

HAWAIIAN CHURCH CHRONICLE

VOL. 43 NO. 8

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN HAWAII

OCTOBER, 1953

October is Aloha Week in Hawaii. Some of our young people help celebrate the occasion.

The Presiding Bishop and Mrs. Sherrill arrive in Honolulu for a week's visit.

Our Presiding Bishop's Visit

The Presiding Bishop and Mrs. Sherrill have come and gone, but they have left with the people of Hawaii a memorable impression of their graciousness and friendliness.

Arriving from Manila very early on the morning of September 25th, they fit themselves into a busy program from the moment they arrived until they bid Hawaii, and the many new friends they had made, Aloha on October 2nd. The memories of their visit will be lasting; the good that they brought to our work in Hawaii means more than we can estimate.

When we first learned that the Presiding Bishop was to pay us an official visit, it was decided to limit his schedule, knowing that he would come to us after a very arduous trip to the Far East. Then a very full program was planned for him, thinking he could cut corners, where he so desired—that he would be held to none of the engagements made for him, unless he saw fit to accept them. The fact that he and Mrs. Sherrill eliminated none of them, places them in the category of the super-energetic. Not once would they admit weariness.

It was estimated that about 29,000 miles had been covered from the time they left New York, going first to Alaska, then to Japan, Korea, Okinawa, Manila, Hawaii, and home. Meeting schedules, greeting people, viewing work, making talks, holding conferences, wisely summing up problems that must be solved, and keeping a jovial spirit in the face of it all is really the test of a great man. And that is our Presiding Bishop.

Okinawa

The Sherrills arrived a day late on Okinawa. Even the best laid plans of our missionaries there, and the military, found them arriving without an official welcome. The Rev. Mr. Godfrey and the Rev. Mr. Heffner had been given the wrong arrival time so they were greeted at the home of General and Mrs. Ogden (devout members of our Church) by the Presiding Bishop and his charming wife.

Arriving a day late, they were unable to visit the Island of Izena Shima, but were able to visit all other missions on Okinawa, even the Leper Colony at Airakuen. A new development since Bishop Kennedy visited Airakuen is the bridge that connects the islands. Bishop Sherrill had hoped to dedicate the new chapel there, but it was not quite ready for occupancy. The service, therefore, was held in the old meeting house. The Presiding Bishop termed his visit to the Leper Colony the highlight of his Far East trip. An old lady in the States had sent the Rev. William Heffner a silver cross. He had Bishop Sherrill confer it upon our devout layreader, Aokisan. Needless to say, it was a very moving moment for them all.

At Nago, Shimabukoro, and Mihara he confirmed and preached. Wherever the Sherrills visited they gained the admiration of their people.

