ST. LUKE'S KOREAN CHURCH, HONOLULU, DEDICATED IN JULY, 1952

YOUTH CARAVAN TO GENERAL CONVENTION

Youth Caravan To General Convention

Convention bound, the Youth Caravan, with the Rev. Canon Richard M. Trelease, Jr., Diocesan Director of Youth, and the Rev. and Mrs. E. Lani Hanchett as chaperones, left Honolulu August 12th, on Northwest Airlines, for Portland, Oregon. After landing there, the group picked up a bus, painted in red and yellow, to drive all the way to and from Boston. They will return to Honolulu on October 1st.

This caravan, known as the Hale Pupule III group (Crazy House) so named by the first group, because of the funny experiences they had, is the third group from Hawaii to attend a General Convention of the Church. In 1946 the Bishop felt that it would be not only educational for the youth of Hawaii to visit the General Convention in Philadelphia, but that it would mean much to our Church people in general to see how we minister to children of many races in this mission field. Canon Trelease took that group and the one sent to San Francisco in 1949.

On Sunday evening, August 10th, in Tenney Hall, St. Andrew's Cathedral, the group presented their program that will be given in thirty towns and cities going and coming from Boston, and at the General Convention and the Youth Convention banquet in Medford, Massachusetts. Television appearances are probable in New York and Los Angeles.

As a missionary venture the caravans have proven most successful. After the first trip the youth of the entire Episcopal Church gave their Youth Offering, which amounted to $16,000 toward our Youth Center in Mokualeia. It made possible the purchase of this conference center. Missionary giving in the churches the caravans have visited has increased.

The second trip to San Francisco was one to express thanks for the gift toward the Youth Center. This third trip will bring a message of the value of Christian missions in teaching people to live together as one.

Delegates include Donald Miike, of Hanalei, Kauai; Ruth F. Kim, St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa; Miliaulani Lucas, St. Matthew's church, Waimanalo; Richard W. Bond III, Holy Nativity; Richard Aloiau, Nellie Yuk Yin Liu, and Lillian Siu Len Tyau, St. Elizabeth's; Jane I. Masutani, Epiphany; Joan M. Peterson and Kualoha Martha Kaiama, St. Andrew's Cathedral; Lillian Ikeda, St. Mark's, Florence T. Matsumoto, St. Mary's; and Margaret Broderick, St. Clement's.

The Rev. John Miller Horton

Cross Awarded To Clergyman

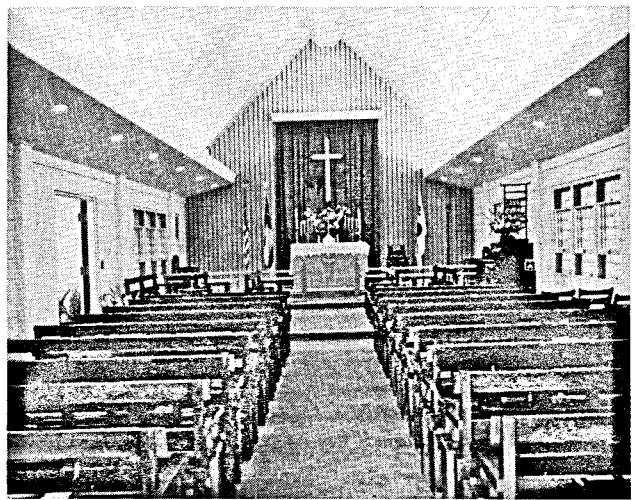

The Rev. J. Miller Horton was presented the Distinguished Service Cross for the Missionary District of Honolulu by Bishop Kennedy. He has been forced to retire due to ill health. For the past sixteen years he has been Vicar of Holy Innocents Church, Lahaina, Maui. In presenting the award the Bishop said, "It gives me great pleasure to present to you the Distinguished Service Cross of the Missionary District of Honolulu, in recognition of your sixteen years of devoted service as Vicar of Holy Innocents Church, Lahaina, Maui. I believe that you know with what esteem you are held by the people whom you have served. I know they would join with me in making this presentation and in offering our prayers of thanksgiving, as well as prayers for God's healing grace, His protection, and His blessing. May He keep you always in His protecting care."

