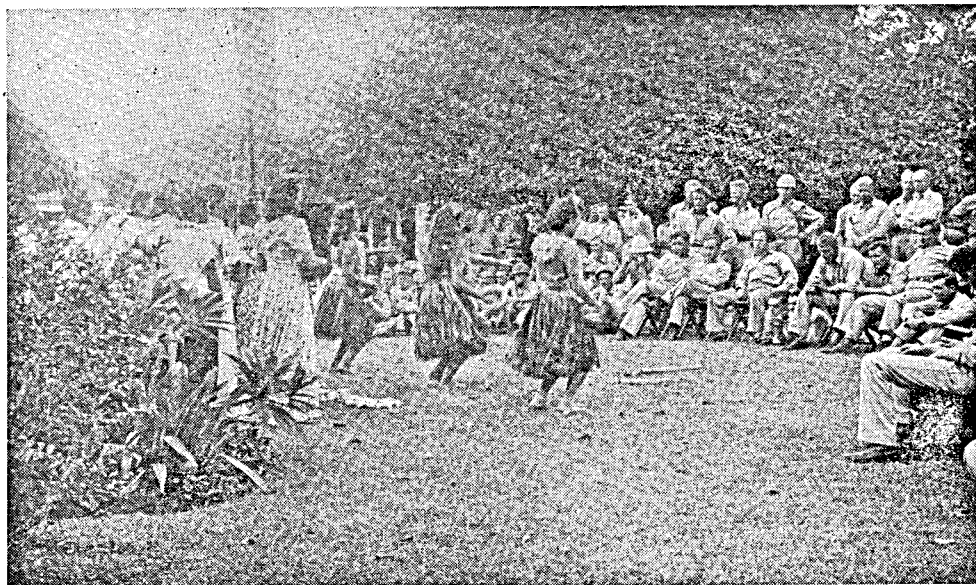

Few members of the church have so fully entered into various activities within the church. She seemed to seek difficult places. She played for services at the Seamen's Church Institute and at the Mission of St. John's-by-the-Sea, she visited the sick in hospitals and was always found wherever needed. Her bright, cheery nature made her a welcome visitor and her friends of all races will mourn her death.

Mrs. Rycroft—One of the oldest members of the Episcopal Church in Hawaii, Mrs. Elizabeth (Campbell) Rycroft, died in Honolulu on July 2, 1944, at the ripe age of 95. Mrs. Rycroft and her family always took a keen interest in the affairs of the Church and she was for many years Treasurer of St. Andrew's Guild. She was the widow of Robert Rycroft and for a great many years lived on the Island of Hawaii where they were both subscribers and readers of the Anglican Church Chronicle, which was the name of this paper before annexation.

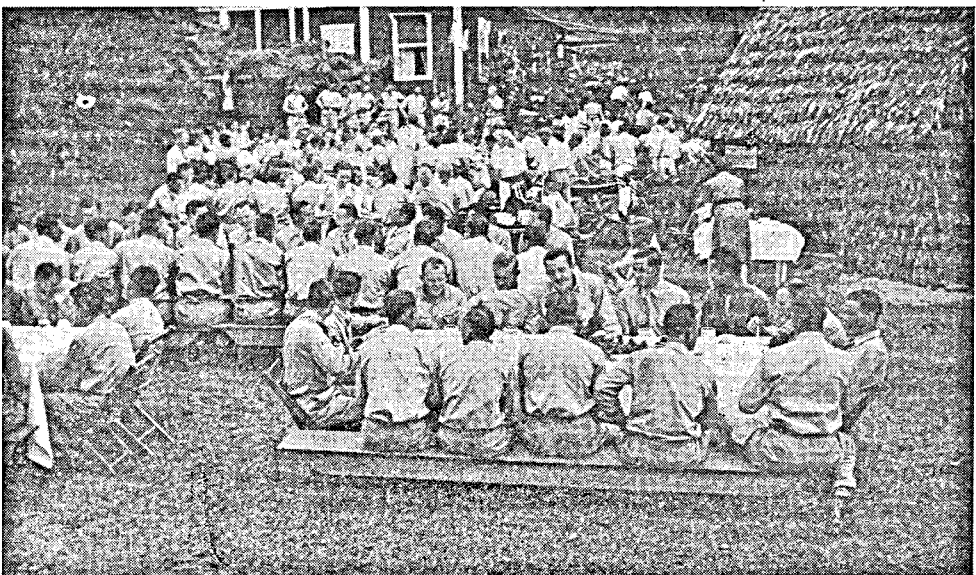

Mrs. Baird—The Church has also lost another faithful member in the death of Mrs. W. H. Baird, who was Miss Fanny May. She was born in Newark, Nottingham, England and was in her 86th year. She came to the Islands to be with her brother, our esteemed fellow-townsmen, the late Mr. Thomas May, a Trustee of St. Andrew's Cathedral for many years. In her early days she took an active part in the social affairs of the Islands and married Mr. W. H. Baird, a member of the firm of Theo. H. Davies & Company and who for some years acted as British Vice Consul. In her later life, although an invalid and living in retirement, Fanny May Baird always took a keen interest in world affairs. She will be affectionately remembered by her circle of friends.