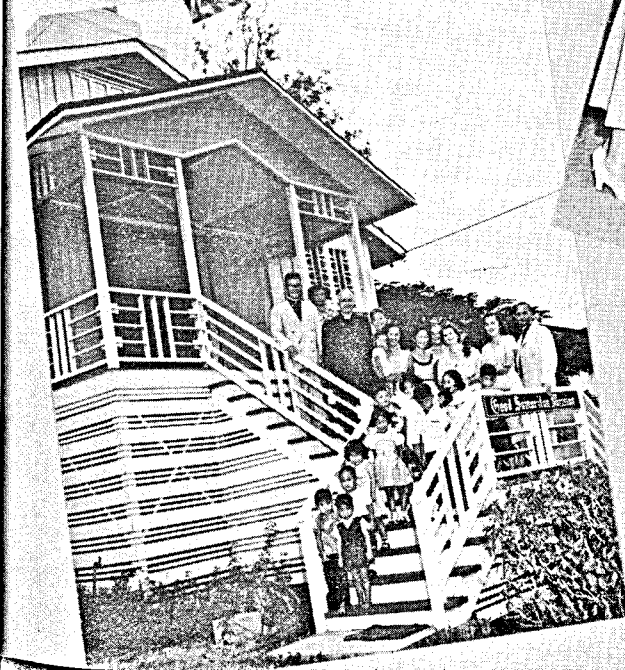

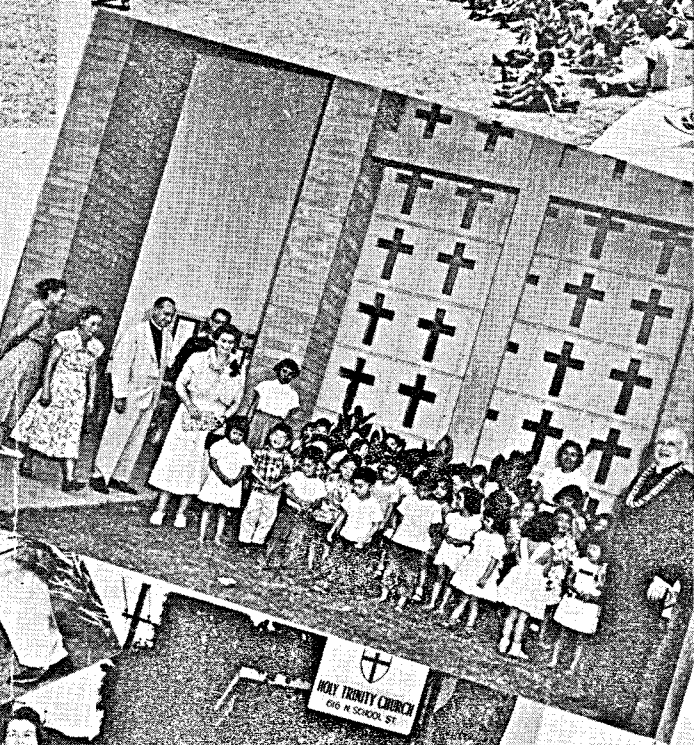

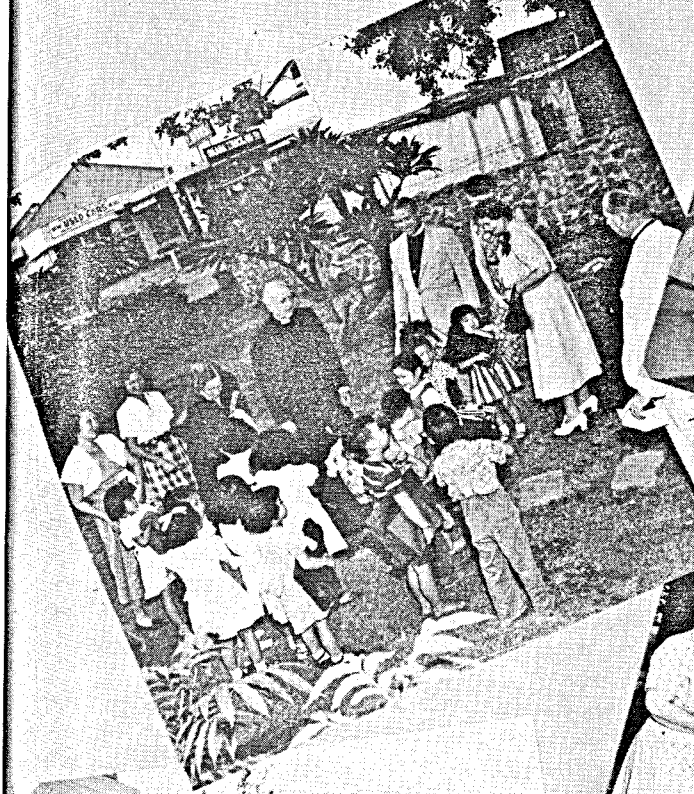

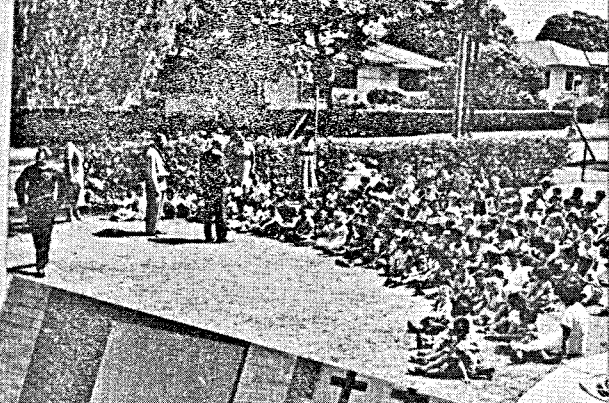

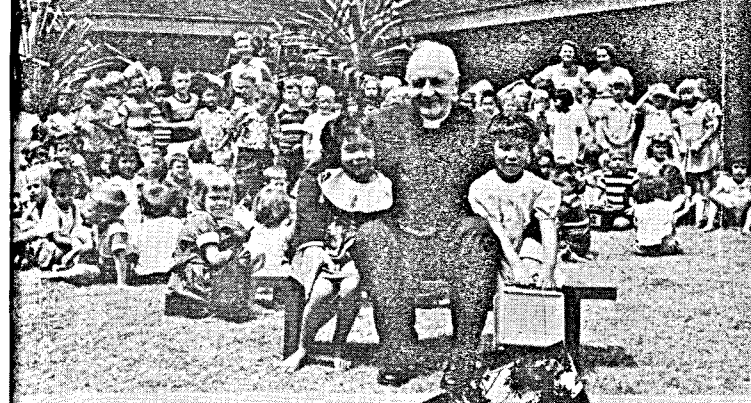

One of the most important occasions was when they visited our mission of St. Peter and St. Paul and conducted a commission service for the Reverend William Heffner, to whom the work of Okinawa has been given. Acting for Bishop Kennedy, he bestowed upon him the title of Canon, a most deserving honor. He also paid tribute to the Reverend Norman Godfrey, who has left a lasting memorial to himself in all that he has done these past two and a half years to establish the Church's work there.

