DEDICATION SERVICE

Sunday, September 14th, at 4:00 p. m., there will be a service of dedication for our Mokuleia Youth Center. All clergy will participate in the service and the Bishop will be in charge.

Our congregations are urged to join in making this a real event. Following the service we will have a time of fellowship. All who attend are requested to bring a picnic supper and join in the occasion.

Visitors of Note

It has been our great honor and pleasure to welcome visitors passing through the Islands, either on their way to the mainland, or returning to mission fields. Those who have visited us are: Bishop Quentin Huang of China, who passed through Honolulu on his way back to China. His wife and a party of twelve were here for the Priory graduation service and were honored at a tea in the Diocesan House for clergy, their wives and friends.

The Most Reverend Howard West Kilvinton Mowl, D.D., Archbishop of Sydney, passed through Honolulu on his way to England, and returned to Honolulu on August 29th, on his return to Edgecliff, Australia. He was accompanied by his Chaplain, the Rev. Mr. Arrow-smith.

Bishop Keh-Tsung Mao, Assistant Bishop of Shanghai, stopped for a few hours on his return to the Orient.
He was entertained at dinner by the Rev. and Mrs.
Y. Sang Mark. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen accompanied Bishop Mao. Mr. Allen is Treasurer of the Diocese of Hankow.

The Very Reverend Frederick Magee Adams, dean of Trinity Cathedral, Trenton, New Jersey, spent his vacation in Honolulu, preaching at the Cathedral on August 3rd.

QUIET MORNING FOR DIOCESAN WOMEN

On Tuesday, September 9th, members of the Woman's Auxiliaries throughout the Diocese will observe a Quiet Morning at St. Clement's Church, from 9:00 to 11:30 o'clock. The service will start with the celebration of Holy Communion with the Bishop as Celebrant, after which a period of prayers and meditations will be conducted by the Bishop.

It is the sincere hope of the Diocesan Board that women throughout our missions and parishes on tahi will avail themselves of this opportunity and take time from their usual duties to refresh themselves spiritually.

INSTALLATION AS RECTOR OF ST. PETER'S PARISH

The Reverend Y. Sang Mark was installed as rector of St. Peter's Parish on Sunday, July 6th, at 10:30 a. m. Presentation of the keys were made by the Senior Warden, Albert C. Kong and Junior Warden, Henry Akui Tyau. The Bishop installed the Rev. Mr.
Mark as rector and preached the sermon.

The service was one that meant much to the people of this parish, for they have worked diligently to bring it to the status of parish. St. Peter's became our sixth independent parish in the District.

Following the service of installation, a luncheon was served in the parish house, honoring The Rector and Mrs. Mark.

Greetings!

After a two month's vacation we greet you. We have recently sent statements to those who have not paid subscriptions since 1945 and 1946. Technically subscriptions are due January 1st whether paid in January or June. We need subscriptions in order to pay printing and postage expenses. May we count on your continued assistance for our publication?

Clergy Conference

The clergy will assemble on September 15th through the 17th, at our Mokuleia Youth Center, for a Conference. The Bishop will preside.

Mokuleia Youth Center

Dreams do come true and prayers are answered! For many months the Bishop and young people of the Diocese have hoped and prayed that they might find an appropriate place for a Youth Center and Conference grounds. Every spot on the Island of Oahu had been combed—many with wistful eye and wishful thinking. Just as one place was to be considered for purchase by the Board of Directors, the Mokuleia property, the former McInerny beach home, and used during the war as a recreation center by the army, was placed on sale. The Church has been able to secure this property for our Conference Center, and it will be ideal for our young people, clergy and organizations. The property includes two and one-half acres on Mokuleia Beach. It has five buildings in a grove of ironwood trees—a main house, the old McInerny home, a guest cottage, a two-car garage and a servant's house and Chapel building. To increase dormitory space an army building will be added.

On July 13th over two hundred Episcopal young people on Oahu attended a picnic at the newly purchased Youth Center. Two chartered buses, plus cars and trucks, took young people from Honolulu to the Center.

