Carlo Dolci: "Virgin With Child"

The Bishop's Christmas Message

I sincerely trust that this Christmas Season, which prompts us to be more normally Christian than at any other time in the year, will inspire harmony in our homes, righteousness in our hearts, and peace in our relationships.

Christmas urges us to see things from God's point of view. The problems of life are not settled on battlefields of the Birth of Christ in our hearts.

The really important thing in the world is religion where men and women put their final and ultimate loyalty and devotion. We need to learn again this Christmas the lesson of Bethlehem, that what counts with God is not size or power, but the intensity of one's devotion and love; the depth of one's faith and trust; and the reality of the Birth of Christ in our hearts.

The Birth of Christ must be more than just an emotional experience or it will quickly fade away. If the Nativity were only a sentimental feeling of a Child born in a stable, there would be no Christmas. The great thing is that the Child lived a normal life and increased in wisdom and stature. He grew to manhood and lived a life that changed history.

Let us not keep the Christmas Child in swaddling clothes and thus fail to know Him as our Leader, Redeemer, and Saviour. His life-changing teachings belong not to the innocency of infancy, but to the Mature Jesus. This is more than an emotional experience.

If Christmas this year is to mean a new entrance of God into your life, then you must make more room for Him. May I suggest three things that will make our Christmas a happier one:

1. Give more time to God. Be present at one of the Church services during this Holy Season.
2. Be more concerned about your own spiritual needs, and those in the world, who need Christ desperately. Share a generous portion of your Christmas giving with the Church.
3. Give priority to God's plans and purposes. Give your full cooperation to your spiritual leader, your pastor, and share your talents by actively serving the Church to the best of your ability.

My Christmas wish for you is that as you kneel for your Christmas Communion and re-dedicate yourself to Christ, your doubts, your fears, and your sorrows will vanish and you will find the gladness of Christmas, which is hope—the Spirit of Christmas which is Peace, and the Heart of Christmas, which is love.

Resigns Presidency

Mrs. J. Harry Mattson, who for the past two years has been Diocesan President of the Woman's Auxiliary, has found it necessary to resign from this important position. The Bishop has accepted her resignation with deep regret. She has been most gracious in all of her dealings with the Auxiliaries, and has forwarded the work of the Auxiliary in the Islands. She has been a devoted worker. Business obligations have made it necessary for her to give up this work, but we know her continued interest will be most helpful. Mrs. Mattson is a member of St. Christopher's Church, Kailua.

Mrs. William Lin, St. Mark's Mission, Honolulu, elected First Vice-President at our last Convocation, has assumed the duties as President. She is a capable and charming administrator. We know that the work is in fine hands.

Gift Of Bell

St. James' Chapel, Kamuela, Hawaii, will have a new bell when completed. This has been given to the Hawaii Episcopal Academy by the Oahu Railway and Land Company, through the kindness of Mr. Ben Dillingham and his father, Mr. Walter F. Dillingham. It is a bell that was taken from one of the engines of the old Oahu Railway, and has been given in memory of Mr. George P. Denison, who before his death was a devout member of St. Andrew's Cathedral, and who was associated with the Oahu Railway and Land Company for nearly sixty years. We know that this bell will have much meaning to the present and future students of the Academy, as it calls them to worship. We express appreciation to the Messrs Dillingham for making this gift possible.

Our 1950 Iolani Championship Football Team.

Champions For 1950

The 1950 Iolani Football team has won its way to glory. They won the Interscholastic Championship for the year, and in addition defeated St. Louis' team on Thanksgiving Day. Under the coaching of the Rev. Kenneth A. Bray, they have made a very splendid showing for the year. In making selections for the All Conference Star Team, one local newspaper placed seven Iolani players on the team and the other newspaper placed eight. It is indicative of the fact that it was by no means a "one man" team, but an all star team—each man playing his part to make it a championship team. The School, Coaches, and team are to be congratulated on this splendid achievement.