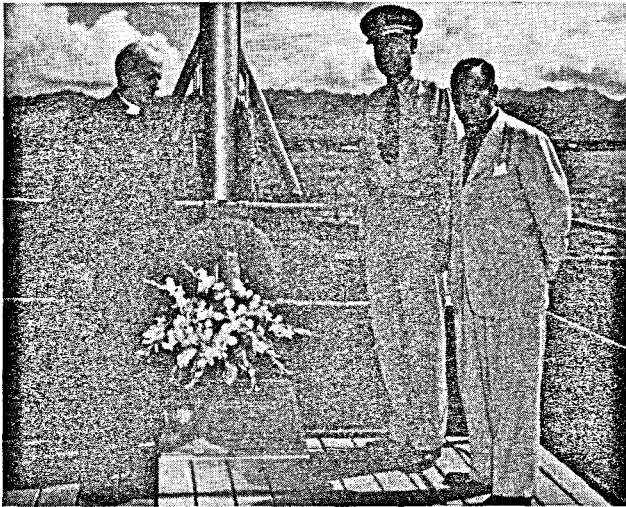

Hawaii

Hawaii is richer for the visit of our Presiding Bishop and Mrs. Sherrill. Not only were our own people, but those of the entire Islands, impressed by the outstanding character of our great Church leader. We were proud to present them as the head of our Church. Newspaper publicity given to their visit, under the direction of Canon Fredrick McDonald, was superior. Everyone was aware of their presence and the stimulating effect they had upon us.

The Presiding Bishop conferred with clergy and laymen, conducted services, addressed our schools, and preached to our people, as well as to the Ministerial Alliance of the Honolulu Council of Churches. He and Mrs. Sherrill, accompanied by Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy, toured all of our Islands, visiting most of our churches and church schools.

The day after their arrival in Honolulu they were guests of Rear Admiral Stewart S. Murray, Commandant of the 14th Naval District, touring Pearl Harbor on the Admiral's yacht. They visited the USS Arizona, at which time the Bishop placed a wreath in honor of the thousand men who gave their life at the time of the attack on Pearl Harbor, December 7, 1942.

Many Church, civic, and military dignitaries joined with our congregations in paying honor to the Sherrills at the reception given for them. At the united service, held at Iolani School, Bishop Sherrill preached a memorable sermon, revealing his humbleness of spirit, his keen insight into life's problems, his forcefulness of character, and his abundance of wisdom.

Much could be written about their visit to us. Suffice to say, our Presiding Bishop and his wife endeared themselves to young and old, rich and poor, because they had an enthusiasm for everything they did, and because they were one of us—not above us!

Extend Thanks

The success of any venture is estimated only in the terms of those who see a project through. We do wish to commend everyone for the fine way in which they participated in the visit of the Presiding Bishop, but more especially do we wish to thank those who assisted with the two large events we held during the visitation of the Sherrills.

The beautiful service at Iolani School was due to the planning of the Very Reverend Richard M. Trelease, Jr., Dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral; The Reverend Paul R. Savanack, Rector of St. Peter's Church, who had charge of altar arrangements; The Reverend Charles A. Parmiter, Jr., Rector of Iolani School, who assisted with plans for the service; The Reverend Robert H. Challinor, St. Andrew's Hawaiian Congregation, in charge of Acolytes; Mr. William Thaanum, Organist and Choir Master of St. Andrew's Cathedral, who trained the combined choirs of our churches, and played so magnificently for the occasion, and the choirs of our churches, on Oahu.

The reception on Monday, September 28th, was due to the planning of Mrs. Richard Bond, Holy Nativity Church, Aina Haina, and her excellent committee. The women of the Hawaiian congregation assisted with the refreshments. The following committee assisted with the reception plans:

Mrs. George Goss, decorations, with Mrs. Edward Harrison, Mrs. Richard Kimball and Mrs. Walter Judd. Mrs. William Fraser, hospitality, Mrs. Robert White, punch; Mrs. W. H. Lucas, arrangements; Mrs. F. C. Gilliland, cake, and Mrs. Henry Caldwell.

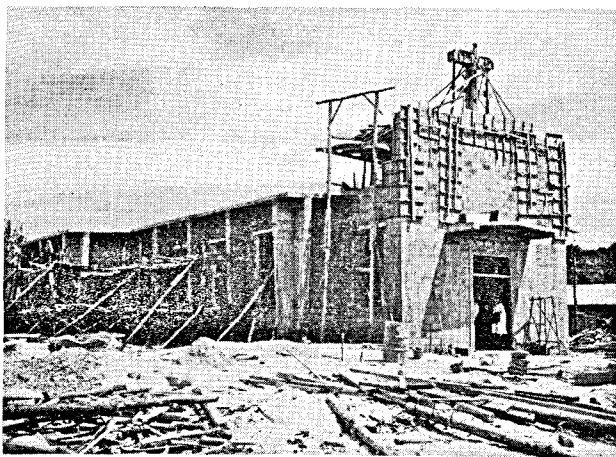

The Royal Hawaiian Band added much to the occasion, as did Hawaiian music from William Lincoln and his troupe. Members of the Iolani Guild joined them in extending Aloha to the Sherrills. The Presiding Bishop had not seen Hawaiian dances, so Mrs. Homer Hayes, one of our lovely members of Iolani Guild, the oldest of the established guilds of our Church in Hawaii, a former graduate of St. Andrew's Priory and member of our Senate, danced "A Lei for You," in her gracious Hawaiian manner.

