One of the oldest Hawaiian settlements on Maui, Kahakuloa is today one of the most isolated. The living is distinctly rural, as can be seen by the method of washing.

New Clergy Arrivals

Christ Church, Kealahakua, Hawaii

We are pleased to announce new clergy appointments to our Diocese. On July 1st the Rev. Allen Downey will arrive with his wife, a daughter Aleene Margie 10½ years, Marilyn Joy 6, and Joseph Spearing 5 years. They will go to Christ Church, Kealahakua, Hawaii. The Rev. Mr. Downey was recently graduated from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific and was ordained June 23rd to the Diaconate by The Rt. Rev. Francis Eric Bloy, Bishop of Los Angeles. Before entering the ministry he was a mechanical engineer. During World War II he was a lieutenant colonel in the army. The Downeys come to us with high recommendations. We shall welcome them to our Diocesan Family.

Pearl Harbor and Pearl City Area, Oahu

The Reverend David J. Coughlin and his family will arrive from Natchitoches, Louisiana, on July 4th. He has a wife and two children, David J., Jr., age 5 years and Jean Sharen 2½ years. He will become our resident priest to take over the work at Pearl Harbor and the Pearl City area. We have long wished that we might do a real work here, where it is very much needed.

The Rev. Mr. Coughlin was ordained priest in 1949, having had his theological training at the University of the South. He also has an A. S. from Marion Military Institute. He studied for two years at the Naval Academy at Annapolis and served as an officer in the Navy during World War II. With his experience as priest and naval officer, he should do an excellent work in this area. We look forward to the arrival of the Coughlin family.

St. John's, Kula, Maui

The Reverend Robert Jones, a recent graduate from Virginia Theological Seminary, and recently ordained to the Diaconate, will arrive with his wife on July 8th to take up his new work at St. John's Mission, Kula, Maui. His academic training was taken at George Washington University, Strayer College, Washington, D. C., and Duke University, North Carolina, where he received his B. A. degree in 1949. He served in the United States Army from 1942-1946. We look forward to the arrival of these new members of our Diocesan Family.

Christ Memorial Church, Kilauea, Kauai

The Reverend Keith Kreitner will arrive on July 31st with his wife. He, too, is a graduate of Virginia Seminary, having graduated this month. He was also ordained to the Diaconate just after his graduation. He was graduated from N. E. Missouri State Teachers College, Kirksville, Missouri, with a B. S. degree in 1949. He will go to Christ Church, Kilauea, Kauai. We are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the Rev. and Mrs. Kreitner, and shall welcome them as members of our family.

Clerical Changes In The Diocese

The Reverend J. Miller Horton, much beloved Vicar of Holy Innocent's Mission, Lahaina, Maui, has been forced to retire because of ill health. He came to Hawaii in 1936 to take up his work at Lahaina, and has served this mission since that time. The people in his mission and in the community have become very devoted to him, and regret that he has been forced to give up his work. He also took services for our Church on the Island of Molokai. In all probability he will go to the Island of Molokai for his retirement. The entire Diocese joins in extending its affectionate Aloha to him, with the prayer that he may be strengthened in health through his retirement from active service.

Mr. E. Lani Hanchett, who has been in charge of Youth Work on the Island of Kauai, and who has been taking charge of services at Christ Church, Kilauea, Kauai, and at St. Thomas' Mission, Hanalei, will take over the work at Holy Innocent's Mission, Maui.

Several changes are taking place in the Diocese this summer. The Reverend John P. Moulton, who has been in this mission field as Chaplain at Iolani School and principal of the Hawaii Episcopal Academy, Kamuela, Hawaii, left on June 6th to take up his new assignment as Canon of the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, Spokane, Washington. Mrs. Moulton is to be in charge of the Department of Christian Education at the Cathedral. We send them forth with our very deep Aloha and congratulations in this new call. We are sure this will be a very challenging work for them. They leave a host of friends in Hawaii who wish them well and God's richest blessings.

The Ven. Paul R. Savanack, who for the past two years has been Headmaster of the Hawaii Episcopal Academy, and in charge of St. James Mission, Kamuela, and St. Columba's Mission, Pauilo, has accepted the call as rector of St. Peter's Church, Honolulu. He will assume his duties after he returns from his furlough, October 1st. He will leave for the mainland on June 30th. The Rev. Mr. Savanack has done a fine work at the Academy, and has launched it on an even keel. He will be missed greatly at the Academy, but is going to do a much needed work at St. Peter's.