The day began with a celebration of the Holy Communion under the pine trees, with Bishop Kennedy as celebrant. After breakfast the young people spent part of the morning clearing and sweeping the sand from the outdoor dancing pavilion and burning leaves. Fences were also repaired. The rest of the day was spent in volleyball, football, ping-pong games, dancing and swimming.

OAHU YOUTH CONFERENCE

A Holy Communion service with the Bishop as Celebrant. Over two hundred young people were in attendance at this service on July 14th.

Many of our churches have begun to make reservations for the use of the Center, and we hope that all congregations will feel free to do so. On August 9th the young people of Holy Trinity Church invited the young men and women twenty years of age and older to gather for a picnic and formation of an older young people's group. Mr. Floyd Uchima was in charge of arrangements. About fifty were in attendance. On August 23rd and 24th the Oahu Young People's officers of the various churches met for an outing, and on August 29th through September 1st, the Rev. and Mrs. Edmund L. Souder and St. Mark's young people had an outing.

We are extremely eager to form a Board of Managers for the Camp, so that specific rules can be made for the use of the place, and have asked the clergy to appoint a member for this Board from each congregation on Oahu.

Any volunteer workers who are talented with a paint brush or hammer and saw would be most welcome to help with repairs and additions to the property.

We have no intention of running the place as a money making proposition, but know that certain expenses will be involved in the upkeep of the place, so we shall be compelled to make certain charges for the use of it.

We feel a deep sense of gratitude for the interest and help given us by the young people on our Islands, for they have contributed $2000 toward the purchase of the property, plus $1500 toward an ice box, deep freeze, stove, and kitchen equipment. Other gifts have been made by Iolani School, $2000; Cluett House, $2000, and Hawaiian Congregation, $1000. St. Andrew's Priory expects to give $2000 toward this project and two of our congregations have signified their intention of giving $1000 or more toward it.

To the young people of the Church of our country, we add our profound thanks, for they will be united in their effort to stand behind this Center when they take their United Youth Offering on October 19th. If only we could express the great feeling of appreciation we have for this interest, but words cannot formulate what is within the hearts of our youth! We do hope everyone who shares in this will know what it means to the youth and the work of our Church in the Islands.

We sincerely hope that people who can make voluntary contributions toward this project will do so through the Bishop's Office.

NOTE OF APPRECIATION

During the absence of the Bishop's Secretary, who was on the mainland for a two month's vacation, Mrs. Kahiwa Lee helped carry on the work in the Bishop's Office. We wish to acknowledge the very fine way in which she assisted, for it was a tremendous help to the Bishop. Dividing her responsibilities at Cluett House and the Diocesan Office required much extra planning and effort. It was a great joy to everyone to have her in the Office during this period.

Ordination to the Diaconate

An impressive service was that held June 30th in St. Andrew's Cathedral, at which time the Rev. High Leonard Somerville Thompson was ordained to the Diaconate by Bishop Kennedy. The Reverend Sydney H. Croft was Presentor and the Litany for Ordinations was read by The Rev. Wai On Shim. The Ordination Sermon was preached by The Rev. Kenneth A. Ray, excerpts of which follow:

"Upon the occasion of the Ordering of Deacons, the Church directs that there shall be a Sermon and that that Sermon declare:

1. The Duty and Office of such as come to be admitted Deacons.
2. How necessary that Order is to the Church of Christ.
3. And how the people ought to esteem them in their office.

Christianity is a historical religion, and its claim to be a historical religion is not the claim that it emerged in history, but that its God emerged in the continuism of history, by doing something in history which uniquely revealed Him. Christianity is not the stuff of ideas, it is of the stuff of history, therefore definiteness and detail are of its very nature.

It was natural then that our Lord should have provided an organism and organization which would ensure the continuance of Christianity in the continuism of history, and that definiteness and detail should be of its very nature. . . . It will be as definite and detailed as the God-filled crib and the God-empty tomb.