The following Committee was appointed by the Bishop to assist with plans for the Presiding Bishop's visit:

The Reverend Canon Frederick McDonald, publicity; The Very Reverend Richard M. Trelease, Jr., The Reverend Paul Savanack, The Reverend Robert Challinor, United Service; Mrs. Richard Bond, Reception; Mr. Thomas Major, Laymen's Luncheon; Mrs. Frank Ronayne, Mrs. Robert White, Mrs. George E. Goss, Mrs. Gordon Halstead, Mrs. C. Montague Cooke, Jr., Mrs. Henry Caldwell, The Reverend Canon Wai On Shim, The Reverend Lawrence Ozaki, Mrs. Louise Gilliland.

To Teach at Priory

Miss Ling Chuan Yeh, sister of the Reverend Theodore Yeh, Vicar of the St. Luke's Mission, is now teaching at St. Andrew's Priory. She has been studying on the mainland since leaving her home in China. We are delighted to have her with us.

The Rev. Norman B. Godfrey (right) points out the structure of the new chapel being built at the Airaku-en Leper Colony to our Presiding Bishop.

The Presiding Bishop and the Rev. Norman Godfrey arrive at the Leper Colony, Airaku-en, Okinawa, where the Bishop spoke to over 400 lepers.

Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy Attend Meeting of House of Bishops

Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy left on October 7th for the mainland. They were to go first to Denver, Colorado, where Bishop Kennedy was to preach at St. John's Cathedral, as guest of Dean Paul Roberts. On October 13th the Bishop was to be the guest preacher for the 130th Anniversary of Virginia Theological Seminary. He was looking forward with great anticipation to meeting with our three seminarians from Hawaii: Alfred Krader, Samuel Van Culin, and Richard Aiken. Al and Sam have been at the seminary a year. Dick has just entered the seminary.

The Bishop will preach at Christ Church, Brooklyn, New York, on Sunday, October 18th. He will be at Immanuel Church, New Castle, Delaware, on October 25th, for an annual celebration they are observing. Sunday, November 1st, he will be in St. Luke's Church, Noroton, Connecticut, which is the home parish of Mr. Lewis B. Franklin, retired Treasurer of our National Council. On November 4th he will address the Women's Auxiliary of the Diocese of New Jersey, and on November 5th, at the invitation of Mrs. Arthur M. Sherman, President of the National Council of our Woman's Auxiliary, he will address the women of New York. He will preach at St. Stephen's Church, Richmond, Virginia, on Sunday, November 8th, and that night speak to all Virginia Canterbury Clubs. November 9-13th he will be at the meeting of the House of Bishops, Williamsburg, Virginia. On November 15th he will preach at Washington Cathedral, St. Alban's, Washington, D.C. They will return home soon after this appointment.

While in Connecticut they will see their sons, David and Paul, who are attending Trinity College, Hartford. On their return from the east they will see their son Lt. (jg) Bruce Kennedy and his wife, in Long Beach, California, where Lt. Kennedy is stationed with the United States Navy.

Appointed Archdeacon of Hawaii

The Bishop announces the appointment of the Reverend Robert Sheeran, Holy Apostles Church, Hilo, Hawaii, Archdeacon of the Island of Hawaii. He has made a great contribution to the work of our Church on Hawaii, and it is with real joy that the Bishop makes this announcement. His leadership has been outstanding. We know that the people and clergy on Hawaii, as well as those in the Diocese, join in congratulating him. We are all pleased with this announcement.

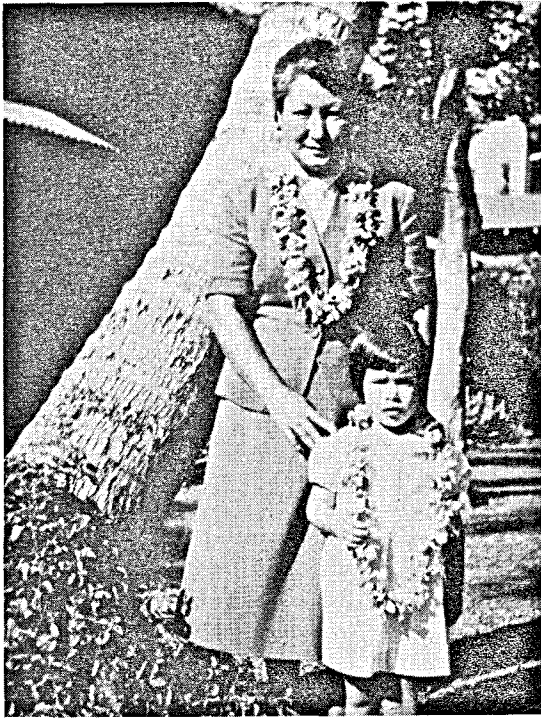

Resigns Her Work

It was with a deep sense of regret the Bishop accepted the resignation of Mrs. Frank Ronayne as hostess for our Diocesan House and Army and Navy Center. She returned to her home in Kansas City, Missouri, on October 4th. Illness in her family was the reason for this decision.