On Thursday, December 7th, a dinner honoring the team was given at the Oahu Country Club by the Bishop, the Coaches, Mr. Joseph Reed, and some of the parents, headed by Mr. Sadamu Matsumoto. It was an outstanding and joyous occasion for the winners of the 1950 Interscholastic Championship.

Sports Writer's Tribute To Iolani Team

by ANDREW MITSUKADO
Honolulu Advertiser

The Iolani School football team is a champion on and off the field.

The Red Raiders swept through the Interscholastic league this year after dropping their opening game to Farrington and won the prep title in a fashion that was truly impressive.

So convincing were their victories as they drove toward the championship and so overpowering were they both on the attack and on the defense that many followers of the local high school conference have been comparing the 1950 aggregation of the Nuuanuans with the best they had seen in the past.

Iolani this year, indeed, had a great team.

And if the boys were inclined to be a bit on the cocky side after their brilliant accomplishment, one would hardly blame them and one would look on them with tolerance.

But there is nothing cocky about the Iolani gridders. They are all gentlemen through and through.

They are the most modest group of young men we have yet come upon. And if you were not aware of their identity you wouldn't by the farthest stretch of your imagination think they were the high school champions of these parts. Your only impression would be that they are the most well behaved youngsters you have set your eyes on. You would want your sons to act as they do.

We had an opportunity to observe them the other evening at the Oahu Country Club when they were honored at a dinner by Bishop Kennedy, Joseph Reed, treasurer of the school, the assistant coaches, and some of the parents headed by Sadamu Matsumoto.

We are averse to writing about banquets unless some authoritative person makes a statement of news interest. We also don't care for get-togethers for the noise and speeches.

But it was a great privilege to join the Iolani gridders in celebrating their winning of the 1950 Interscholastic championship.

The Red Raiders were so well behaved and gentlemanly that we came away tremendously impressed. Hence, this tribute to them.

Usually at a championship banquet, there is an outburst of laughter here and there; a wise-crack or two by some smart aleck; and shouting across the tables. We expected to see and hear all of this.

There was none of this at the festive table of the Iolani team.

Certainly, the Red Raiders were happy that they had won the championship and were being honored.

But they acted the part of good winners. They exemplified the sportsman's code—be modest in victory.

Father Bray's boys are real champions. They could be set up as models for other schools and teams.

We could see the great influence of Father Bray on the Iolani gridders.

Their spirit of friendliness is something to behold.

On the football field, they worked together willingly through thick and thin for the best interest of the team.

Add to this their indomitable fight.

Small wonder then that they won the prep grid championship.

On the menu of the championship banquet, there was a message from Father Bray to his players. It told of the spirit of Iolani.

Before we end this piece, we'd like to stress the relationship between the Iolani athletes and Father Bray. It is like the relationship between a father and a son at its best. Father Bray is stern with them when it is necessary to be so. At other times, he is a pal to them. And the players love him.

At the championship banquet, they presented him with an autographed photograph of the team.

Written on it was the following:

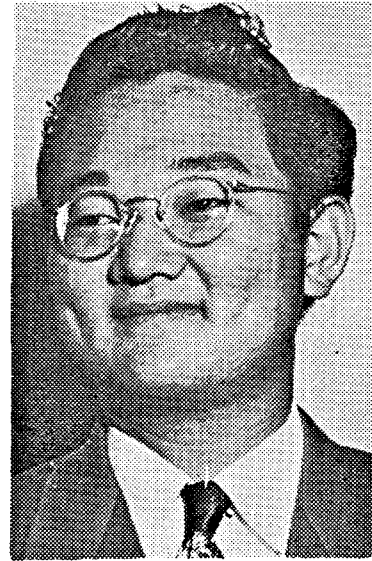

"To our champion coach from our championship team."

Reception Honors Canon And Mrs. Trelease

Thursday, December 7th, the Wardens, Vestry, and Woman's Guild and Auxiliary gave a reception in Davies Hall, St. Andrew's Cathedral, honoring the Rev. Canon and Mrs. Richard M. Trelease, Jr., new rector of the Cathedral Parish. In the reception line, with the honored guests, were Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Day, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Jaggard, and Mrs. Geoffrey Podmore. It was a very lovely occasion and many members and friends of the parish came to bid the Treleases their welcome and Aloha in their new work.