The Rev. Hugh L. S. Thompson, who has been at St. John's Mission, Kula, Maui, will go to St. Columba's Mission, Pauilo, Hawaii. The Rev. William R. F. Thomas, who has been at Christ Church, Kealahakua, Hawaii, is taking over the new work at Calvary Mission, Kaneohe, Oahu. Both men have been in residence at their new posts since the middle of June.

Retired

The Rev. Y. Sang Mark, Rector of St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, retired as of May 22nd, 1952. For the past year he has been on leave of absence, having been given a long-earned vacation by his vestry. He and Mrs. Mark spent some months in Samoa, Fiji, and Tonga during the first part of his vacation, returning to his former home and mission field. They have been in England since December, where he went to assist with the 200th Anniversary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, going to different ports on the SPG ship, to proclaim the work of the Anglican Church in the mission fields. He was invited to go to England to join in this project of the Society.

He served in New Zealand from 1909 to 1928, when he came to Honolulu to take over St. Peter's Mission, Honolulu. He wrought a fine work at this church, bringing it from mission to parish status in 1949. He also did all the ground work for the raising of funds to build the beautiful new parish hall, erected in 1950. He was awarded the Bishop's Distinguished Service Cross in 1951 in recognition of his outstanding work in his Church and community.

Mr. Paul Simpson

New Headmaster At Hawaii Episcopal Academy

Mr. Paul Simpson, who has been an instructor at Iolani School since 1948, has been appointed Headmaster of the Hawaii Episcopal Academy, Kamuela, Hawaii, by the Board of Governors. He has been one of the most popular and outstanding teachers at Iolani. He had his academic training in Kansas and Colorado, having graduated from Kansas State College with B. S. and M. S. degrees. He did graduate work at Kansas Wesleyan University and Colorado University. He came to Hawaii from St. John's Military School, Salina, Kansas. He is exceptionally well qualified to assume this new responsibility. We feel fortunate to have him as Headmaster.

What Is General Convention—Who Is Going?

Delegates and Visitors from Hawaii

The Missionary District of Honolulu is to be well represented at the coming General Convention of the Episcopal Church, to be held in Boston, Massachusetts, September 8th through 19th. Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy will be there, as will our clerical delegates, Canon Frederick A. McDonald and the Rev. Wai On Shim, Alternate. Mr. Arthur G. Smith, Chancellor of the Diocese, and our Lay Delegate, will be accompanied by Mrs. Smith. Mr. Richard C. Ching, Alternate, will be in attendance, as will his wife. Mr. Thomas Major, Key Layman of the Diocese, will represent us at the Laymen's Conference. Our delegates for the Triennial Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be: Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Richard M. Trelease, Jr., St. Andrew's Cathedral, Mrs. Joseph Lucas, St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa, and Mrs. Aaron Soong, St. Mary's Mission, Honolulu. Others who will attend Convention are: The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Sheeran, Holy Apostles Church, Hilo, the Rev. Paul R. Savanack, St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, Deaconess Sarah F. Swinburne, Mrs. Karen Johnson, Miss Eloise Lawrence, Miss Elda Smith, St. Mark's Church, Mr. Kenneth Day, and Miss Katherine M. Morton.

Youth Caravan

The Rev. Canon Richard M. Trelease, Jr., St. Andrew's Cathedral, and Diocesan Director of Youth, will again take a caravan of our young people to Convention. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Trelease and Mr. and Mrs. E. Lani Hanchett, from Christ Church, Kilauea, Kauai. At this writing we do not know the exact number who will represent our youth from Hawaii, but there will be between eight and ten. They will comprise the "Hale Pupuli III" group, which means "crazy house," and was so named by the young people who went on the first caravan because of the laughable experiences they had as they rode across country in their bus. This youth caravan is perhaps one of the best "Good Will" ventures of our Church in Hawaii, and has been the means for making our work known throughout the entire Church.

57th General Convention

When the 57th General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America opens, it will be the third time it has met in Boston. Except for the name, there will be slight resemblance between the first General Convention, whose forty-two members leisurely assembled in Philadelphia in 1785, and the great gathering anticipated in Boston.