Diocesan Youth Conference Held on Kauai

Glowing accounts have come to us from the official delegates and others who attended the Diocesan Youth Conference at All Saint's Church, Kapaa, Kauai, on the week-end of August 14th-18th. It was the first of its kind to be held on Kauai, and an expression of appreciation is extended to The Venerable Henry A. Willey, Archdeacon of Kauai, the Reverends Harold Willmot Smith, Andrew N. Otani, Hugh L. Thompson and George Prendergast, and Mr. Robert Kondo, who assisted the young people on Kauai with preparation plans for what the Oahu delegates termed a royal reception. Thirty-four delegates from Oahu were in attendance, and Floyd Uchima, Diocesan President, presided, assisted by Gladys Tonaki, Secretary and Mary Day, Treasurer.

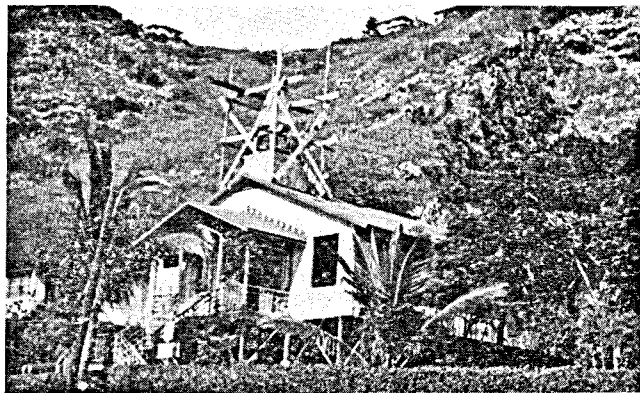

Thursday and Friday were spent in touring the scenic spots of Kauai. There was an all day conference on Saturday, and the Rev. Anson Phelps Stokes, Jr., was the guest speaker for this occasion, using as his main topics: Prayer as the Source of Purpose and Prayer as the Source of Power. His talks were followed by discussion groups led by the Reverends Prendergast, Thompson and Smith.

New Officers for the Diocesan YPF are: William Sumida, President; Laura Iwami, Secretary, and Pauline Lee, Treasurer.

The young people were informed of the National Youth Program by Miss Pearl Richardson, a member of the National Youth Commission, and were told of the United Youth Offering to be taken October 19th for the Youth Center in Hawaii. It was voted by the Conference members that a letter be sent to National Headquarters, expressing the appreciation of the young people of Hawaii for their united interest in our Church's work with youth.

The Conference opened with a Holy Communion service at All Saints Church, Kapaa, with Canon Stokes as celebrant. Conferences and discussion groups were held during the day. A luau and dance were held at the Valley House on Saturday night. A united service for the young people was held on Sunday at All Saints' Church. In the afternoon swimming and a boat ride at Miller's Beach was the program.

The Oahu delegates were: St. Andrew's Cathedral, Helen Chang, Kenneth Ishimoto, Calvin Pang, Bruce Kennedy, Pauline Lee and Mary Day; St. Elizabeth's, Laura Iwami, Wilfred Tyau; Epiphany, Robert Richardson, Edith Hoapili; Holy Trinity, Grace Seki; Good Samaritan, Helen Ogura, Violet Ogawa; St. Mark's, Harry Iwata, Lillian Ikeda; St. Mary's, William Sumida, Jane Yoshida; St. Clement's, Norman Westley; St. Peter's, David Yap. Non-official delegates were: Jane Isoshima, Betty Fujii, Robert Monell, Pearl Richardson, Norma Chow, Harry Takane, Harriet Matsui, Stanley Tanaka, Yutaka Sakamoto, George

The Rev. James Nakamura and his congregation are proud of the new Church that is being constructed from one of the old Red Cross Buildings on the Cathedral grounds. It has made a beautiful house of worship.

The young people from Oahu chartered a plane for their trip.

St. Mary's Home Notes

The first of August marked a red letter day for the youngsters of St. Mary's Home and for the Diocese, as our new matron, Miss Marguerite Henry, and house manager, Mrs. Allen Fox, arrived for their new duties. Both have come to us with an enthusiasm for their new work, and have completely won their young charges. They are most charming and it gives us a sense of great pride to welcome them as members of our Diocesan family. A reception honoring them was given by the Board of Governors at the Home on Monday, August 4th, at which time clergy and friends extended an Aloha greeting to them.