"Let Every Heart Prepare Him Room"

He comes again in the Bethlehem of our homes in Christmas joys and greetings and givings. He comes again in the manger of our hearts in overflowing tenderness and wistful longing. He comes again in the sanctuary of silence and in the exaltation of praise and prayer. He comes again in our gifts to the needy, in the cheer we bring to the sorrowful, in the love we give, in the gifts we bestow, in our radiant joy. Let us go even now unto Bethlehem in spirit and "see this thing which has come to pass which the Lord hath made known unto us." Let us, like the shepherds, listen once more to the "tidings of great joy." Let us behold the Star with the Wise Men and "rejoice with exceeding great joy." In all our celebrations let us be joyful, for "joy is the banner that flies at the flagstaff of our lives as a sign that the King is in residence in the palace of our souls." Oh, that Christ may make His home in our hearts! Let us go to meet Him and as we go He will come to us, in kindness, in courage, and in exceeding great joy, that we may share His life with others.

Arthur Murakami

Iolani Senior Named To New York Youth Forum

Arthur Murakami, 17-year-old Iolani high school senior, left December 5th by Northwest Airlines to represent Hawaii at the New York Mirror's eighth annual youth forum in New York City Dec. 9.

Murakami was elected by the Territorial department of public instruction at the request of Governor Stainback.

He is the only American delegate to the convention who had his entire expenses paid by the Mirror.

Murakami is one of the three youths taken from the Far East and mid-Pacific areas to New York as part of an international program to further better understanding among the youths of various nations.

The others are Robert Shigeo Ozaki of Tokyo and Renato Ecarma of Manila.

The United States state department backed the conference in the belief that it will contribute greatly to better global understanding and will facilitate the exchange of ideas among future world leaders.

The three youths are among a dozen chosen from as many different countries to attend the forum sessions.

Called By Death

The Missionary District of Honolulu joins with the Missionary District of Utah in mourning the loss of the Rt. Rev. Stephen Cutter Clark, D. D., who died in Salt Lake City on November 30th. He had suffered a serious heart attack some months ago, but was believed to be on the road to recovery. Our deep sympathy is extended to his wife and family.

NEWS ABOUT THE DIOCESE

New Member of Diocesan Family

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reed have a new daughter in their family, Emma Duke, born December 11th. We welcome her and extend our sincere good wishes and congratulations to her parents.

The Rev. and Mrs. John R. Caton, of St. Mary's Mission, Honolulu, welcomed the arrival of John Murray on November 30th. We rejoice with them in the new member of our Diocesan Family and extend our Aloha and congratulations.

The Army and Navy Center

With the Korean War so close to our door, we find more and more young men in service frequenting the Diocesan House and Army and Navy Center. They have made this their "Home away from home." They have taken an active interest in the activities of the various churches and missions and have supported the bazaars, barn dances, etc. Some have been serving as crucifers and acolytes. They were entertained for Thanksgiving dinner by Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy. Preparations are now under way to give them a real home-like Christmas and Christmas dinner. They have enjoyed many supper parties at the Diocesan House. We hope that more and more young men will avail themselves of the opportunity to make this their home while they are stationed on Oahu.

Station Wagon for Okinawa

The Rev. Norman B. Godfrey now has a new station wagon that will go with him and the Rev. William Heffner to Okinawa. It is so provided that they can sleep in the station wagon and prepare their meals, for we have been informed from very reliable sources that there will be many times when they will need these accommodations. The car was purchased for them by National Council.

Original and Clever

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Matthew's Mission, Waimanalo, has learned the art of doing something different. The women have made most attractive Christmas stockings, with sea shells used in place of the traditional Christmas bells, filled them with attractive gifts for either a boy or girl, and have sold them at a nominal sum to help with their building fund. It certainly has been a novel way to increase the exchequer. The Rev. William R. Grosh, Vicar, has encouraged them in this project.