Bishop Leaves For General Convention

The Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy left on August 30th for General Convention. The Bishop had to be in Boston September 4th for a meeting of the Overseas Missionary Bishops. While on the mainland he will have speaking engagements in the Diocese of Connecticut, the Diocese of Delaware, the Diocese of Long Island, the Diocese of Southern Ohio, Diocese of Texas, and at the Woman's Auxiliary Annual Meeting in Richmond, Virginia. He will return to Honolulu October 23rd.

At St. Clement's Church During Month Of July

The Reverend Harold Robinson, from St. Paul's Church, San Diego, California, supplied at St. Clement's Church during the month of July. He and his attractive young bride made many friends while in Hawaii. Bishop Restarick before his consecration as our first Bishop under the American Church's Jurisdiction, was rector of St. Paul's Church, San Diego, so this fact brought the Robinsons even closer to us in the bonds of fellowship.

Interior of St. Luke's Mission

St. Luke's Episcopal Church Dedicated

Members of St. Luke's Korean Mission are happily situated in their new Church building, which was dedicated by the Bishop on Sunday, July 13th, at 4:00 p.m. The Reverend Stephen Eun Tai Kim, Vicar, and the Rev. Burton L. Linscott, Vicar of Epiphany Church, assisted. The sermon was preached by the Rev. John R. Caton. In the procession were the Episcopal clergy on Oahu. Organist was Miss Diana Kim; choir director, Mr. Henry Soong.

This beautiful little church, of Oriental architecture, was planned by Lemmon & Freeth, Architects. Contractors were the Oda Construction Company, Ltd.

This congregation of Korean people was started in 1908. They held their services in buildings near the Cathedral. They then held their services in a little building at 731 Kanoa Street. A year ago in July they purchased the property at Nuuanu and Judd Streets, upon which the new building has been erected. The church is the result of hard work and real sacrifice on the part of members of the congregation.

The Church Building Committee had the following members: Mr. Teucksoon Lyum, Chairman, My Pyong Yo Cho, and Mrs. Yang Soon Low. Members of the Bishop's Committee are: Mrs. Margaret Lee, Samuel Lee, Mrs. Yang Soon Low, Mrs. Duk Pong Kim, Mrs. Soo Yom Choi, Mrs. Phyllis Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Teucksoon Lyum, Mr. Pil Kyu Low, and Mrs. Bok Soon Kim.

Following the service of dedication a reception, given by the Bishop's Committee and Woman's Auxiliary, was held on the lawn.

FIRST HAWAII EPISCOPAL ACADEMY GRADUATES

The first graduating class of the Hawaii Episcopal Academy, Kamuela, Hawaii, had the following members: George Okita, Ardys Bomke, Abigail Spencer, Asao Yagi, and Thomas Hamada.

The Rev. E. Lani Hanchett, Mrs. Hanchett and their children, taken just after he was ordained to the Diaconate.

General Convention Dinner

At General Convention time, Monday, September 8th, we will have a dinner at the University Club in Boston honoring guests who have been in Hawaii for our Convocations, Clergy Conferences, etc. All those from Hawaii attending Convention will join with our guests to renew friendships and to give them our Aloha.

Mr. Samuel Mercer, of the Hawaii Visitors Bureau, will send some flower and paper leis for the occasion for our special guests.

During Convention we hope to have Vanda Orchids flown to us on at least two occasions through the courtesy of United Airlines. These will come from our churches in Hawaii. The Laymen's League is providing paper leis for Convention guests on one day during Convention. All of these will be distributed at our booth, which will be in Horticultural Hall.

All the Woman's Auxiliary delegates from Hawaii will wear beautiful paper leis made by Mrs. Winifred Bridgewater, of St. Andrew's Cathedral. For our past three Conventions she has made her very lovely leis for our delegates and for display in our booth. She has also made those worn by the young people in the Youth Caravan.

Missionary District To Become Diocese

The Missionary District of New Mexico and South-west Texas will ask for diocesan status at the next General Convention in Boston, according to a statement by the Bishop, the Rt. Rev. James M. Stoney. In 1941 the district had 212 confirmations, in 1951 it had 560, a statistic indicative of the continuous growth of the district.

Island Man Ordained

The Ordination to the Diaconate of Edwin Lani Hanchett, on July 20th, in Christ Memorial Church, Kilauea, Kauai, by Bishop Kennedy, was the fulfillment of a cherished dream of this young man of part Hawaiian blood. Ever since his days in Iolani School for boys, he had hoped that some day he might study for Holy Orders.

The son of a doctor, he was born at Hoolehua, Molokai, and was baptized in the Holy Cross Chapel. He was confirmed at St. Alban's Chapel, Iolani School. He also attended the University of Hawaii.