Powers of Convention

What is the General Convention? It is primarily an ecclesiastical synod, meeting every three years, the official legislature of the American portion of the Anglican Communion. Its functions and procedures are carefully outlined in the Church's laws, or the Constitution and Canons. It alone has the right to alter or revise THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER; it alone may amend the Constitution; it alone may change the Canons.

One unique mark of the General Convention is that it is a bicameral legislature, in structure somewhat resembling the American Congress. Neither chamber may legislate by itself; hence each adopts resolutions beginning, RESOLVED, the House . . . concurring . . . This necessitates a constant interchange of official messages between Houses.

House of Bishops

The first Convention consisted solely of priests and laymen. The House of Bishops came into being four years later and included only Bishop Seabury and Bishop White. This Convention will have the largest membership in this House in its history—168 bishops. Of these

Have Left On Furlough

This month and next will see several leaving for furlough. Sister Lucy Caritas left immediately after the St. Andrew's Priory graduation exercises for a well earned vacation. She is principal of the Priory. She will visit the Community of the Transfiguration, Glendale, Ohio, and her home in Framingham, Mass.

The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Sheeran, Holy Apostles Church, Hilo, left the latter part of June for Pennsylvania to be with their families. They will also attend General Convention. Their two small sons will go with them.

Canon Frederick A. McDonald, St. Clement's Church, left on June 29th for a three months' leave for Boston via the Far East and Mediterranean. Enroute he hopes to visit our missionaries on Okinawa.

The Rev. Paul R. Savanack left on June 30th for his home in Sandusky, Ohio. He will be gone until October 1st, when he will become rector of St. Peter's Church, Honolulu.

The Rev. and Mrs. Claude F. Du Teil, St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa, will leave on July 6th for Kansas and Georgia to visit their families. They will be accompanied by their two children.

Deaconess Sarah F. Swinburne leaves in early August to have three months on the mainland. She will be at General Convention before returning to St. Mary's Mission Kindergarten, of which she is in charge.

Miss Elda Smith, mission worker at St. Mark's Church, Honolulu, left the latter part of June for her home in New York. After attending General Convention she will return to St. Mark's.

Laymen at St. Elizabeth's Church, Honolulu, are busy improving the grounds of their new Church. Here they are seen transplanting an olive tree that was brought to the mission from Bethlehem.