Since the resignation of Miss Charolene Leonard, as of June first, Deaconess Sarah F. Swinburne, assisted by Miss Clare Curtis, took charge of the Home, and the Bishop would like to express deep appreciation for the very wonderful way in which they carried on under trying circumstances. Special commendation goes to Deaconess Swinburne for her untiring effort to keep things running smoothly until Miss Henry's arrival. She did it cheerfully and efficiently and such co-operation is greatly appreciated.

On Sunday, August 17th, the children of the home were taken for their annual two week's camping trip. Miss Henry mapped out a fascinating program for the children, so we know their two weeks from the usual routine was fun for them.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

The Rt. Rev. and Mrs. S. Harrington Littell, who since their retirement have made their home at 110 Morningside Drive, New York City, are now living at 97 East Main Street, Cambridge, New York.

St. James' Church

This picture clearly shows the army buildings recently purchased by the Church at Waimea, Kamuela, Hawaii recently presented a class of 22 for Confirmation at this Church.

Large Confirmation Class for Small Mission

On August 17th, at St. James' Mission, Kamuela, Hawaii, Archdeacon Walker presented 22 persons for Confirmation, most of whom were adults. This class doubles the number of communicants in St. James'. To prepare this class for confirmation meant long, hard drives through rural areas for the Archdeacon.

After the service a luncheon was served in the Home Economics room of the school property which the Diocese just purchased. This was a great day in the life of St. James' Church, and it made all those present realize the need for a Church building to replace the small portable structure which was erected more than twenty-five years ago.

Tenders Resignation

Mrs. Kenneth Day has resigned as President of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary as she is to teach at St. Andrew's Priory this coming year. Mrs. William Fraser, former President of the Auxiliary, was appointed by the Executive Board to complete the term of Mrs. Day, inasmuch as she has served in this capacity and knows the duties she must assume in the interim period before another election.

We regret that Mrs. Day feels called upon to relinquish her duties in this important office, but appreciate her position. She has served most successfully for the past year and a half and has kept our Auxiliary strong and active. We feel indebted to Mrs. Fraser for assuming this responsibility at this time, but know she will carry on to a successful conclusion the work outlined by Mrs. Day.

SHINGLE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. James Tice have taken residence at Shingle Memorial Hospital. Mr. Tice is business manager of the Hospital. He was a former army colonel and has had a most interesting career. We feel that the addition of Mr. and Mrs. Tice to the Hospital force has been one that will prove most beneficial to its growth. The Tices have already made many friends on the Island of Molokai.

OVER KPOA

The Sunday service at 11:00 a. m., is broadcast from St. Andrew's Cathedral each week. This should be an opportunity for those who are ill and shut-in to enjoy the service. It should not mean that it is an easy way to attend Church, for the corporate act of worshipping in God's House can never be supplanted by radio. We are happy to announce that these services can be heard when it is impossible to be present for a service in the Cathedral, or in our other churches.

TWO NEW MEMBERS ADDED TO DIOCESAN FAMILY

On June 10th Lillian Marie Nakamura arrived to add joy to the Reverend and Mrs. James S. Nakamura's family. The members of Good Samaritan Church are very delighted with their new member.

The Reverend and Mrs. E. Percy Bartlam, of the Good Shepherd Church, Wailuku, Maui, announce the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Ann, on August 5th.

Both babies are the third child of these families, and we are very happy to have them as members of our Diocesan family.

Kilauea, Hawaii

which will be used for Church purposes. St. James' Church is the building with the cross. The Ven. James Walker, Bishop on his last trip to the mainland made the purchase possible.

Christ Memorial Church, Kauai

A silver baptismal bowl was recently blessed and placed in the marble baptismal font, at Christ Memorial Church, Kilauea, and is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Masao Ninomoto, given in memory of their daughter, Ruth Shigeko, who was lost in the tidal wave of 1946. At this service Doris Hatsuyo Ninomoto, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ninomoto, and David Willmot Smith, infant son of the Rev. and Mrs. Harold W. Smith were baptized by the Vicar.