Mrs. Ronayne did an outstanding work with the young men in service, and built it up to a very fine status. She was very much admired by all whom she served. She made a host of friends while in Hawaii, all of whom regretted her decision to leave. We send her forth with our very deep Aloha. We hope she may sometime decide to return to us. We deeply appreciate the contribution she made to our work while at our Diocesan House.

Extend Deep Sympathy

The Reverend Keith Kreitner St. Clement's Church, Honolulu, was called home suddenly because of the illness of his mother. He returned to St. Louis, Missouri, where he visited his mother and family, then started back to Hawaii. When he reached Honolulu he was told of his mother's death. We all join in extending our deep sympathy at this time.

Madam Miki Sawada, who stopped in Honolulu for a few hours enroute to the mainland. With her is one of the children she took as an abandoned child at Elizabeth Saunders Home, Oiso, Japan. The child has been adopted by an American family—the first to be so adopted. The children taken care of by Madam Sawada are innocent victims of the War.

Mrs. Thayer Addison to Visit Hawaii

Mrs. Thayer Addison, of Boston, Massachusetts, wife of the late Dr. Thayer Addison, who was head of the Overseas Department of National Council, and mother of Mrs. Samuel N. McCain, Jr., wife of the Vicar of Christ Memorial Church, Kilauea, Kauai, will arrive on October 26th for a three weeks' vacation with her daughter and family. We shall be very happy to welcome her, for she has been in our Islands before, but only briefly. When her husband made a trip to the Far East in 1949, they had to stop in Honolulu for a time because of Dr. Addison's illness, which he suffered on the trip. He never fully recovered from this illness.

We shall be delighted to welcome Mrs. Addison, and know with what joy her daughter and family await her arrival.

Episcopal Chaplain Assigned

Chaplain Paul Linaweaver has come to Hawaii to be in charge of Chaplains in the United States Navy at Pearl Harbor. We feel most fortunate to have him in this area. He and Mrs. Linaweaver have already made many friends, and have become a part of our Diocesan Family.

We welcome them with our Aloha. We know that he will do much to strengthen our work here.

Bishop and Mrs. Littell to Visit Hawaii

The Rt. Rev. and Mrs. S. Harrington Littell, retired Bishop of Honolulu, will arrive on October 30th for an extended visit in Hawaii. While here they will be guests of Mrs. Fritz Hart, 3017 Puiwa Lane.

We are delighted that Bishop Littell is well enough to make this trip to Hawaii. We feel sure that it will mean much to him and his many friends here to have an opportunity to visit with him and Mrs. Littell. We shall welcome them with our very warm Aloha.

At Long Last!—A Church for Molokai.

Plea after plea have gone out for the Island of Molokai. Now, at long last, property has been given to us and a building purchased to build a new chapel. The Reverend E. Lani Hanchett, who is in charge of this work, has written the following account in his weekly Bulletin, THE EPISCOPAL MESSENGER, Holy Innocents Church, Lahaina, Maui.

At a public auction on Molokai Tuesday, September 29th the Episcopal congregation there were the successful bidders for a two story surplus army building. There is sufficient lumber in the building to build a church, parish hall, and vicarage. Thus the dream that has been in the minds of the people there for a good many years is on the verge of becoming a reality. As soon as building plans are completed, which will be very shortly, bids will be let out to the contractors on the island and construction begun. Enough praise cannot be showered upon the people of Molokai for their faith, devotion, and enthusiasm in the face of seemingly insurmountable obstacles as they pushed ahead toward their building goal. They have assumed the obligation of a loan from the Bishop to get them started, and will continue to work diligently for the upbuilding of the Church on Molokai.

The Reverend Harry Finkenstaedt Honored

Word has reached us that the Reverend Harry Finkenstaedt, one of our new missionaries in Honolulu, has received an award for third prize in the Presiding Bishop's contest sponsored by the Committee for Laymen's Work in sermon writing. He was awarded third prize for the seminarians graduating in 1953. The Rev. Richard E. Byfield, Vicar of St. Thomas Church, Sunnyvale, California, who was graduated from the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, won first prize. The Rev. Gene E. Rose, Curate of All Saints Memorial Church, Rhode Island, won second place. He was a graduate of Berkeley Divinity School. The Rev. Mr. Finkenstaedt graduated from the Episcopal Theological Seminary, Cambridge, Massachusetts. His sermon title was "Which Way?". The Rev. Dr. Theodore O. Wedel, Warden of the College of Preachers, Washington, D.C., and Chairman of the Committee of Judges, made the announcement. We are proud of the Rev. Mr. Finkenshaedt and commend him greatly.

Leave Hawaii

The Reverend Norman B. Godfrey and his family left Honolulu on the Hawaiian Steel Flyer, Tuesday, October 13th. They were to go to New York via the Panama Canal. An assignment of work will be made after their arrival on the mainland.