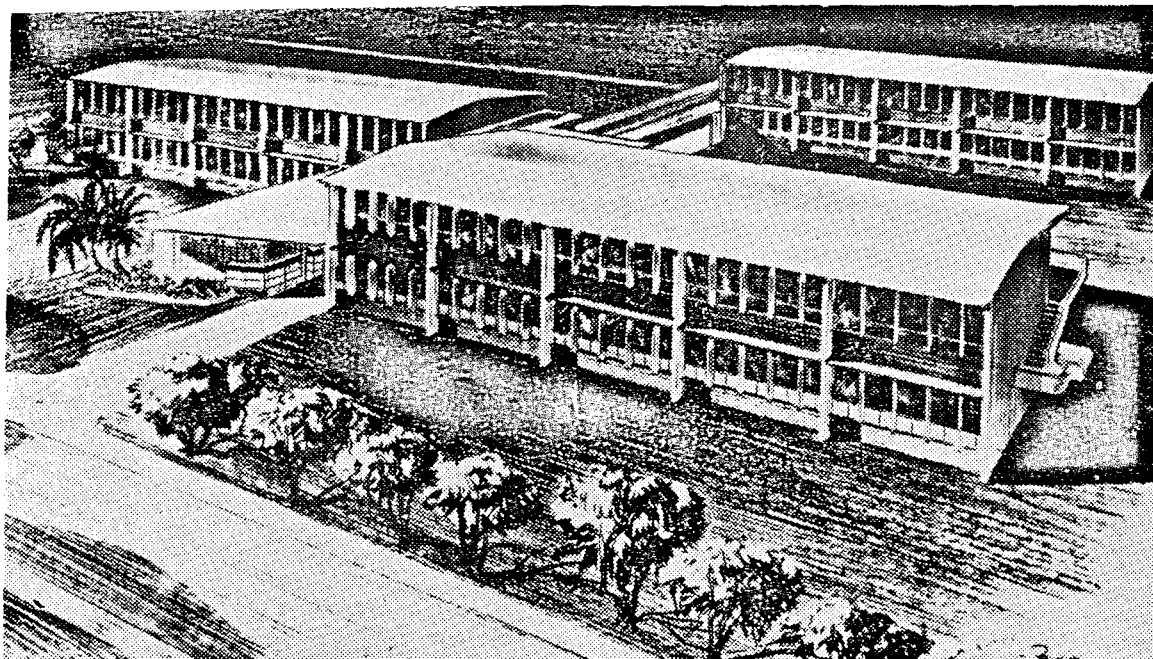

Orchids Flown To Manila Hospital

St. Luke's Hospital, Manila, Philippine Islands, had its annual benefit tea at the Manila Hotel June 18th. This popular social event is one the people in Manila look forward to each year.

Holy Apostles Episcopal Church, Hilo, Hawaii, through Mr. Jack Rickard, sent 500 Vanda Orchids for this benefit. The Trans-Pacific Airlines brought the orchids to Honolulu as its share in the benefit, and the Philippine Airlines flew them to Manila from Honolulu as its gift for this charitable enterprise. They were delivered to the Rt. Rev. Norman S. Binsted, Bishop of the Philippine Islands, under whose jurisdiction this famous hospital is maintained.

No Chronicle In July And August

New proposed Iolani School Classroom Building.

Iolani Lets Contract For New Building

Iolani School has let a contract for the building of its main upper school classroom building to the Oahu Construction Company, the low bidder, at a cost of $270,000. Included in the building are 18 classrooms, laboratories for biology, chemistry, and physics, study hall, library, laboratory and locker rooms, teacher's rest room, janitor's room and school offices.

Construction will be of concrete and hollow tile throughout. The building will have two stories and will be built as three wings with connecting lanais. Exterior fins will protect the classrooms from sun at all seasons.

This building is a part of an extensive building program planned by Iolani. The first permanent unit was the 12 apartment building for faculty members erected in 1949 at a cost of $113,000. Temporary classrooms for the lower school were completed in 1947. Recently completed was the Bray Athletic Field and a gym-auditorium. A rectory, faculty housing unit, dormitory, and chapel will be included in the building program. We hope that by September 1953 enough of the building program will be completed to allow moving the upper school to the Ala Wai Campus. The lower school has been operating on the site for the past four years.

The present site on the Ala Wai was purchased during the time of the Rt. Rev. S. Harrington Littell, with the hope that some time in the future the entire school could be erected there. During World War II the government used the property for installations. The lower school building and gym-auditorium have been converted from structures left on the property by the government.

Edwin L. Bauer is the architect for the new building to be erected.

Re-Elected President Of Oahu Clericus

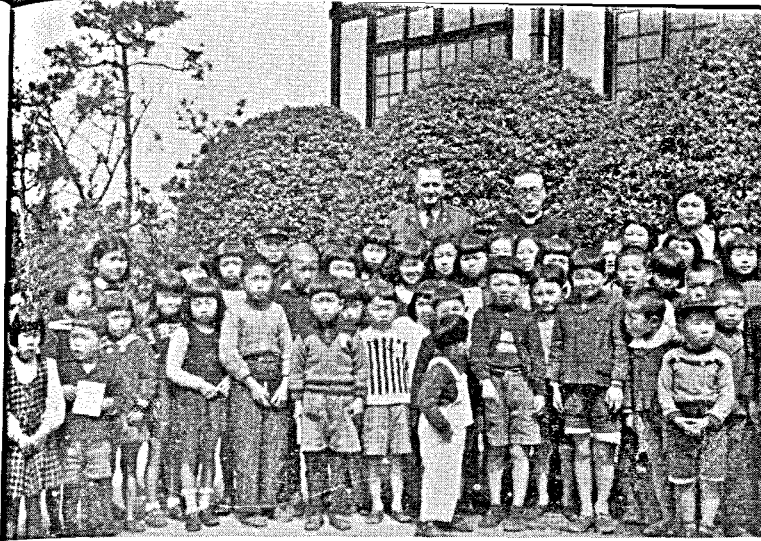

The Rev. C. Fletcher Howe, retired, has had the honor of being re-elected president of the Oahu Clericus. It shows the affection and regard that his fellow clergy have for him. Though he is retired canonically, he is far from that as he continues to be very active in our work in the diocese. During the summer he is assisting at Holy Nativity Church, Aina Haina, while the Rev. John J. Morrett is on furlough. He will take the services for Canon Kenneth A. Bray, of the St. Andrew's Hawaiian Congregation, when he has his vacation in July. He helps frequently at St. Clement's Church and does anything he can to assist the Bishop when he must supply a clergyman for services. It is a real joy to have him and Mrs. Howe sharing in the life of our Church in Hawaii since his retirement.