For several years the Rev. Mr. Hanchett was with the Tax Office of the Territory of Hawaii, in Lihue, Kauai. He took a very active interest in the work of the Church, doing much for the youth on Kauai. Finally, his conviction was so firm that he must enter the ministry of the Church, he applied to the Bishop to become a Postulant. For two years he worked under the Bishop as head of the Youth Work on Kauai, and assisting with the services and work at Christ Church, Kilauea, and St. Thomas' Mission, Hanalei, doing an outstanding work in both places.

His wife, Puanani Akana, has worked beside him in all that he has done. A former student at St. Andrew's Priory, she shared his interest in the work of the Church, and did much to encourage him to follow his calling. The Hanchetts have three children.

At the service of ordination he was presented by the Ven. Norman R. Alter, Archdeacon of Kauai, and who also assisted him in his theological studies. The Rev. Kenneth T. Cosby, Vicar of St. John's Church, Eleele, Kauai, preached the ordination sermon.

Following his ordination, he left for Holy Innocent's Mission, Lahaina, Maui, where he is now Vicar-in-charge.

The Rev. Mr. Hanchett and his wife left with the Youth Caravan on August 12th to help chaperone the group. They will attend the General Convention in Boston, Massachusetts, and the Youth Conference held in connection with the Convention. They will return to Lahaina on October 1st.

Annie Parke Plaque Dedicated

Sunday, August 3rd, the Rev. Canon Richard M. Trelease, Jr., Rector of St. Andrew's Cathedral Parish, dedicated the beautiful new memorial tablet in marble mosaic and brass given by Miss Eva C. Jordan in memory of Miss Annie Hamlin Parke. The tablet is similar to that given by Miss Parke in memory of her family when she gave Parke Memorial Chapel to St. Andrew's Cathedral. It has been placed in the rear wall of the Chapel, opposite the one for the Parke family, and near the font. The inscription on the tablet is:

To the Glory of God and

In grateful remembrance of
ANNIE HAMLIN PARKE

Born October 31, 1858

Died November 4, 1950

She hath opened her hand to the needy. She hath stretched forth her hands to the poor.

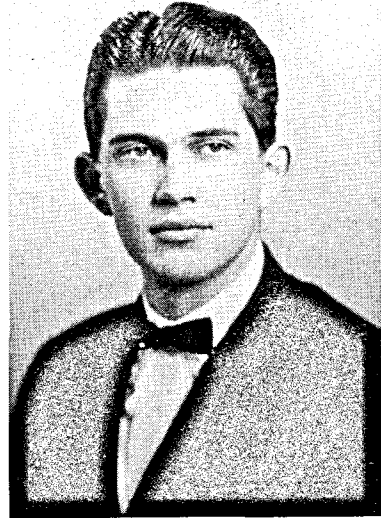

The J. and R. Lamb Studios, Tenafly, New Jersey, designed and made the tablet.

Annual Youth Conference

The Annual Island-wide Youth Conference was held at the Youth Center, Mokuleia, August 20th - 24th, with the Reverend William R. Grosh as director, assisted by the Rev. Messrs: William R. F. Thomas, David J. Coughlin, Robert H. Challinor, Theodore T. Y. Yeh, and Kenneth Cosby. The theme of the conference this year was "Christ in the Young People's Fellowship." The Bishop spoke to the group the opening night of the Conference, telling them of his trip to the mission field in Okinawa and his experiences in Korea, Japan, Hong Kong, etc.

The following subjects were discussed during the conference: What is Christianity? (Christ in us), Christ in our Worship, Christ in our Study, Christ in our Service, Christ in our Fellowship.

All in attendance reported a most successful conference and a wonderful time.

Samuel Van Culin, Jr.

To Enter Virginia Seminary

Mr. Samuel Van Culin, Jr., of St. Andrew's Cathedral, will enter Virginia Theological Seminary in September. He graduated last June from Princeton University and returned to Honolulu for the summer, to be with his parents.

Mr. Van Culin has been assisting at the Cathedral as Lay Reader during the summer and has also assisted Canon Trelease in preparing the young people of our Youth Caravan in their program for their mainland tour.

He was president of the student body at Punahou in 1948. While in Princeton he was president of the Princeton Triangle Club, a musical comedy organization founded by Booth Tarkington. Outstanding men like Jimmy Stewart and Jose Ferrar are listed among its alumni. He was born in Honolulu twenty-one years ago. His father, mother and brother are all active workers in St. Andrew's Cathedral Parish.