It was a surprising moment for us all, when the Rev. Mr. Godfrey appeared to bid Bishop and Mrs. Sherrill goodbye at the Honolulu Airport. He had just arrived from Okinawa, coming in one gate, as the Sherrills went out the other.

We bid the Godfrey family Aloha with a deep sense of loss. They have endeared themselves to us in the years they have been in Hawaii and Okinawa. His work has been greatly appreciated by the natives and people of Okinawa. Few men could have endured the separation from family as he did. Few families would have been so unselfish in allowing such a separation. It has been a true test of devotion for them all. He contributed much in Okinawa. His family contributed much in Hawaii. We shall miss them, but rejoice in their new-found happiness of being together again. We all join in expressing gratitude for their contribution to Hawaii, and in wishing them an abundance of God's blessings in any new work they undertake.

Texas Churchman Addresses Men of St. Clement's

Mr. Bertram Parker, prominent layman of the Southwest Province of the Episcopal Church and National Committeeman for the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Laymen's Work, spoke to the Men of St. Clement's at the breakfast following their Corporate Communion Sunday, October 11th. Mr. Parker has not only been the much sought-after speaker at many Church conferences but he is also the author of a widely distributed tract called "I Am a Layman."

Elders Dinner at St. Peter's Church

The people of St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, held their annual dinner honoring the elders of their Church. Over 300 were in attendance. Bishop Kennedy and Governor Samuel Wilder King were the main speakers. The Reverend Paul R. Savanack, Rector, greeted the guests. Some of the elders have been members of the parish for fifty years. It is one of the outstanding events of the parish each year, and is sponsored by the Men of St. Peter's. At that time they give an award to an outstanding layman. This year it was awarded to Mr. Joseph Kau.

Mr. David Coon, one of our Candidates for Holy Orders at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, and his bride. They were married in Hilo on September 11th, and have returned to the Seminary, where Mr. Coon is a senior.

From the Kauaiian

Monday evening, September 14, Bishop Kennedy addressed a meeting of the Lihue Plantation supervisors at the Lihue Union Church parish hall. The Bishop was among the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Tester at Kauai Inn.

The Bishop told about his recent trip to the Orient and presented his views of existing social and economic conditions. In his inimitable way, he also related many amusing events which took place during his travels. Kauai clergy and their wives attended the meeting.

We were delighted to read the following in the Christ Church Kilauea bulletin: "Christ Church is one of the tourist attractions of the Island. We seek to make each visitor welcome. Recently a new idea has been warmly received by our guests. Thanks to Mrs. Duncan Campbell and others, fruits that are in season have been placed in the vestibule of the church for the tourists. If anyone has fruit or flowers that he would care to leave at the church, please speak to Mrs. Campbell."

The Rev. Mr. Hanchett and the Rev. Mr. Ault.

Ordination Service on Maui

The whole Diocese has given thanks for the Ordination to the Priesthood of the Reverend Edwin Lani Hanchett and The Reverend Norman Carrol Ault. Both are beloved sons of Hawaii.

September 19th, at Holy Innocents Church, Lahaina, Maui, Bishop Kennedy advanced to the Priesthood, from the Diaconate, these two men. It was the first such service on the Island of Maui, and much was made of the occasion by the three congregations on that Island.

"Lani" is the first person of Hawaiian ancestry to be so ordained. Norman Ault, son of the late Dean William Ault, of St. Andrew's Cathedral, is the first son of a clergyman on any of our Islands to be ordained priest. He, too, is a son of Hawaii, having been born on Maui.

There is one fact paramount—no two were more blessed with the affection and prayers of friends as they took this step. They are two men to whom you may look and say, "Christ shines from within!" They are consecrated priests of our Church. They forsook the Almighty Dollar for Almighty God. They both had positions of responsibility. But they both had convictions. They heeded something greater than that. What they heeded shines forth in their countenance. What they mean to everyone is something every man desires the love, affection, and admiration of all who know them.

The combined choirs of Kula and Lahaina churches added much to the service.

The Rev. Mr. Hanchett is Vicar of Holy Innocents Church, Lahaina—The Rev. Mr. Ault, Vicar of St. John's Church, Kula.

The beauty of the Church was enhanced by the anthurium used on the altar and the floral decorations that were placed by the members of the congregations. The Rev. Paul R. Savanack gave an inspiring ordination sermon to the Ordinands. The Reverend Percy Bartlam, Church of the Good Shepherd, Wailuku, Maui, read the Preface to the Ordinal. Mr. Hanchett was presented by the Ven Norman R. Alter, Archdeacon of Kauai, and the Rev. Canon Wai On Shim, St. Elizabeth's Church, Honolulu, and devout sponsor of St. John's Mission, Kula, presented the Rev. Mr. Ault. The Reverend Richard U. Smith, St. Christopher's Church, Kailua, Oahu, read the Litany. The Rev. Mr. Ault had started the work of St. Christopher's Church when he was a layman.

Following the service, luncheon was served on the lawn of the rectory. Men and women had labored day and night in preparation of the event, and they were well rewarded as a capacity congregation attended and expressed appreciation for the service, as well as for the delectable luncheon. Hawaiian musicians entertained during the meal and the Bishop addressed the group.