Called to the Mainland

Mrs. John J. Morrett, wife of the Vicar of Holy Nativity Church, Aina Haina, Oahu, was called to the mainland recently, due to the serious illness of her father. She has returned to Honolulu. Her father is still in a serious condition. We all join in praying for his full recovery.

Mrs. Edmund L. Souder, wife of the Rev. Edmund L. Souder, St. Mark's Mission, Honolulu, has gone to California to help with the nursing care of her son, Cabel, who was seriously injured while at work. His feet were crushed when a 3000 pound weight fell on them. It will be some time before he can walk again, but the assurance that he can cheers us. We know that the prayers of all of us are with him at this time.

Conducts Quiet Evening

The Reverend Frederick A. McDonald, St. Clement's Church, Honolulu, conducted a Quiet Evening for the Honolulu Associates of the Community of the Transfiguration, Friday, December 8th, from 4:30 to 8:00 p.m. It was a most inspiring experience for the Associates. Mrs. John P. Moulton is president of the Associates for this year.

Scraping Church

The Reverend Robert Sheeran, of Holy Apostles Church, Hilo, Hawaii, tells us that the men of his congregation are busy scraping the church in order that a new coat of paint can be applied soon. It is a tremendous undertaking, but one in which they find fellowship along with their "work out."

Tremendous Success

The Thanksgiving Market of St. Andrew's Cathedral Parish was even more successful this year than in previous years. Through the years tradition has built this into one of the finest money-making undertakings in the Parish. They netted $5000 from the Market.

Big Gathering Dines At St. Peter's Church

A nine course Chinese dinner in honor of the elder members of St. Peter's Church was given by the Men's Club at the parish hall on Sunday, November 5th, at five. A hundred and ninety members and friends attended the affair.

Speakers for the occasion were Dr. Edward Kau and Mr. Chang Chau. They spoke in Chinese for the benefit of the honored guests. Master of ceremonies was En Kui Chung.

Two vocal selections were given by Richard Lee, of the Young church Group.

James Kau, club president, introduced friends from various churches: Richard Ching, of St. Elizabeth; Mrs. Frank Tyau, of St. Stephen's, Wahiawa; Harry Chang, of St. Andrews' Hawaiian Congregation; Dick Chang of St. Augustine's, Kohala, Hawaii; and Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, of St. Christopher's, Kailua.

General chairman was Percy Chung, and Nee Fat Ho was in charge of food.

Returns From Korea

Chaplain Kenneth Perkins has returned from a visit to Korea, where he went on the official errand of visiting all of the Marine Chaplains in the War area. He also visited the large Naval Hospital at Yokosuka, near Yokohama. He went up to the Chosin Reservoir, where the fighting is now going on, and travelled over all of the area where the fighting is so tense. While in Tokyo he visited with Bishop Vial. He also had a long visit with Chaplain John Linsley, Head Chaplain of the Air Force. He reported that he did not see Chaplain Lewis B. Sheen, former curate of the Cathedral, for he was on the other side of the Korean front.

Miss Annie H. Parke Bequeaths Generous Gifts To The Church

In our last issue of the Chronicle we reported the death of Miss Annie H. Parke, friend and benefactress of the Church in Hawaii. In her will she was most thoughtful and generous in making the following gifts to the Church:

The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands to receive the property at 3019 Nuuanu Avenue to be used as a residence for the Bishop of Honolulu.

St. Mary's Mission .....	$2,500
St. Andrew's Priory .....	2,500
Iolani School .....	2,500

The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands ..... 5,000

The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands to be held as a perpetual trust, the income from which is to be used for the maintenance of the Sunday School Memorial Buildings of St. Andrew's Cathedral ..... 5,000

The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands to receive 35% of the income from the remaining trust estate, and for the work of the Church Army 5% of the income from the remaining trust.

The Bishop and his family have moved into the Parke residence at 3019 Nuuanu Avenue. The telephone number will be 69002. It is listed under A. H. Parke in the telephone directory.