Enroute to Alexandria, Virginia, where he will enter the seminary there, he will attend General Convention, in Boston.

Prominent Church Layman Dies

Many of our people in Hawaii will remember Mr. Stewart Cushman, of Chicago, Illinois, who came here two years ago to conduct the Laymen's Training Course presented by the Presiding Bishop's Committee for Laymen. He passed away very suddenly in Chicago on July 7th. His passing means the loss of a very consecrated layman to the work of the Church. We extend sympathy to his wife and family.

Norman Ault

To Follow In Father's Footsteps

Mr. Norman Ault, for many years a devout layman of the Church, and affectionately known by many as "The Nearly Reverend Mr. Ault," has after nineteen years with the Honolulu Paper Company, handed in his resignation in order that he might follow the calling that he knows is his. On August 19th he went to St. John's Mission, Kula, Maui, to be in charge of the work there, and to study for the ministry, under the direction of the Bishop. Hard work and intense study lie ahead of him before he can be ordained to the Diaconate and Priesthood.

Mr. Ault, son of the late Dean William Ault, of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Honolulu, and Mrs. Ault, has been one of the outstanding laymen in St. Christopher's Church, Kailua, Oahu. He helped start this church, watching it grow into a parish. St. Matthew's Mission, Waimanalo, was another church he assisted in starting. Then he helped establish Calvary Mission, Kaneohe, Oahu, making a portable altar, lecturn, etc., that could be transported in his truck each Sunday for the services held in the local school building. As Lay Reader he assisted each Sunday in one or two of these Churches. At our 90th - 50th Anniversary Dinner in February, the Bishop presented him with the Distinguished Service Cross of the Diocese, in recognition of his outstanding work as a layman.

As far back as his high school years, Mr. Ault contemplated entering the ministry. Born into a Church family, as he was, and having the great influence of his father, it is not strange that this desire to enter the ministry has been so great. He was born in Wailuku, Maui, one of five children of Dean Ault and his wife, Mary Elizabeth Caroline Ault. Educated at Punahou, the University of Hawaii, and Santa Barbara State Teachers College, he returned to Wailuku in 1925 and married Jessie Marguerite Palmatier. They have two children, Norman, Jr., 23, who is a civilian employee at Hickam Air Force Base, and Shirley Marguerite, 19, recently graduated from Roosevelt High School. His wife is most happy over his decision to enter the ministry.

When his father came from England to start his ministry in Hawaii, he was sent by the Bishop to Lahaina, Maui. From there he went to the Church of the Good Shepherd, Wailuku, then to St. Andrew's Cathedral, where he later became dean. He died at Easter time, 1951. His wife is still very active in church work and is extremely pleased that her son has been able to at long last enter the ministry.

It is wonderful, indeed, that he can return to the Island of his birth to start his preparation for the ministry.

Pearl Harbor Work Started

It is most gratifying to report that the Rev. David J. Coughlin is now holding services in Pearl City, as well as in the Chapel at Pearl Harbor. In addition to that he has started a Sunday School for the children of service personnel in this area. Much enthusiasm has been expressed by the people in this area for what the Rev. Mr. Coughlin is doing to forward the work there. The Navy is furnishing a place where services might be held in Pearl City.

Diocesan Altar Guild

Under the direction of Mrs. Florence Judd, head of The Diocesan Guild, members of the Guild have been meeting each Tuesday to sew and plan for the needs of our missions and churches. They have been doing a most active piece of work. In years past most of the work for the Diocese was done by Mrs. Ada Clancy, a devout and faithful worker. She is still doing what she can to assist, having just recently made the white stole worn by the Rev. E. Lani Hanchett at his ordination to the Diaconate. Mrs. L. W. de Vis-Norton has also done much for the Diocesan Altar Guild.

On Ascension Day, May 22, members of the Guild met in Parke Chapel for a Corporate Communion, with Canon Trelease as celebrant. The following branches of the Woman's Auxiliary were represented: St. Andrew's Cathedral Parish, St. Clement's; Epiphany; St. Peter's; St. Mark's; Holy Trinity; St. Christopher's, Kailua; St. Matthew's, Waimanalo; and the Puuloa group. Mrs. William H. Lucas of St. Matthew's was appointed recording secretary. Mrs. Hastings Pratt and Miss Mary Merrill each told briefly of the work of their respective Altar Guilds. It was decided that on each Tuesday from 1:30 to 3 a meeting would be held for instruction in the making of Altar vestments, with Mrs. L. W. de Vis Norton, Miss Mary Merrill, Mrs. Ada Clancy as instructors.