Former Kauai Clergyman Made Dean Of Cathedral

The Very Rev. J. Thurlow Baker, who was at St. John's Church, Eleele, Kauai, from 1940 to 1947, and who then was at Muscatine, Iowa, and St. John's Church, Minneapolis, Minnesota, has been called as Dean of Gethsemane Cathedral, North Dakota. We are proud of this young clergyman, and congratulate him in this new assignment. His many friends in Hawaii join in sending a warm Aloha to him and his family.

Old Landmark Removed

One of the cottages on Emma Square, for many years used by clergy and Church workers has become the victim of time and termites and has been razed. This will provide more parking space for our church members.

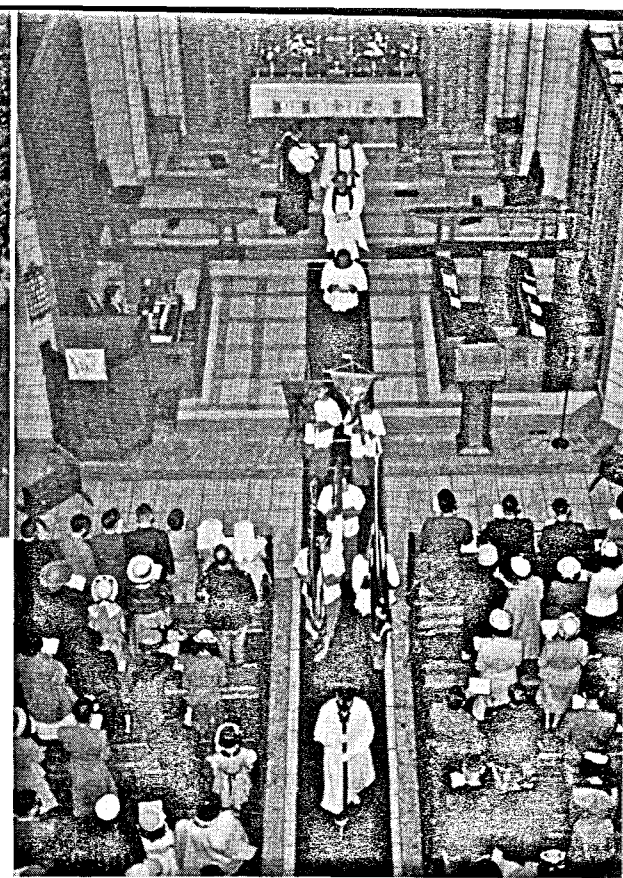

The Reverend H. Hamada, in his church at Nara, Japan. He is pictured here with his Sunday School and Chaplain Charles Urban.

Alfred Krader, Convert From Judaism Leaves

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Krader, communicants of St. Stephen's, Wahiawa, left Honolulu on June 20th for Alexandria, Virginia, where Mr. Krader will prepare for Holy Orders at the Virginia Seminary. A service of blessing on their new venture was held at the church shortly before they left, with the Reverend Claude Du Teil, Vicar, officiating.

Alfred and his lovely wife, Helen, came into the church two years ago this June. Mr. Krader is of Jewish ancestry and was brought up in the faith of the Old Testament. He is the namesake and lineal descendent of a Polish-Jew scholar of the 18th Century. Though his formal connection with the Hebrew Religion was broken with his coming to Hawaii, he retained his interest in the Bible of the Patriarchs and often discussed passages with Mr. Du Teil when the latter dropped in at the store where Mr. Krader was employed. Their conversations led to an invitation to attend a Bible Study Course at St. Stephen's. The Kraders accepted and when it was over they continued their studies in the vicar's "Short Course in Christianity," which serves as confirmation instruction at the Wahiawa church. The classes took Mr. Krader along the same path that Jewish Disciples of the early church had to follow: the offense of the Cross in accepting Jesus, the Son of Joseph, as Messiah. After several discussions and a conference with the vicar, Alfred asked to be baptized and was soon confirmed. Baptized and confirmed at the same time, though of the Christian Faith since childhood, Mrs. Krader joined her husband in active participation in the life of St. Stephen's. He was soon a vestryman and she a member of the Altar Guild and officer in the Auxiliary.