Miss Parke has indeed set an noble example for others to include the Church and the Church's work in their wills. We cannot begin to express how much her generosity means to the whole diocese.

Mr. Robert Kondo Resigns

Mr. Robert Kondo, who has for the past six years been Director of Youth Work on the Island of Kauai, has tendered his resignation to enter in the field of business, to take effect as of December 31st.

Mr. Kondo, who previous to his appointment as Director of Youth in 1944, had for nine years been a pastor to the youth on the Island of Kauai. His work was felt in all phases of the life of the Church and the community of Kapaa, and many other parts of Kauai. He was in charge of the Church School, All Saints' Church, Kapaa, Kauai, under the direction of The Ven. Henry A. Willey, D. D., then Archdeacon of Kauai. He directed the athletic activities of All Saints' Gymnasium, and is largely responsible for the many converts who have become such staunch members of our Church.

He was appointed a field worker by our National Council, and has been one of our outstanding Lay Readers. In 1949 he assisted the Rev. Richard M. Trelease, Jr., in taking our caravan of young people to General Convention.

The young people of Kauai will feel the great loss in his retiring from this work. They have held him in esteem through the years, and have had a deep affection for him.

It is with profound regret we see him relinquish this work, but appreciate his decision. We send him forth with our deep affection, our sincere good wishes in his new undertaking, and pray God will abundantly bless him in all he does. We know that his keen interest in the Church's work will continue as he goes forward in new fields. One who has given so untiringly of his efforts to the Church and community for so many years, will always have his influence felt.

To Start New Church

The Reverend Wai On Shim, Rector of St. Elizabeth's Church, Honolulu, announces that they will soon start building their new church. They have worked hard and long toward this end, and we rejoice that they are at long last going to realize their dream. Plans for the Church have been drawn by Mr. E. L. Bauer, Architect. It will be a beautiful addition to our churches in Hawaii.

Is The Christ Child
And His Church
Included On Your
"Christmas Gift"
List?

"There are three kinds of people in the world—the wills, the won'ts and the can'ts. The first accomplish everything; the second oppose everything; the third fail in everything. The last group is like the pessimist, who, faced with two evils, chooses both."

A Christmas Prayer

By way of Bethlehem lead us, O Lord, to newness of life;
by the innocence of the Christ-Child renew our simple trust;
by the tenderness of Mary deliver us from cruelty and hardness of heart;
by the patience of Joseph save us from all rash judgment and ill-tempered action;
by the shepherds' watch open our eyes to the signs of thy coming;
by the wise men's journey keep our searching spirits from fainting;
by the music of the heavenly choir put to shame the clamor of the earth;
by the shining of a star guide our feet into the way of peace. Amen.

For The Bereaved At Christmas

At the Christmas season you are thinking of those no longer in the family circle. In your sorrow your friends all sympathize with you.

May peace come to your heart as you reflect upon the better world where your dear ones now are. In their happiness and their remembrances of you, joy must come to you.

In due time there is to be a blessed and unending reunion in Paradise. In this certainty make this a holy and soul-gladdening Christmastide.

The Rev. P. T. Fukao receiving birthday lei from Mrs. Shigeru Hino.

A happy surprise awaited the Rev. Philip T. Fukao, vicar emeritus of Holy Trinity Church, Honolulu, on his recent 77th birthday anniversary, when Mr. and Mrs. Shigeru Hino, parishioners, presented him an unusual lei made of 77 dollar bills as their personal appreciation to him. The seventy-seventh anniversary is a specially important one according to the Japanese tradition. The picture shows Mrs. Hino presenting the lei to the Rev. Mr. Fukao. The Rev. Mr. Fukao is still actively assisting at Holy Trinity Church and often called upon to assist other churches.

Vestrymen Keep Prayer Book On Their Office Desks

An experiment recently was tried by the vestry of the Church of the Incarnation, Dallas, Texas. After much discussion, the members of the vestry agreed to keep the Book of Common Prayer on their office desks for six weeks. At the end of that time an old fashioned testimonial meeting took place. Some of the men had used free moments to open the Prayer Book and to read at random. Others found themselves reading the appointed Collects, Epistles, and Gospels as well as the Psalms. They discovered prayers formerly unknown to them.