On Whitsunday new red hangings for the altar, pulpit and lectern, and red offering bags, given by Mr. and Mrs. William Mahikoa, were dedicated and used for the first time. Miss Nancy Kusumoto, Mrs. William Mahikoa, Miss Mary Ann Yoshimoto and Mrs. Harold Smith have made new altar linens, red burse and veil, and red velvet coverings for the alcoves side of the altar.

ST. ANDREW'S PRIORY NOTES

By Sister Rhoda Pearl

St. Andrew's Priory is very proud of the fact that Katherine Hendrix, who stood first in the accepted University candidates, was awarded the Territorial Scholarship for Honolulu. This is the second time in five years that a Priory girl was thus honored. The former recipient was Marion Ching, a '43 graduate, who is entering the graduate school of the University of Pennsylvania.

Evelyn Wong, our outstanding Senior Class president, was granted a scholarship for the University of Hawaii by the Chinese Woman's Club of the University. Several students sailed on the MATSONIA on

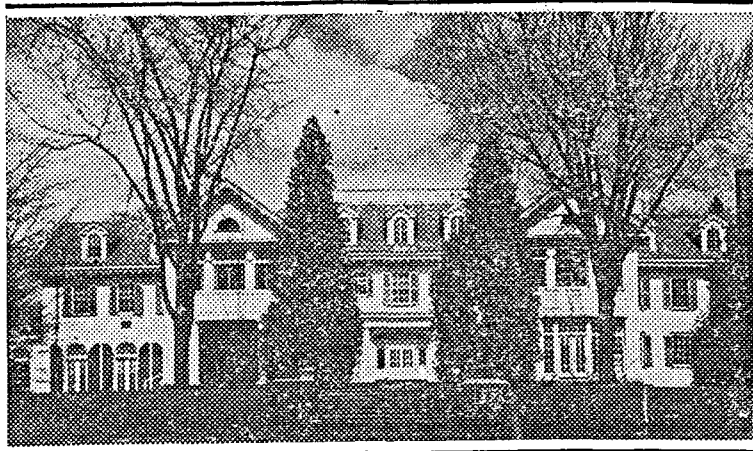

ORGAN MEMORIAL FUND GROWS

Friends of the late Dr. Mildred Staley are still contributing toward the organ and chimes fund for St. John's-by-the-Sea to be given in memory of her. We must have $3,000 for this fund to accomplish what we desire as a fitting memorial. Mr. T. J. Hollander, Chairman of the Fund, reports $1050 received to date, with the following additional contributions:

Mrs. Chong Luke, J. N. S. Williams, Deaconess Dawson, Mrs. J. S. Marques, Miss H. G. Forbes, W. H. Minton, Mrs. Alice Benjamin, Bishop S. H. Littell, Mrs. Ruth Moore, Mrs. Chas. Elliot, Mrs. G. C. Munro, Mrs. Anna Hollander, Miss A. J. Cox, Mrs. Walter Dillingham, Dr. K. C. M. Sills, Miss C. M. Young, Dr. and Mrs. Ozawa, Mrs. F. L. Salbach, Mrs. John Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. T. Shiratory, Mrs. Eirene A. and Mildred Blomfield, Miss Queenie Calvert, Mrs. A. M. G. Soper, Mrs. Clara Moore Sherley Tower, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Taylor, Miss Blanche E. Myers, Miss Marguerite Bryant, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss M. Catton, Dr. Nils P. Larson, Comdr. K. D. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mattson, Bishop Stephen E. Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hollander, Henry Putnam, Mrs. Juliet M. Kimball, Miss F. Lavinia Burton, Mrs. Mortimer Matthews.