The major turning point came while they were serving together in the church school, teaching a class on the missionary work of the church. Through the help that their young people in the class rendered to our Okinawa Mission, the Kraders came to see most clearly what really counted in life was the bringing of the Good News to those who were without it. After much wrestling within himself and a conference with his vicar, Mr. Krader asked for an interview with the Bishop to apply for the status of Postulant. He was accepted and thereafter applied for admission to the Virginia Seminary, with the Reverend William Heffner of the Okinawa Mission as one of his heartiest supporters.

A very attractive and personable young couple, the Kraders will make a splendid addition to our clergy ranks on their return three years hence. The prayers of the entire diocesan family go with them.

Summer Camps

This year has been an outstanding one for the summer camps for our young people. We wish to commend our staff and those who have assisted in plans for this project that means so much in the lives of our young church members.

Particular credit should be given Canon Richard M.

NEW ALTAR FOR CHURCH — The altar in Saint Stephen's Church in-the-Fields at Wahiawa was given by the George Armstead McEldowney family in loving memory of Robert A. McEldowney who gave his life in World War II. The altar is of Kamani wood, especially chosen by Mr. McEldowney. The carvings on the re-table are the intertwined rose of sacrifice and pomegranate of fruitfulness. (Shigeo Tanji photo.)

Trelease, Jr., of St. Andrew's Cathedral, and head of our Diocesan work for youth. He has put in hour upon hour in preparation for the camp sessions. He will be in residence at the Mokuleia for the first four weeks of the camp. The Rev. William R. Grosh, St. John's-by-the-Sea Mission and St. Matthew's Mission, will be in residence the last four weeks.

Other clergy who are giving two weeks each to the camp sessions are the Rev. Messrs: Burton L. Linscott, Lawrence H. Ozaki, James S. Nakamura, John Caton, Robert Challinor, Stephen Kim, and Theodore Yeh. The Rev. James Nakamura has put in endless hours assembling materials for the handcraft periods and helping with improvements to the camp buildings. He will spend several days at each camp helping instruct the children in handcrafts.

Miss Margaret Monteiro is in charge of the handcraft work. She is a tireless worker, doing everything she can to make the handcraft periods one the children enjoy.

We are indeed grateful to the Junior Counselors, Connie and Sarah Godfrey, Joan Peterson, Eleanor Santri, Jim Searle, Solomon Loo, Douglas Young, George Uye-hara, and Charles Tudhope for all they are doing to make the camp a success. Miss Lillian Ikeda, trained by Miss Mary Whitten, former Camp Assistant, and one who did much to help establish the fine camp we now have, is helping as assistant director this year. She is a most capable and fine leader.

Miss Albertine Sinclair, formerly of Honolulu and Superintendent of Nurses of Leahi Hospital, has returned to Honolulu to be our registered nurse. We are more than grateful to her for coming back to do this work.

One of the unsung heroines of the camp is Mrs. Edouard R. L. Doty, of St. Clement's Church, who has been in charge of the supervision of the hiring of cooks and the buying of food for camp. In this day of food shortage, due to shipping strikes, she has done the almost impossible to see that the children are well fed and contented. The report is that our cooks are doing a marvelous job.

We feel most fortunate in our caretaker and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pang, for the wonderful spirit with which they cooperate during this period. We give him particular commendation for the way in which he keeps our property at Mokuleia, not only during the camp periods, but at all times.

The popular demand for camp has increased the length of time now devoted to it. Where we started with a two weeks period, having twenty children, we have now an eight weeks' period, serving 180 children. With a limited capacity, we feel that this is serving a real need in the diocese. Our first camp was held in 1948.

St. Clement's Church To Build New Sunday School Structure

An attractive building, housing seven classrooms and two apartments and other facilities has been designed by Law & Wilson, Honolulu architectural and engineering firm for the new St. Clement's Sunday School building.

It combines economy with simplicity of design that will complement the already beautiful setting of the church grounds at the corner of Makiki St. and Wilder Ave.

The grounds, which seem from the street to be one great bower of foliage and stately buildings, were part of the dry dusty Makiki plain in 1898 when the church was established here.