The Rev. Kenneth O. Miller and a typical group of service men who are regularly entertained at the USO in Christ Church Parish House. This is the meeting place for service men of the whole Kona area.

Service men at the USO are entertained by native dancers and singers which always gives them something to write home about.

"The Little Grass Shack in Kealakekua". Soldiers enjoy the hospitality of Christ Church, Kealakekua where the food is always plentiful and things seem like "back home".

Major Items in Brief Form

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP will have their All Day Conference August 27th at the Von Holt Place at Laie. There have been 75 registrations for bus transportation and others will go by private car. An interesting program has been planned for this Senior High School age group.

Several groups are organizing their societies around the program of the UMCY which is the United Movement of Christian Youth under our National Council. Pins and literature from the National Council have been distributed to our parish groups.

DIOCESAN PRAYER CARDS are available for all who wish to obtain them. These small cards for the purse or pocket have prayers for our times that may be used at home or in the church. These prayer cards may be obtained from the Bishop's office.

IT LOOKS LIKE A SHORN LAMB. We are speaking of the Beretania side of St. Andrew's Cathedral property, Honolulu. The street has been widened ten feet all along that block, which means that five lovely monkeypod trees had to come down. Shades of the Outdoor Circle! Or rather no shade in that area for a while. Anyone can now see the Cathedral buildings.

"THAT IS THE LOVELIEST SIGHT I'VE SEEN IN HONOLULU" said a service man as the bus on which he was riding one moonlight evening passed the Church grounds of St. Clement's Parish.

CHAPLAIN DONALD B. ALDRICH addressed the Conference of the clergy of the District at the meeting on Tuesday, August 22, at the Bishop's Office. Chaplain Aldrich, who is attached to the Navy Chaplain's Office at Pearl Harbor is the Rector of the Church of the Ascension, New York, City, and has encouraged the Church in Hawaii by his kindly interest and sermons preached in many parishes.

ST. ELIZABETH'S MISSION and GOOD SAMARITAN MISSION are having their vicarages freshly painted and many necessary repairs made. A noticeable improvement has been made in both residences and we know the Shim and Nakamura families will be happy to move into their new quarters.

HOLY TRINITY MISSION is preparing for a building campaign. Committees are being appointed and plans made for the new structures. They hope to build a church, parish house and vicarage. We all know how hard these people have been working in the past and we feel confident their efforts will be successful in this direction.

THE REV. ROBERT L. STEVENSON has been in Hilo for the summer supplying at the Church of the Holy Apostles. He will return in September to Iolani School where he will continue as chaplain for the coming year.

LIEUT. COLONEL SERVES AS ORGANIST. At St. John's Mission, Eleele on Kauai, the new choir master and organist is Lieut. Colonel Hamilton W. Fish. He is a trained musician and organist. The Japanese young people in the choir are receiving excellent training under his direction. They all consider it a privilege to have him as their Director. This is another instance where the army is contributing to the life and the work of our church in the islands.

THE GOOD FRIDAY OFFERING this year taken in the district for the work of our ten churches in Jerusalem amounted to $572.68 as compared with last year's offering of $153.26.

THE VESTRY OF ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL PARISH has graciously offered the use of Tenney Memorial Auditorium to the National American Red Cross for office space and the Board of Directors in the district have granted them permission to erect a temporary office building on our Cathedral property. The work of the Red Cross in the Central Pacific is increasing tremendously and the need for more office space was quite desperate. This means a great sacrifice on the part of St. Andrew's Cathedral Parish in giving up this space for the duration but it is another instance of our church's contribution to the war effort here in the islands.

GOOD SAMARITAN MISSION gave an Aloha Tea for the Rev. and Mrs. James S. Nakamura on Saturday, August 12th. Members of the Congregation and many friends in Honolulu came to welcome the new vicar and his wife, as well as their young son John. Delicious refreshments were served and the visitors took the opportunity to go through the vicarage which has been newly painted and refurnished. Mr. Nakamura did all the interior painting of the house by himself and the result is a most attractive combination of colors and workmanship. The whole District of Honolulu joins with the congregation in welcoming the Nakamuras to Good Samaritan.