50th ANNIVERSARY

St. Elizabeth's Church, Honolulu, is this year observing its fiftieth year. It is quite fitting that this year should mark the erection of their beautiful new Church. Starting as a mission, St. Elizabeth's became a parish in January, 1946. The Rev. Wai On Shim is Rector. The Rev. Theodore T. Y. Yeh is curate. An outstanding event during their Anniversary was a concert given in the Church by the St. Elizabeth's Choir. It was under the direction of Mr. Walter Kau. They were assisted by Mr. William Thaanum, Organist and Choir Director of St. Andrew's Cathedral, and a few members of St. Clement's Church choir, where Mr. Kau is organist and choir director. He is a member of St. Elizabeth's Church and directs the choir.

Forth Magazine Tour

A committee has been formed to take care of the forty to fifty people who will come to Hawaii October 26th on the tour sponsored in connection with our 90th Anniversary by FORTH MAGAZINE and the Northern Pacific Railway. A tentative program has been set up for our guests.

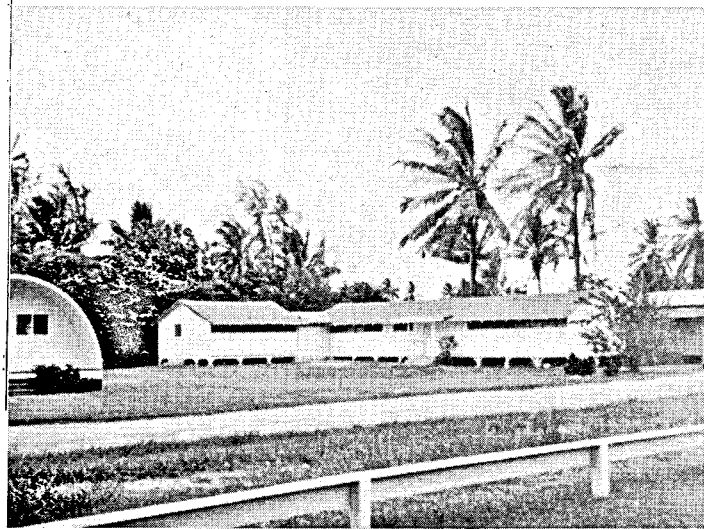

They arrive on the Lurline Sunday, October 26th, at 8:15 a.m. aboard the Lurline. They will be met off-port by the Bishop and several of our people, being given a real Hawaiian welcome. It is our hope that as many as possible can meet them at the Aloha Tower pier when the ship arrives. The guests will be taken to the hotels where they have reservations, then to our churches for the late morning service. Each church will provide for luncheon and a sight-seeing tour in the afternoon.

Early Monday morning they will leave for the Island of Kauai, for a full day of entertainment and sight-seeing, returning to Honolulu at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday will be free for the guests to visit the Honolulu and Waikiki shops, or to spend time on the beach, just as they desire. Wednesday they leave for Hilo on the 8:00 a.m. plane. They will be taken to the Volcano House for lunch, then to Kona, where the guests will have dinner and spend the night. Thursday morning they will be taken to the City of Refuge, Waimea Ranch, the Hawaii Episcopal Academy, where they will have lunch, and following that they will leave for the Island of Maui. There will be sight-seeing and entertainment for them that afternoon and evening. Friday morning they will visit Haleakala Crater, Kula, and Lahaina. They arrive in Honolulu that evening at 6:30 p.m. Saturday morning they have free. At 12:30 they will probably attend the Hawaii Calls Program. In the afternoon they will be taken on a sightseeing tour. In the evening The Iolani Guild of the Hawaiian Congregation, St. Andrew's Cathedral, will entertain them at a luau at Davies Hall, St. Andrew's Cathedral, and with a program of Hawaiian music and dances.