One outstanding result was a practical demonstration of evangelism. Visitors to the offices would notice the Prayer Book and mention it. This would lead to a discussion of the Church and a personal witness. Some visitors would recall an earlier contact with the Church, but a lapsed interest in later years. An opening was provided for an invitation to return to the Church.

Here is a plan other vestries might try. It affords an opportunity for personal evangelism through one's business contacts. In a day when businessmen are looking to the Church for an answer to many of their problems they will not find this plan objectionable.

Two Ordinations To Be Held

Two of our young clergy will be ordained to the Priesthood by the Bishop during the month of December. The first to be held will be that for the Rev. Kenneth Tryon Cosby, Vicar of St. John's Mission, Eleele, Kauai, on Sunday, December 10th, at St. John's Church. All churches on the Island of Kauai will participate in the service. The Ven. Norman R. Alter will present the candidate to the Bishop. The Rev. James Nakamura, Good Samaritan Church, Honolulu, will assist with the service, and the Bishop will preach the Ordination Sermon. A luncheon honoring the Rev. Mr. Cosby will be given following the service by members of his congregation.

It is altogether fitting that the Church that sponsored the founding of the Church at Waimanalo, St. Matthew's Church, should be the one that will honor the Vicar of this congregation by holding his Ordination to the Priesthood in their Church. The Rev. William Ranck Grosh will be ordained to the Priesthood at St. Christopher's Church, Saturday, December 16th, at 10:00 a.m. The Bishop will ordain the Rev. Mr. Grosh; the Rev. Canon Richard M. Trelease, Jr., will present the Ordinand; The Rev. Edmund L. Souder will read the Preface to the Ordinal; The Rev. Theodore T. Y. Yeh will read the Epistle and the Rev. James S. Nakamura will read the Gospel. The Litany will be read by the Rev. William Heffner. The Ordination Sermon will be preached by the Rev. Claude F. Du Teil.

Following the service of ordination a luncheon will be given by the women of St. Christopher's and St. Matthew's Churches.

St. Stephen's Mission, Wahiawa, Keeps Busy

Parable of the Talents Project Ends In Wahiawa

Complete returns are not available yet, but the special in-gathering service for the Parable of the Talents Project at St. Stephen's netted an even $500. Previous receipts and money as yet unreported indicate that the total to be received from the 40 silver dollars given out last July will bring in more than $700. Greatest return on the investment, however, was the spirit of fun and fellowship engendered by the Project. Members of the Mission made candy, jellies, and jam, aloha shirts, gave haircuts, shined shoes, grew vegetables, mended broken vases and furniture. The in-gathering was held at the Annual Thanksgiving Family Service, with the children also bringing canned goods for the local welfare office. Weary ushers counted 105 persons present and then gave up.

St. Stephen's Bishop's Committee Greets Away-From-Homes

At the latest meeting the Bishop's Committee decided to supplement the vicar's regular letter and a copy of FORWARD to those away at college and in the Armed Forces by sending a newsletter over the Senior Warden's name. This week by Air Mail such a letter was sent to colleges all across the nation, to the islands of Midway, and Okinawa, to Alaska, to Japan and to Korea. Signed by Senior Warden John Kim the letter carried Season's greetings and told how well the roof, which many of the absentees helped install, was holding up under the winter rains, and how the "Parable of Talents Project" came out, and other items of local interest. Included was an assurance and a reminder that those in the Far East are remembered faithfully at the altar.

Oversubscribes Mission-Quota

Sparked by the splendid layman's presentation of Mr. Tom Major and Mr. Kleber Miller, the Canvassers and people of St. Stephen's oversubscribed their missions-quota of by nearly $500 for a total of $1400. Nor did the mission itself suffer; the Building Fund was also oversubscribed by better than $400. Minimum requirements in the "black side" budget were met and as one layman put it: "If we went over the top for missions, what have we to worry about; we can always get money for ourselves."