Among the major changes have been construction of the Parish Hall in 1937 and of the new church proper during the early phases of World War II.

Outgrew Old Building

The Rev. Frederick A. McDonald, rector, recalls that after the war Sunday school enrollment increased so rapidly that temporary structures were brought in to meet the demand.

These soon will give away to the proposed new building upon which the M. Kaneko Construction Co. has submitted a low bid of $63,827. The entire development program is expected to entail about $70,000.

Kindergarten and nursery activities will center in the downstairs portion of long, roomy building; while more advanced work will be continued in the upstairs portion.

Two apartments are incorporated in the plans. One will be for the sexton and his family, the other for an assistant clergyman.

As in all such buildings, particularly where the welfare of children is concerned, safety has been uppermost in the minds of the planners.

Concrete is used extensively. The roof will be of asbestos tile. Long and wide lanais in the second floor portion will be bounded by safety guard rails to protect the young people.

Church officials hope to have construction in progress by the end of June, followed by completion by the close of 1952.

The heights by great men reached and kept,
Were not attained by sudden flight.
But they, while their companions slept,
Were toiling upward in the night.

Appointed To The Episcopal Church In Japan

Presiding Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill of the Episcopal Church has announced the appointment of Ambassador Francis B. Sayre, who is retiring as U. S. Representative in the United Nations' Trusteeship Council, as his personal representative to the Presiding Bishop and to the Episcopal Church in Japan. In making the announcement, Bishop Sherrill stressed the vital importance of Japan from the point of view of Christian planning and the great need to help the Japanese Church to a realization of their unlimited opportunities.

Mr. Sayre, former U. S. High Commissioner to the Philippine Islands has wide diplomatic experience, especially in the Far East, which combined with his deep Christian convictions enable him to be of inestimable service to the Church in Japan. Mr. Sayre's leadership in Japan will also be of great significance here in rousing the Church in the United States to this great opportunity and responsibility.

Bishop Yashiro of the Episcopal Church in Japan has written: "The coming of Francis B. Sayre opens wide vistas of tremendous possibility for strengthening the cause of Christianity in Japan. I cannot convey how deeply impressed I am over this news for I am certain he will be of great help to the Church and through his wide experience can strengthen us and give us some of the guidance we so sorely need. It will be a great pleasure to welcome Mr. Sayre to Japan as Bishop Sherrill's personal representative."

"Nappy"

LAYMEN TRAINS HIS PET

Mr. Albert Kong, Sr., Key Layman for St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, has trained his dog, "Nappy," to entertain the youngsters at St. Peter's Church. "Nappy" has also brought in many contributions for the American Red Cross by going through his tricks at the many tables placed throughout the city by the Red Cross for the solicitation of funds. Mr. Kong will gladly take his willing performer to other churches for the entertainment of children.

General Convention

101 are diocesan or missionary bishops, 9 are bishops coadjutor and 18 are suffragan bishops, and 40 are resigned. The high percentage of retired bishops is due to the requirement that all bishops must retire at age seventy-two. The Presiding Bishop is ex-officio chairman of the House. The Rev. John Henry Fitzgerald, D. D., rector of Christ Church, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, New York has been secretary for the past twelve years.

Each bishop has his own desk, arranged in order of consecration, so that senior bishops are seated in the front of the House. One of the responsibilities of this House is to elect missionary bishops, subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies.

House of Deputies

The House of Deputies is a much larger chamber, with a potential membership of 658. It is equally divided between clerical and lay deputies. The former must be priests. The latter must be adult, male communicants of some parish within the diocese they represent. The admissibility of women deputies is currently under discussion. Each diocese is entitled to four clerical and four lay deputies. Each missionary district is entitled to one each.

Joint Sessions

During each General Convention there are several Joint Sessions of the two Houses, with the Presiding Bishop as Chairman. These are intended for the reception of notable guests and for the receipt of important reports, such as that of the National Council. No legislative measures are transacted in these sessions. The election of members to National Council, trustees of the General Theological Seminary, a Registrar, an Historiographer, and a Recorder of Ordination will be another duty of Convention.

Triennial Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary

The Triennial Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will also meet at this time. There are 5 women delegates from each diocese and missionary district, plus one additional delegate from each diocese and missionary district having a racial minority group of certain size. The outstanding Woman's Auxiliary event will be the presentation of the United Thank Offering at the Holy Communion Service on Thursday, September 11th, at which the Presiding Bishop will be celebrant, assisted by the Church's missionary bishops.