Sunday, November 2nd, the churches on Oahu will again welcome the guests for services. Luncheon will be served to them, and they will be taken on a sight-seeing tour. From 4 to 6 a tea will be given in the Diocesan House so that the guests may have an opportunity to meet the Mission Staff.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday will be spent in taking our visitors to Pearl Harbor, Sugar Mills, Pine-

Notes From St. Christopher's, Kailua

The Rev. Richard U. Smith, Rector of St. Christopher's Parish Kailua, announces that they hope the first stage of their proposed building program will start in September, when the new rectory, to be located in the new Kuulei Tract, on land given rent-free for ten years by the Kaneohe Ranch Company, will be under construction.

Mrs. William Ault, widow of the former dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral, is hard at work raising funds for the four classroom building that is to be a memorial to her husband.

Mr. William Crittenden has been elected Junior Warden, to complete the term of Mr. Norman Ault, who is now studying for the ministry. Mr. William Jewell and Miss Marguerite Beatty are newly elected members of the vestry. Mr. William Simonds is serving as acting Senior Warden during the illness of Mr. J. W. Searle. Mr. William Jenkins is chairman of the building program, and Mr. George Nishimura will be in charge of maintenance of the buildings and grounds.

The men of the parish had their annual luau on August 30th, with Mr. William Jenkins and Mr. Ah Kau Yong, co-chairmen. The women are now making plans for their annual bazaar, to be held October 4th.

Under the leadership of Mr. Frank Leicester and the Day School Committee, improvements have been made in the preparation for the opening of the day school.

Coming Events

St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa, through Mr. Jerry Denslow, announces the County Fair to be held on the Church grounds, Saturday, September 13th, from ten in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon. All are urged to attend.

United Thank Offering Service

The United Thank Offering of the Woman's Auxiliary will be presented at General Convention on September 11th. All the missionary bishops assist with this service. The Presiding Bishop is celebrant. At the same time that this is presented at General Convention we will have a united service of the women on Oahu in St. Andrew's Cathedral, at 10:30 a.m. The Reverend Robert H. Chalinor will be celebrant at the Holy Communion service.

Greetings From Mutton Bay, Labrador

The Rev. Hollis H. A. Corey has written us a note from Labrador, telling of his busy life while supplying during the summer. He does his visiting in a small mission motor boat, having one person other than himself to run the boat. He will return to Florida on the first ship sailing from Labrador in September. He will have visited 47 hamlets to administer Holy Communion, and to conduct other Church services. He is visiting all the Grenfell Hospitals, taking comfort to the sick.

He writes: "I don't know why they call this place Mutton Bay. But I expect it is because there "ain't no mutton," nor any other kind of domestic meat here. But we get delicious codfish, salmon, lobsters, caribou, ptarmigan, murr, wild ducks, etc., and also plenty of seal meat, which isn't so delicious. The fishery is abundant this year; and they tell me it is because I came back.

New Paint Job

The Laymen's League took it upon themselves to paint the chapel and quonset hut at our conference center at Mokuleia. Both look greatly improved. We wish to thank the following men for their effort and time given to this project: Mr. Thomas Major, Diocesan Key Layman, Messrs: K. L. Ching, Titus Fong, James Chock, Richard Yoneshige, St. Elizabeth's Church; Norman King and Thomas Major, St. Clement's; Harry Mathewson, Sum Tse, Stanley Bertelmann, Rodney Pang, and Linuce Pang, St. Andrew's Cathedral; Albert Go, Epiphany Church; Ernest Halford and Albert Hartman, Holy Nativity Church; Kenneth Maureoka, Lawson Green, Ted Kusuhara, and Machin Gaza, Holy Trinity Church; John Chang, St. Mary's Church; and Glen Todd and William Brown, St. Stephen's Church.

*GOD does not ask us to be great or brilliant
He asks only that we seek grace to make our wills conform to His and to follow the Truth as He gives us light to see the Truth. Our first love must be for God; our first obedience to Him. To renounce all that conflicts with this, to accept all that agrees with it is our Christian calling. There is nothing then to fear. He who possesses God possesses all things.*

The Most Reverend and Right Honorable Geoffrey Francis Fisher, D.D. Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of All England and Metropolitan, who will visit the 57th Triennial General Convention of the Episcopal Church, to open in Boston September 7. The Archbishop will make two addresses while in Boston: one to a Mass Meeting on Ecumenical Relations and one to a Joint Session of the Convention. He was last in this country in 1946 when he visited the General Convention in Philadelphia.