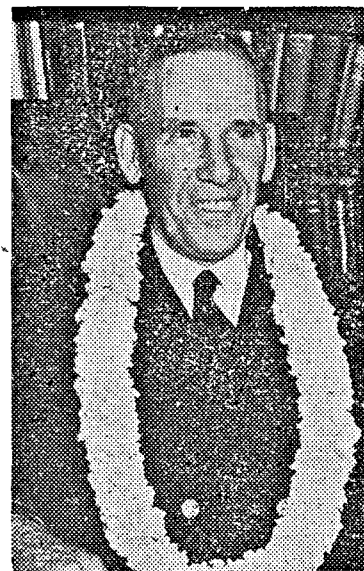

August 11th for mainland colleges. Among these were: Noelani Ching who is going to St. Teresa's in Minnesota; Vera Wong to Mount St. Mary's in California; Hilda Kobashigawa to Bard College at Annandale on the Hudson (formerly St. Stephen's); Mabel Yang and Loretta Yang to Intermont Teachers College in Virginia; Martha Makaiwi and Jane Caldwell to Keystone College at La Plume, Pennsylvania. Several are going to attend business colleges in Honolulu.

The Priory wishes all its 1947 graduates Godspeed.

Seabury House, Greenwich, Conn., has been acquired for use as a conference center and hostel for the National organization of the Episcopal Church. The Presiding Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Henry K. Sherrill, D.D., with his family, will occupy a smaller house which is a part of the estate. The place belonged to Herbert L. Satterlee. Present plans provide for holding meetings and conferences of various Church organizations and agencies at the Center, and for the entertainment of missionaries and others who will come to confer with the Presiding Bishop. The house is named in memory of the first American Bishop of the Episcopal Church who was Bishop of Connecticut from 1784 to 1796.

The Bishop has appointed Mrs. C. Montague Cooke, Jr., as Chairman of the Seabury House Committee for our Diocese. She is a life-time friend of Presiding Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill, and assumes her responsibility as Chairman with enthusiasm, for her regard and Aloha for Bishop Sherrill is very great. She is approaching friends whom she feels will assist in a financial way toward this great project of the Presiding Bishop's.

DR. WASSELL

Dr. Wassell To Head Molokai Hospital Staff

Mrs. Y San Mark Called By Death

The entire Diocese has been shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Mrs. Y. Sang Mark, wife of the Rev. Y. Sang Mark, rector of St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, and sister of the Rev. Wai On Shim, rector of St. Elizabeth's Church, Honolulu. She passed away in Queen's Hospital on August 27th, at 8:15 p. m., having suffered a heart attack.

Quiet and unassuming in all that she did, but zealous in her loyalty to her Church, Mrs. Mark was beloved by all as she went about her duties. Coming as she did from a great Church family, daughter of the late Rev. Shim Yin Chin, of St. John's Church, Kula, Maui, and Mrs. Shim, her early childhood was nurtured in Christian training... She came to Hawaii in 1914 with her parents. After her father's death, her mother carried on the work at the mission at Kula.

In addition to her husband, brother, and mother, she is survived by her sister, Mrs. Flora Shim Chang, a great Church worker in St. Peter's Parish, a daughter, Anna, and son Philip.

The sympathy of the entire Diocese is extended to the family of Mrs. Mark. She leaves a profound gap in the Diocesan Family, and we shall miss her greatly.

Another chapter is to be added to "The Life of Dr. Wassell" for Dr. Corydon Wassell, the American naval hero who defied red tape to evacuate wounded service men from Java early in the war, is getting ready to return to the Pacific as a missionary.

He and Mrs. Wassell plan to sail for Honolulu from Los Angeles October 18 on the Matsonia en route to Molokai where he will serve indefinitely without pay as superintendent of the 32-bed Episcopal hospital, the Shingle Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Wassell, a registered nurse, will be on the hospital staff.

The famed doctor wrote to Bishop Kennedy offering his services, and Bishop Kennedy gave the appointment.

Dr. Wassell attained fame when the late President Roosevelt told the story of his heroic rescue of wounded from the Cruisers Houston and Marblehead off Java in 1942.

During the Java campaign, Dr. Wassell remained behind in the path of advancing Japs to care for 12 seriously wounded men, whom he later evacuated to safety.

Dr. Wassell, a former doctor-missionary to China, holds the Navy Cross for his heroism.