St. Stephen's Men Hold First Communion and Breakfast

With the appointment of Charles Tallant as Mission Keyman, men's work at the Church in Wahiawa has taken on a quickened tempo. Together with Capt. Lyman Hopkins of the Bishop's Committee he has planned and executed the first of what is scheduled to be a series of quarterly Communion and breakfasts. Eighteen men responded to the call, held on the fifth Sunday in October. In addition to the regular series, a special Communion and breakfast was held on the first Sunday in Advent as a part of the nation-wide observance. Forty men and boys turned out for this Father-and-Son affair. Special care was taken to assure that boys whose fathers could not be present were remembered. These were guests of boy-less men and fathers in the Church.

Hawaiian Christmas

How strange for one whose Christmases were snow
 And sleigh bells, and a grayness in the sky,
 And holly wreaths and skates, and cranberry pie,
 And blazing apple logs and candle-glow—
 To be where grass is green and flowers grow
 In winter, and to hear the palm fronds sigh
 In soft content as tropic days go by,
 And heaven's blue shines in the sea below.
 Strange? Yes, but carols here are sweet,
 Ringing with harmonies as rich and clear
 As anywhere, and hearty voices greet
 The passing world with merry Christmas cheer.
 Here, with the same deep joy, the Mother Mild
 Bends to adore a brown Hawaiian Child.

Portrait of Mrs. Gwendolyn Shaw.

This lovely portrait will be hung in the Molokai Community Hospital, where Mrs. Shaw served many years as superintendent of the then Shingle Memorial Hospital. This portrait was painted by De Los Blackmar, of New York City. He is a devoted friend of the Rev. J. Miller Horton, Vicar of Holy Innocents Church, Lahaina, Maui. He was also the artist of the beautiful reredos in this Church on Maui. The portrait, memorial gift of the Church to the Hospital, will be dedicated at a special service at the hospital at a future date.

National Honor Society

At a meeting held on November 29, 1950, at St. Andrew's Priory, the Faculty Council of the Queen Emma Chapter of the National Honor Society elected three seniors, three juniors, and four probationary sophomores to membership in this nationwide honor group. Chosen as outstanding members of their respective classes in character, scholarship, leadership, and service were seniors: June Hee, Nellie Liu, Betty Soo; juniors: Myrtle Hirokawa, Hazel Kaneshiro, Robin La Croix; and sophomores: Irene M. M. Chang, Josephine Dolfo, Annette Lum, Jane Moulton. Members already in the society are seniors: Dorothy C. W. Chang, Irene Ishii, Lei Sniffen, Lillian Tyau and juniors: Phyllis Lum, Florence Matsumoto, and Amanda Wong.

In order to be elected to the National Honor Society, a student must rank in the upper third of her class scholastically. She must be nominated by a member of the senior high school faculty, who feels that she qualifies on the additional bases of character, leadership, and service. Finally she must win four fifths of the votes of the Faculty Council of the N.H.S. This year the Faculty Council includes the following teachers: Sister Evelyn Ancilla, Miss Barbara H. Ching, Mrs. Fannie Fekete, Mrs. Florence Shepardson, and Mrs. Lillian Swartz. Sister Lucy Caritas, principal of the Priory, was present at the election meeting of the council but did not vote.

Mr. T. J. Hollander

Former Diocesan Treasurer, now retired, but living in our Cathedral close, who recently observed his eighty-sixth birthday. His life of service to his Church has been one we could all emulate. He is a devout and loyal servant of our Lord. His life is an example to us all.

The following suggestions are given by The Reverend James Keller, M. M.
author of the book

YOU CAN CHANGE THE WORLD

1. Depend more on God, less on self.
2. Share the Truth, don't hoard it.
3. Be world-minded, not local-minded.
4. Go among people, don't avoid them.
5. Push on, don't stand still.
6. Aim to serve, not to be served.
7. Be gentle, don't hurt.
8. Submit ideas, don't impose them.
9. Better to be optimistic than pessimistic.
10. Cheer, don't depress.
11. Be more of a "go-giver" than a "go-getter."
12. Be daring, not timid.
13. Admit your mistakes, don't deny them.
14. Be humble, not proud.
15. Inspire confidence, don't dishearten.
16. Disagree without being disagreeable.
17. See both points-of-view, not merely your own.
18. Be patient, not impetuous.
19. Be a doer, not just a talker.
20. Don't flee suffering; use it.
21. Keep first things first.