Welcome New Daughter

The Rev. and Mrs. John R. Caton, St. Mary's Mission, Honolulu, welcomed a new daughter, their third child, on Wednesday, August 6th. The Diocese extends congratulations to the young daughter and proud parents.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Major, St. Clement's Church, rejoice in the arrival of their new daughter, Mary Elizabeth. She is their third child. Mr. Major is Diocesan Key Layman. He will represent the Laymen's League at General Convention, Boston.

To Enter Church Divinity School Of The Pacific

The many friends of the Rev. and Mrs. Hollis H. A. Corey, retired clergyman from Hawaii, will be interested to learn that their son-in-law, Jonathan Coffey, is to enter the ministry as a Postulant from the Diocese of Tennessee. He will enter the Church Divinity School of the Pacific this fall. His wife, Mary Corey Coffee, and small child will move to Berkeley, California in the near future.

Remember that what you possess in the world will be found at the day of your death to belong to someone else,
 but what you ARE will be YOURS FOREVER.
 —Henry Van Dyke

The Rev. and Mrs. John Robert Jones

New Vicar And Chaplain

The Reverend John Robert Jones, a recent graduate of Virginia Theological Seminary, has been appointed Vicar of St. James Mission and Chaplain of the Hawaii Episcopal Academy, Kamuela, Hawaii. He assumed his duties on July 14th. He was ordained to the Diaconate by the Rt. Rev. Angus Dun, Bishop of Washington. His academic training was taken at George Washington University, Strayer College, Washington, D. C., and Duke University, North Carolina, where he received his A B Degree in 1949. He served in the Army of the United States from 1942 - 1946, stationed a great part of his time in service at Honolulu and Okinawa.

Seminarian Married

Of interest to friends in Hawaii is the announcement of the marriage of Mr. William Edwin Bonsey to Kathryn Brownell, of Berkeley, California. Mr. Bonsey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Edwin Bonsey of Makawao, Maui, and members of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Wailuku. They were married in All Soul's Episcopal Church, Berkeley, by the groom's grandfather, the Rev. B. W. Bonell of St. Alban's Church in Windsor, Colorado. He is a student at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, and is a Postulant under Bishop Bowen, of Colorado.

He and his bride are both counsellors at St. Dorothy's Rest, a camp for children at Camp Meeker, conducted by the Sisters of the Transfiguration.

Lay Readers Conduct Services

During July, while the Rev. William R. Grosh was at our summer camp at Mokuleia, Mr. William Hart, Mr. George Dew, and Mr. Frank Yap, Lay Readers, took the services at St. Matthew's Church, Waimanalo. During June and July the following assisted with services by taking the late service at Holy Nativity Church in the absence of the Rev. John J. Morrett, who was on furlough: Messrs: Colin Fry, Larry Grant, and Ernest Halford.

The World Is Mine!

Today upon a bus I saw
A lovely girl with golden hair,
I envied her, she seemed so gay,
I wished I were as fair;
When suddenly she rose to leave,
I saw her hobble down the aisle,
She had one leg and wore a crutch,
And as she passed—a smile.
O God, forgive me when I whine;
I have two legs,
The world is mine!

And then I stopped to buy some sweets;
The lad who sold them had such charm
I talked with him; he seemed so glad,
If I were late 'twould do no harm.
As I left he said to me, "I thank you
You've been so kind; it's nice to talk
With folks like you," he said,
"For you see, I'm blind."
O God, forgive me when I whine;
I have two eyes,
The world is mine!

Later while walking down the street,
I saw a child with eyes of blue;
He stood and watched the others play,
It seemed he knew not what to do.
I stopped a moment, then I said,
"Why don't you join the others, dear?"
He stood and looked without a word,
And then I knew he could not hear.
O God, forgive me when I whine;
I have two ears,
The world is mine!

With legs to take me where I'd go,
With eyes to see the sunset's glow,
With ears to hear what I would know,
O God, forgive me when I whine;
I'm blest indeed,
The world is mine!