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE DIOCESE

Iolani School has had a face lifting this summer. Many improvements have been made to the old property on Nuuanu and Judd Streets. The Headmaster's office has been moved from its old site to Willis Hall, making an attractive addition to the school. Willis Hall has been very much improved by other alterations that have been made there. Much landscaping has been done to the yard, and the play areas for the boys have been levelled so that they are a great improvement. Shower rooms have been enlarged and new lockers installed in the athletic buildings. The old business offices have been partitioned for improved efficiency. Regular gymnasium classes will be added to the schedule for the coming year, as will shop classes. The library has been enlarged to make for better reading and instruction. The students and teachers' quarters have been improved with new furniture and improvements.

St. Andrew's Priory looks like quite a different place as you enter the living room. It has been completely redecorated by the Associates of the Transfiguration, and is a delightful room. The dining room has also been redecorated so that it is much more attractive.

The new rectory at Christ Church, Kealahakua, Hawaii, has been completed and the Rev. and Mrs. Burton L. Linscott have moved into their new home. The parish hall had been converted into living quarters until the rectory was completed, and will now be used for parish work and a kindergarten school to be started by the Rev. Mr. Linscott. The work at Kealahakua is showing marked gains of late and we rejoice that the parish hall can be used for such important work.

The interior of St. John's rectory, Eleele, Kauai, has been repainted and the front porch enlarged and screened.

A Quonset hut has been purchased by St. Mark's Church, to be used for their parish and school work, which is growing in rapid strides under the direction of the Rev. Edmund L. Souder.

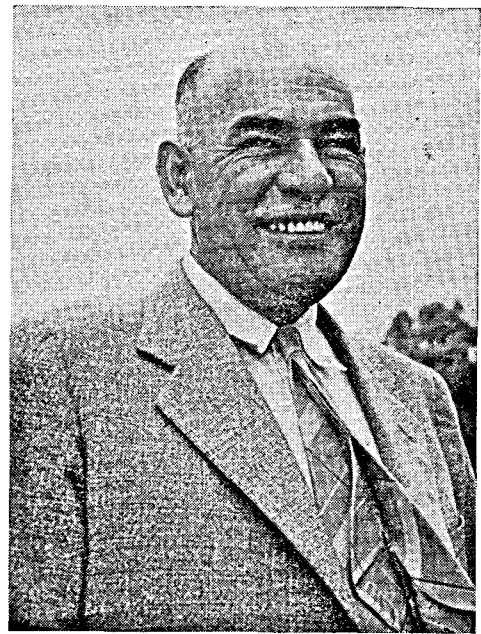

The Reverend and Mrs. Sydney H. Croft are happy in the rapid strides being made in the building of their new rectory. It will be completed before long and they will move into their new home.

A new Quonset hut has been purchased by St. Mary's Mission for their kindergarten and parish work. It has been a much-needed improvement.

Shingle Memorial Hospital has a new O. B. table, the gift of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary.

Leaves For Bethany Home

Miss Leinaala, Postulant of the Sisters of the Transfiguration, leaves September 12th for Bethany Home, Glendale, Ohio, to continue her studies for the Sisterhood. We wish her well in her new work.

JOHN TOWNSEND

ENTERS LIFE ETERNAL

On Memorial Day, May 30, Mr. John Townsend, beloved Senior Warden of St. John's-by-the-Sea, Kahaluu, Kaneohe, Oahu, was called by death. His loss to this mission and to the Diocese has been keenly felt, and will be as time goes on. His interest at all times was a great source of inspiration, and it was largely through his effort that the new Church, St. John's-by-the-Sea, came to a successful conclusion.

By profession he was Supervisor of Road Construction for the City and County of Honolulu. He went to Kahaluu in 1912, and was instrumental in many of the improvements on the Windward side of Oahu. The recreation of youth was benefited by his interest in securing a center where they could gather for baseball, etc.

The great tribute paid him at his burial service, by adults and children alike, by the American Legion and civic officials, gave testimony of the esteem with which he was regarded by all. His was a life of service for others.