When I am tired, the Bible is my bed;
Or in the dark, the Bible is my light;
When I am hungry, it is vital bread;
Or fearful, it is armor for the fight;
When I am sick, 'tis healing medicine,
Or lonely, thronging friends I find therein.

Christmas Carols

We like to think that the first Christmas Carol ever sung was by the angel chorus on that first Christmas eve, nearly two thousand years ago, when "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men" was caroled over the fields of Bethlehem. But it was not until the thirteenth century that we find the beginning of the true Christmas carol, and the place was Italy. Here the friars, gathered around St. Francis of Assisi, tried to humanize the story of the gospel, and they composed songs about the birth of Christ, which they sang around a creche, or tableau, depicting the surroundings of the holy manger. A Franciscan, named Jacopone da Todi, was the first writer of carols.

From Italy the carol spread to Spain, France, England, and Germany, where it retained its folksong qualities, with a strange mingling of reverence and genial mirthfulness. The French Noel began to appear in the fifteenth century, as did the Christmas carols in England. During the Reformation, the true carols with the festive element disappeared, to be replaced later by the more sedate and devotional hymns. "Adeste Fideles" was composed in France about 1700 and is perhaps the best loved of the Christmas hymns. "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was written by Phillips Brooks, and was inspired by a Christmas eve spent by him in the city of Bethlehem.

Thus the Christmas carols have lived through the centuries. And so, on Christmas Eve, as the candles burn in our windows in remembrance of the Star of Bethlehem, and we hear youthful voices caroling these old familiar songs, let us rejoice that we are preserving ideals and traditions which will be forever the heritage of every Christian nation.

What Christmas Means To You

Christ came to bring you joy and to deliver you from Fear.

His birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary proves that God is not far away, but very near to man.

He hears you when you pray.

He knows when you are faithful, and says that your faithfulness causes joy in Heaven.

When you have been unfaithful, there is sorrow in Heaven.

Christ's birth says God cares for you.

He is tender in mercy and loving kindness, as He is also swift in judgment.

Christmas says that God knows you and is always seeking you to help and to bless.

Christmas helps you to know the Christ and tells you to make Him known to the whole world.

Because God caused His Son to be born for us and for our salvation, we know that God is Love.

"We must love Him too

And try His works to do."

A Benediction

May the love of the Lord Jesus draw you to Himself;
May the love of the Lord Jesus strengthen you in His service;

May the joy of the Lord Jesus fill your souls;
And may the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Rest and abide with you and all whom you love
Wheresoe're they may be, in heaven or on earth
This day and forevermore.

Amen.

The Christ child comes! O sing my soul, rejoice!
Fling wide the door and bid Him enter in!
Let Christ be born again in us,
And let His reign begin!

Let us enthrone Him in our hearts supreme,
That so the world through us may hear again
His message of good will and peace,
That angels brought to men.

"Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done," we pray,
O little Child, Thy will be done in us!
Set up Thy Kingdom in our hearts,
That we may worship Thee!

—May L. Restarick

"I shall attend to my errands of love early this year, so that the brief days before Christmas may be undimmed and clear of the fever and hurry. The breathless rushing I have known in the past shall not possess me. I shall be calm in my soul and 'ready for Christmas at last.

I shall kneel, and call out His Name, I shall take time to watch the beautiful light of a candle's flame, I shall have leisure—I shall go out alone from my roof and door, and I shall not miss the silver silence of the stars, as oft before . . . Perhaps, if I stand there very still, and very long, I shall hear what the clamour of the world has kept from me—the Angel's Song."—Contributed.