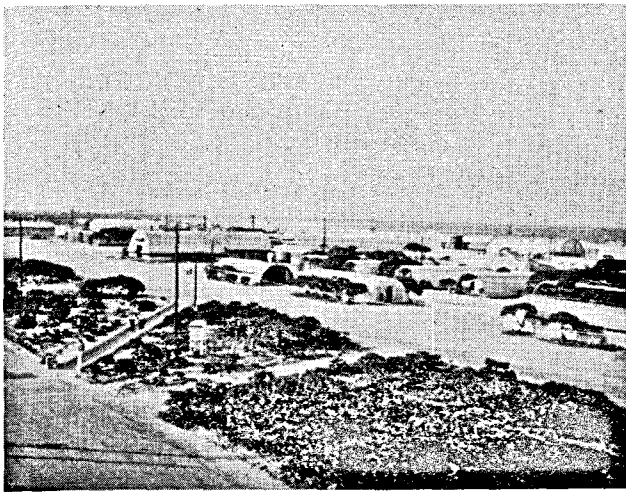

Presiding at this Convention will be Mrs. Alfred M. Chapman, of Washington Crossing, Pennsylvania. Its principal devotional addresses will be delivered by the Rt. Rev. Richard S. M. Emrich, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Michigan. The program of the Triennial Meeting is primarily educational and inspirational, but in addition to this the distribution of the United Thank Offering is determined, the election of 8 members-at-large for the National Executive Board is held, and nominations for 4 women to serve on the National Council for the ensuing triennium is made.

Other Group Meetings

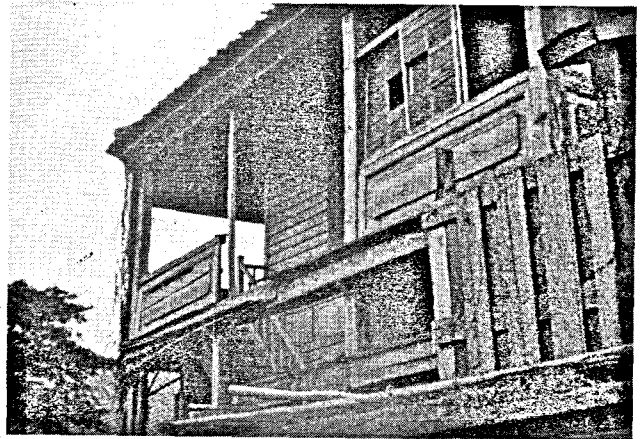

Other activities of special interest groups include the National Youth Convention, the Laymen's Weekend, sponsored by the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Laymen's Work, the National Canterbury Association, Girls Friendly Society, the Church Army, etc.

Fifteen Years Of Service

Mrs. Anne Wear Smith, for fifteen years a devoted teacher at St. Andrew's Priory, is leaving the latter part of July, having retired from her services as teacher. She will leave a host of friends in Hawaii who wish her well. During her service at the Priory she was a devoted member of St. Andrew's Cathedral Parish, singing in the choir and entering into parish activities. She also took an active interest in community affairs. She will be greatly missed in the Cathedral Square. Our affectionate Aloha will accompany her.

Church Going, Two Styles

Much Church-going is just a matter of sampling. You go in order to see what the Rector is like or renew your memories of the old days, to see how the Church looks now, and what the service is like. In this way, you can go from one Church to another, without any sense of responsibility much as a tourist might go into an old cathedral.

The other style of Church-going is less comfortable, because more responsible. You know it is going to cost something in personal sacrifice.

In this style, the Rector has his faults, but God does not. The Church is not always attractive but God is. You don't always feel like going, but God wants you to go. Past memories have their pleasant side, but the present and future are more important.—The Rev'd C. E. Hopkins in Episcopal Church Times.

FOUR INSURANCE QUESTIONS

You believe in Insurance, of course. We don't have to sell you on its value.

Four questions are of the utmost importance in planning your insurance program.

1. How much can you afford?
2. Is it the kind you ought to have?
3. Are the companies in which your policies are held substantial and dependable?
4. Are the general agents representing these companies experienced and reliable?

We will be glad to help you answer Questions 1 and 2. Questions 3 and 4 will answer themselves.