His burial service was held at St. Andrew's Cathedral and was conducted by the Bishop and the Rev. Richard M. Trelease, Jr.

Almighty God, we remember this day before thee thy faithful servant, John, and we pray thee that having opened to him the gates of a larger life, thou wilt receive him more and more into thy joyful service; that he may win, with thee and thy servants everywhere, the eternal victory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ORDINATION SERVICE

So you find in Christ's Church a definite and detailed organization of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, an unbroken chain in the continuism of history, technically called an Apostolic succession, whose far end does not hang loose in history, but is linked to the Author of Life through Jesus Christ.

We esteem the Order of the Church because we first esteem the Divine Order of God in His Incarnation in history. Honoring Him, we honor it. Honoring it, we honor Him.

Hugh Leonard Somerville:

You are older and more mature than is the general rule of those seeking Orders as Deacons, but that does not give you immunity from being spoken to as a Deacon. Other vocations have beckoned you, but when they had their say, and had received your careful consideration, you heard, and with increasing clearness the call of Christ to the Ministry of His Church. You gave heed to this Call. It meant years of study and of discipline, and it demanded faith and fortitude and determination. You have completed that study, and now at last to your "vocation" is to be added "mission". And you who have been "called" are now to be "sent."

Before we can accept it, there must be added authority to your inward call. So your vocation is now to be sealed unto you by the Church, stamped with her indelible order, authenticated, approved and made official in the face of all men, for their recognition and for the glory and service of God. Your ministerial vocation is to be given ministerial Authority, and after years of waiting, you will receive your reward.

You will have an honored place in society. Your words will receive respectful attention. Your opinion will be sought, even by those wiser than yourself. You will be offered opportunities for leadership, when perhaps there are others standing by, more capable of leading. But it was not for such rewards you were called, nor was it for such rewards that you gave heed to the call, and certainly it is not for any such rewards the Church will commission you. No, you were called and are to be commissioned to be a servant. That is the great reward. That, and no other. That, and no more. But that reward drew from our Lord's lips the only boast that ever passed them, "The Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister. I am among you as one that serveth."

The Diaconate is not so much a stepping stone to the Priesthood, as the threshold of wonderful fields of labor. Do not step into it, only to step out of it. Profit by your stay in it. Your security from becoming slack, smug, self-satisfied, self-opinionated, self-assertive, lies in never looking to the world or to man for standards or judgments, but to Christ alone and upon being thoroughly at home upon your knees. You are here to take life-orders from Christ, and from Him alone. You will not find Him easy. "Whosoever taketh not up his cross, and followeth where I lead, is not worthy of me."

Square your shoulders, then, to receive the stole of the Church, which is the symbol of the yoke of service.

May God abundantly bless you, and abundantly use you to His Glory and that of His Holy Church—for the salvation of men, and the increase of His Kingdom.

Following the service of Ordination, a luncheon for the clergy and their wives was held in the Diocesan House, and was a very lovely occasion.

Other clergy participating in the service were the Reverends Noah K. Cho, Y. Sang Mark, James S. Nakamura, Lawrence Ozaki, Edmund L. Souder, John P. Moulton, Fletcher Howe, Andrew A. Otani, James Walker and William Ault.

The Reverend Mr. Thompson, his wife and two small daughters left soon after the service to begin their new duties at St. John's Church, Eleale, Kauai. We welcome them into the fellowship of our Diocesan family and wish them Godspeed in the great work that lies before them.

FOR THE NECESSITIES OF LIFE

An island community is necessarily much more dependent on its wholesalers for its vital needs than are mainland communities. And to do a first class job in bringing to the islands your food, clothing, drugs, hardware and other necessities requires an organization like AMERICAN FACTORS.

—strong enough financially to keep a large volume of goods streaming across 2100 miles of ocean

—with offices in New York and San Francisco to facilitate ordering and speed up shipping

—with spacious warehouses located at strategic points in Hawaii in which to keep reserve stocks always on hand —and with a large enough executive, clerical and accounting staff to keep this big volume of business moving smoothly.