In addition to his work at Lahaina, the Rev Mr. Hanchett has been sponsoring the work at Molokai. This is another tribute to his fine leadership.

The Rev. Mr. Hanchett is a young man of part-Hawaiian blood, having been born on November 2, 1918, in Honolulu, the son of Doctor Alsoberry K. Hanchett and Mary McGuire Hanchett. For several years he was employed as a field auditor with the Territorial Tax Department and was stationed at Lihue, Kauai. While on Kauai he was extremely active in the work of the Church, particularly in Youth Work. He was also a layreader at Christ Church, Kilauea.

He resigned from his Territorial position on March 1, 1951, so as to devote all of his time to the work of the Church. He was ordained to the Diaconate at Christ Church, Kilauea on August 20th, 1952, and the following day was assigned to the Church of the Holy Innocents, Lahaina, where he has been very active in carrying on the duties of a rector and has continued his intensive studies so as to be ordained to the Priesthood.

His wife, the former Puanani Akana, has shared his interests in the Church and has worked beside him in all that he has done. The Hanchetts have three children, Carolyn, Suzanne, and Stuart.

The Rev. Mr. Ault was born at Wailuku, the son of the late Dean William Ault and his wife, Mary Elizabeth Caroline Ault. The building of the present Church of The Good Shepherd was started in 1910 while the then Reverend William Ault was rector.

The Rev. Norman Ault has been extremely active in the work of the Church for many years. He was one of the outstanding laymen in St. Christopher's Church, Kailua, Oahu, where he helped start the Church and watched it grow into a parish. St. Matthew's Mission, Waimanolo, was another church he assisted in starting, and he helped establish Calvary Mission, Kaneohe, Oahu. As a layreader he assisted each Sunday in one of these Churches.

In February of 1952 the Bishop presented him with the Distinguished Service Cross of the Diocese, in recognition of his outstanding work as a layman.

It was only natural that a man with the calling of the church so strongly in his veins should resign his position with the Honolulu Paper Company, after nineteen years of service, to devote full time to this work. On August 18, 1952, he was assigned to St. John's Church, Kula, and on December 17, 1952, he was ordained to the Diaconate.

Since being at St. John's he has continued his very active and untiring devotion to the work of the Church, in addition to continuing his studying to prepare himself for the Priesthood.

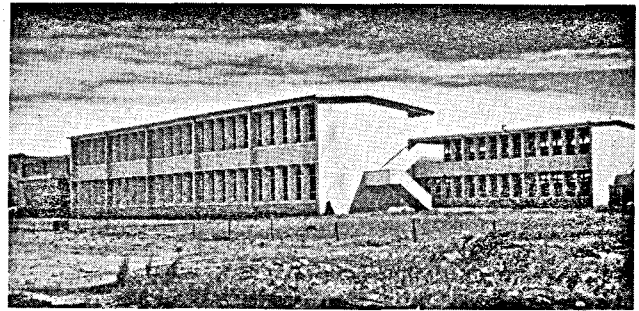

His wife, the former Jessie Marguerite Palmatier, has been very active in assisting him in his work and has been most encouraging and helpful to him. They have two children, Norman, Jr., and Shirley Marguerite.

To both of these men Ordination to the Priesthood is the fulfillment of a long cherished dream. Maui is indeed fortunate in having these two outstanding church men in its community.

Bishop Ludlow, Interim Rector of St. Clement's Church, Due in November

The Rev. Frederick A. McDonald, rector of St. Clement's Episcopal Church, left October 4th for San Francisco, en route to London, England, beginning a nine months leave of absence. The rector will return the end of June, 1954 to resume his duties at St. Clement's.

During his absence, the work at the church will continue under the curate, the Rev. Keith Kreitner, and the Rev. C. Fletcher Howe. On November 22, Bishop Theodore R. Ludlow, retired Suffragen bishop of Newark, N. J., will arrive to act as interim rector. He will be accompanied by his wife and they will stay in the rectory on Ferdinand Ave.

New Iolani High School building which was dedicated for the opening of the fall term, by the Bishop. The Rev. Charles A. Parmiter, Jr., Rector and Headmaster, assisted. It is a beautiful structure, built on the new location of the school—750 Laau Place, on the Ala Wai. Architect for the building was Edward Bauer. Cost of the building was $286,000.

In addition to the high school building a new rectory and apartment building were erected this summer. Total cost for the entire building program was $940,000. We are proud, indeed of these new buildings.

Bishop Ludlow, a brother of Mrs. Howe, began his career as a lawyer and then after attending seminary became a professor at Boone University in Wuchang, China. He later was with the Missionary Department of National Headquarters of the Church in New York City. During the first World War he was a chaplain with the AEF. Later he had a church at Waterbury, Conn., and then went to Newton Highlands, Mass., where he was a lecturer at the Episcopal Theological Seminary.

In 1923 he became the dean of Grace Cathedral, Topeka, Kans. In 1927 he was in charge of adult education at national headquarters, and later became rector of the Church of the Holy Communion in South Orange, N. J. In 1936 he was consecrated Suffragen bishop of Newark, from which he was recently retired.