HOLY TRINITY JAPANESE CONGREGATION held a reception dinner for Bishop Kennedy and his family at Kewalo Inn on August 13th. Sixty members of the Congregation were present to share in a delicious steak dinner. Miss Blanche Myers, District Treasurer, and Miss Mabel Schaeffer, Matron of Cluett House and director of Holy Trinity choir were also guests.

The attractive dining room opening out on the sea on one side and on the mountains on the other, was beautifully decorated with flowers by members of the congregation. Leis of white ginger were bestowed upon the guests.

Mr. Harold Yamato was toastmaster and introduced several members of the choir who sang, and representatives of various organizations gave speeches of welcome.

Interesting stories were related by several members as to how they became Christians, and how happy they are in their new found faith. The Rev. Lawrence H. Ozaki announced that they had set a goal to increase their membership for 1945 by winning others to Christ. They hope to have 100 baptisms and 75 Confirmations, and we feel sure that with the enthusiasm manifested by this young congregation they will attain their goal.

THE FURNISHINGS IN THE BISHOP'S OFFICE are now complete. We are very grateful for the part that our schools have played. St. Andrew's Priory School for Girls gave $390.55; Iolani School for Boys gave $278.00 and the Cathedral Parish School gave $50.00.

A BUDDHIST'S HOUSE MADE CHRISTIAN! Now that is some statement and it actually happened on Kauai when the home of the former Buddhist priest of Wahiawa, near Eleele, was turned over to the Rev. Andrew N. Otani as his temporary residence.

DEACONESS SARAH F. SWINBURNE has gone to Kauai to assist the work of Archdeacon Willey and his growing staff. On Tuesday, August 8th, a farewell tea was given for the Deaconess by Mrs. William S. Fraser, Auxiliary President, at her home in Manoa Valley, Honolulu, attended by scores of her many friends. Deaconess Swinburne has worked in many places on Oahu and of late was in charge of St. Elizabeth's Mission during the absence of the Rev. Wai On Shim. Good wishes and prayers follow her to the new work.

THE REV. DENIS SMITH of Paaulo and adjacent countryside on Hawaii is doing many things. His article about June affairs was not included in recent Chronicles owing to lack of space and late arrival. He sent a wildly headed article about Gangsters which turned out to be a Sunday School play depicting the parable of the Good Samaritan. We venture to bet that every one of the kids in the play wanted to be a thief. It was a vacation school project and undoubtedly vigorously acted.

TWO OF THE CLERGY of the Chaplains' Corps, the Rev. Kenneth D. Perkins and the Rev. Albert H. Stone, are now stationed on the mainland.

PIN UP MAP OF KAUAI. Keeping track of the new work opened on the Island of Kauai is a little bewildering to our simple minds and would require a map of the Island and a flock of pins. Wahiawa and Camp No. 6, near Eleele, where the Rev. J. Thurlow Baker has his headquarters, has sent a substantial offering for the Army and Navy Commission.

The writer, Miss Ann Teruko Oka, in charge of the Sunday School, tells us that the Rev. Andrew N. Otani is having great success with his evening services for older Japanese people at the Camp and that "since the arrival of Mr. Otani the Sunday School attendance has rapidly increased."

MR. JOSEPH PRITCHARD, for many years custodian of our cemetery and other church property at Honokaa, has retired from that position because of age. We are deeply grateful to Mr. Pritchard for his years of service to the church.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, HONOLULU held a reception for the Bishop and his family on June 24 in their Parish hall. Canon Mark was the toastmaster and he called on several members of the congregation who made interesting talks. Announcement was made of their building fund campaign which has been a one-man drive to date, as the Vicar alone has raised $17,000.00.

A wonderful Chinese supper was served and everyone enjoyed the splendid spirit of fellowship which prevailed. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. George Michopoulos, Mr. John Deter, Mr. T. J. Hollander and Miss B. E. Myers.

MISSION QUOTAS AND DIOCESAN ASSESSMENTS FOR 1944

FROM JANUARY 1 TO AUGUST 20, 1944

THE Call to Coffee

Nothing warms a sailor's heart like a cup of grand coffee. For years
Kona coffee has lent its fine flavor to the world's famous blends. Now this great favorite stays at home to high-spirited meals for Hawaii's fighters and workers.