Don't Call Me 'Reverend'

Ten years ago we were pitifully pessimistic about any hope of overcoming that American atrocity in usage, "Rev. Jones." We were equally pessimistic twenty-five years ago—and we suspect, though we haven't checked it—that The Churchman was pessimistic a century and a half ago. Ten years ago The Loiterer spoke this piece about it in our columns. Since the tragedy remains it will—we hope!—do no harm to repeat what he wrote. Here it is:

The Churchman, like many other grown-up journals in the religious field, has done its bit in an attempt to kill the atrocious usage, "Rev. Jones." It said once that it was "seldom unduly disturbed because of the many lost causes in which it had battled," but wasn't quite sure whether it was worth continuing this fight, which it knew in advance must be lost. A year or two ago Time went to bat and said: "Nothing so infuriates a minister named Jones as being called 'Reverend Jones.' Reverend is an adjective, not a title. If a parson is not a doctor (D.D. or Ph.D), he is, like other men, a mister. In good usage 'Reverend' is not found with only a last name after it. (Incorrect Reverend Jones. Correct: the Reverend Dr. Jones; the Reverend J. A. Jones; the Reverend James Aloysius Jones.)" But a few weeks ago Life, one of Mr. Luce's other publications, was guilty of using the horror in a caption under a picture. (Life and Time ought to get together!) Some years ago Harpers said that the usage was on the level of stirring coffee with a fork or eating pie with a spoon. It's far worse. Yet every clergyman's mail is filled with "Dear Rev. Jones" letters. Even the literate Book-of-the-Month Club has been guilty. Almost every relief organization now appealing for funds has been guilty—and it's bad business in such cases, for the letters go automatically into a parson's waste basket, without a reading. Even metropolitan dailies, like The New York Times, frequently indulge in the error—one that the exigencies of head-line writing ought not to excuse. I call upon Editor and Publisher, that gifted mentor of the daily press, to join the fight against "Rev. Jones." How can we conscientiously defend an America in which this brutality to English goes on?

Self-Confidence and Conceit

For if a man think himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let every man prove his own work. Gal. 6:3,4.

This short chapter of Galatians goes on to say that if a man proves his work, then he shall have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. It also says that he who is taught should teach others, that eventually there is a day of reckoning; what a man sows, that shall he also reap. So, according to this chapter of Galatians, it is fine to rejoice in whatever gifts, mental or physical, that we may have, but not rejoice unduly.

It is doubtful if any of us would be able to accomplish much in this world if we did not have self-confidence. But there is a difference between self-confidence and conceit, though that difference is shadowy. The conceited man talks a great deal about himself, and dreams of those things which he hopes some day to do, or if he has done well in life in his line of work, he proclaims it to all whom he may meet. The conceited person usually does not do as much work as the self-confident, courageous person.

Advice To Old People

So much advice is given to young people, it seems only fair that a little be given to the older folk—in view of the fact that people are old so much longer than they are young:

1. Guard against sensitiveness; it is mostly an affliction of age.
2. Do not bewail the fact that you are old; if you were not old you would be dead.
3. Do as much for your appearance as possible; well-kept antiques are considered beautiful.
4. Morals never change, but customs and habits do. Cheerfully scrap a bushel of your old customs, to conform to the present.
5. Learn to be self-sufficient; there may come a time when you will be left all alone.
6. Don't live in the past; memories are precious to you, but unless solicited, keep them to yourself.
7. Believe and live your religion. An old person without faith is pathetic. There is no situation you and God cannot handle.
8. Be as cheerful as sunshine, as firm in the right as gravitation, and as willing to change, when convinced, as the weather.

Forth Magazine Tour

apple Cannery, Oriental Temples, Punchbowl Cemetery, Bishop Museum, Queen Emma Museum, Iolani Palace, etc. On Monday, November 5th, at 6 p.m. an Aloha Party will be given the guests by Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy at their home. Hawaiian, Korean, Japanese, Chinese dances, songs, and music will be given by the Youth Caravan group for the entertainment of the guests. On Thursday we shall bid our guests Aloha as they leave on the Lurline for home.

Mr. Samuel Mercer, of the Hawaii Visitors Bureau and Holy Nativity Church, is working with us to see that the guests are provided with a warm welcome. Mr. Carl Fleischman, of FORTH MAGAZINE is working with Mr. M. M. Goodsill, General Passenger Agent for the Northern Pacific Railway in making travel plans. They have spent much time and effort in regard to this, and have printed a most attractive brochure with all details of the tour. Many have made inquiry about the trip. How many will actually come is not known, but probably around forty or fifty.

Self-Confidence And Conceit

The self-confident man or woman works quietly, lending a hand when necessary to others. Such persons talk little about themselves. They don't have time to advertise their virtues; they allow their work to tell the world what they are. This kind of person is reliable, ready at any time or place to turn out work, to give help. They know just what they are, they allow the world to read in their lives what they are, what they can do. They are happy in such a life. They do not thrive on self-adulation or praise from others. For as St. Paul has advised, they have proved their work and they know it is good.