Bishop Ludlow will preach at St. Clement's on the day of his arrival, and the Women's guild will hold a reception following the 11 a.m. service to honor the Ludlows.

The Rev. Mr. McDonald is en route to Canterbury where he will enter Central College, the newest center of study in this Christian denomination, situated in the old St. Augustine's College, the oldest location of theological learning that this church possesses.

After leaving Honolulu, the Rev. Mr. McDonald addressed the clergy of the Diocese of Oregon, visited old friends in his former parish, the Church of St. David, joined his parents, Judge and Mrs. Donald McDonald in Seattle, and visited in New York City and Washington, D.C., where he attended the 10th annual anniversary of Gen. Bradley's 12th Army Group with which he was associated during World War II.

of thine own
have we given thee

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

You and the Every Member Canvass

A tenth for God's share—or a pittance? Our Lord meant a tenth, when He said a tenth. "Of Thine Own Have We Given Thee" meant that God endowed us with possessions that were for the extension of His Kingdom, not for our own glory and our comfort. "It is mine—I earned it by the sweat of my brow!" Did you—or did God favor you with "His Own?" He had faith in YOU. Are you worthy of that faith?

To whom so much is given, so much is expected. And that does not mean that you can hide in a sock that which should be given to the Lord's work! It will serve you little in a world in need. It will serve you little where greed for power reigns supreme. It will serve you little when you return to His reward for you.

"Go ye into all the world" meant that if you could not go alone, your dollars could. Think well how you shall give to the Church at the time of the EVERY MEMBER CANVASS. God knows your full share. God will abundantly bless the cheerful giver. His work must be furthered here in Hawaii, in Okinawa, in Alaska, in churches on the mainland—in the WORLD! What is going to be your response to the EVERY MEMBER CANVASS? Are you going to "Get away with" or are you going to honestly say—with a heart full of gratitude for God's abundant blessings, "OF THINE OWN HAVE I GIVEN THEE!" You may fool yourself with excuses—but you won't fool God! Give—and give generously for the extension of HIS KINGDOM. Do not place yourself in the position of being pitied by God. Rather have Him look upon you and say, "Well done, thou good and faithful Servant!"

Young People Meet

Sunday, October 11th, the Young Peoples Fellowships of our churches on Oahu met at St. Peter's Church for a service and program, as well as supper. Over 150 were in attendance.

On Sunday, October 18th, the Corporate Communion for the youth of the Church all over the country will be held. It is our hope that all of our Churches will join in this corporate act of worship.

Anglican Congress — 1954

Minneapolis will be the scene next year of the Anglican Congress, a meeting of bishops, priests, laymen, and lay women from 325 dioceses of the world-wide Anglican Communion. Dates set for this gathering are August 4 to 13, 1954, and the theme will be "The Call of God and the Mission of the Anglican Communion."

Only precedent for such a convocation is the Pan-Anglican Congress of 1908, which met in London and was organized along the same lines. Lambeth Conferences, held in England at intervals of approximately ten years, are meetings of bishops only. At the last Lambeth Conference it was felt that another kind of world-wide meeting was also needed, one which would provide an even more comprehensive voice for the Anglican Communion. It recommended that such a Congress be called soon "to witness to our common faith and to confer on matters of common interest."

As Presiding Bishop of the host Church, Bishop Sherrill will preside over the meetings, and both he and the Archbishop of Canterbury will address the opening session. All the dignitaries of the Anglican Communion are expected to attend. They will come from such distant places as India, Africa, Japan, Australia, and Korea. To enable as many to come as possible, a number of U.S. dioceses have volunteered to sponsor one or more delegations.

General Convention's Joint Committee to Arrange for the Anglican Congress, under the chairmanship of the Rt. Rev. Walter H. Gray, Bishop of Connecticut, is already at work making plans for the Congress. Other members of the Committee are: the Rev. John Heuss, vice chairman and finance committee chairman; Robert T. McCracken, secretary-treasurer; the Rt. Rev. Thomas N. Carruthers, program chairman; also the Rev. Cornel-

Bishop Sherrill stopped at Canterbury House on his tour of Oahu, chatting with students.

Canterbury House is an active center at the University of Hawaii. Under the direction of the Rev. Keith Kreitner a lively program is carried on for the students. Church services and counseling are included in the work at the University. Much enthusiasm has been evidenced by the students in the new center.

ius P. Trowbridge, and Mrs. James S. McCulloh.

Local arrangements are being made in Minneapolis by a special committee appointed by the Rt. Rev. Stephen E. Keeler, Bishop of Minnesota.

FOUR INSURANCE QUESTIONS

You believe in Insurance, of course. We don't have to sell you on its value.

Four questions are of the utmost importance in planning your insurance program.

1. How much can you afford?
2. Is it the kind you ought to have?
3. Are the companies in which your policies are held substantial and dependable?
4. Are the general agents representing these companies experienced and reliable?

We will be glad to help you answer Questions 1 and 2. Questions 3 and 4 will answer themselves.
