55th Annual Convocation Program

Guest of Convocation

The guest of our 55th Annual Convocation, which will be held at St. Andrew's Cathedral February 8 - 14, will be the Right Reverend William Fisher Lewis, S. T. D., Missionary Bishop of Nevada. He is a noted speaker in the Church and at the last General Convention with the Department of Youth. Mrs. Fisher will accompany him.

Attendance Urged

Although each parish and mission is represented at Convocation by a delegate and alternate, our members are cordially urged to attend all sessions of Convocation. This is one time when our people can see our Church at work. After the thrilling experience of General Convention in our midst, we should be even more eager to see our own diocese at work, since we are a part of this greater body.

Youth Conference

The Annual Youth Conference will be held prior to the opening of Convocation. The opening event of the conference will be a banquet at the Reef Hotel, Friday, February 8th, at 6:00 p.m. Bishop Lewis will address the young people at this time.

On Saturday, February 9th, the young people will go to our Conference Center at Mokuleia for an all day session. This will start with a Holy Communion service at 7:30 a.m. The Reverend Paul M. Wheeler, Rector of St. Clement's Church and Chairman of our Diocesan work with Youth, will be the Celebrant. He will be assisted by the Rev. Messrs: E. Lani Hanchett, Robert Sheeran and Richard L. Aiken.

The keynote Conference leader will be the Rev. Alfred C. Krader, Vicar of St. John's Church, Eleele, Kauai. Leading the discussions will be the Rev. Messrs: Norman C. Ault, Morimasa Kaneshiro, Chester G. Minton and E. Lani Hanchett. The theme of the Conference will be "Power to Witness."

Opening Service

The Opening Service of Convocation will be held on Sunday, February 10th, at St. Andrew's Cathedral, at 7:30 p.m. This is a service of great color and inspiration. It is our hope that our people will set aside other things that they may attend this service.

The choirs of our Oahu churches will be in procession, as will the clergy of all our Islands, our Lay Readers and Bishops. The choirs will be under the direction of Mr.

William Thaanum, Organist and Choirmaster of St. Andrew's Cathedral.

This is the time when the Bishop delivers his annual address, including in it the achievements of the year and the aspirations for the year ahead.

The Very Rev. James S. Cox, Dean of the Cathedral, will be in charge of the service. He will be assisted by the Rev. William R. Grosh and the Rev. Gerald G. Gifford, II. Participating in the service will be the Rev. Messrs: Richard L. Aiken, Shunji F. Nishi, Ph.D., Gerald P. Loweth, and the Rev. Canon Paul R. Savanack. The Rev. G. P. Mellick Belshaw will read the Necrology and the Rev. Canon Wai On Shim will be the Bishop's Chaplain.

Reception Honoring Bishop Lewis

A reception will be held in the Cathedral grounds immediately following the Opening Service so that our people may have an opportunity to meet our guest of Convocation, Bishop Lewis. The Woman's Auxiliaries of St. Stephen's and St. Timothy's Churches will be in charge of arrangements for this.

Business of Convocation

The business of Convocation will take place on Monday morning, starting with a service of Holy Communion at 8:00 a.m., in the Cathedral. The Bishop will be Celebrant. He will be assisted by the Very Rev. James S. Cox, the Ven Norman R. Alter and the Rev. Messrs: Paul Kim, David P. Coon, and John J. Morrett.

The St. Andrew's Priory Choir, under the direction of Sister Evelyn Ancilla, will sing for this service.

Breakfast will be served at St. Peter's Parish Hall. The Auxiliaries of Christopher's and Calvary Church will be in charge. St. Peter's Woman's Auxiliary will be in charge of table arrangements.

The Bishop will preside at the business session, which will open at 9:15 a.m. Bishop Lewis will bring greetings to the Convocation. The Rev. Chester G. Minton will read the Noon Day Prayers.

The luncheon at 1 p.m. will be in charge of the St. Andrew's Auxiliary and Guild. The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Luke's Church will be in charge of table arrangements.

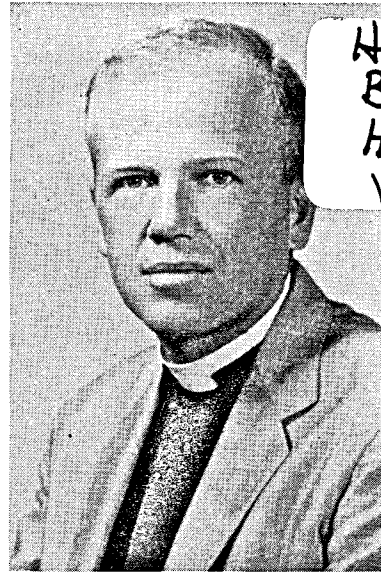

Dedication of Iolani Kindergarten

At 2:30 p.m., Monday, the dedication service for the Iolani Kindergarten will take place. The Bishop will conduct the service, assisted by the Rev. Canon Frederick A. McDonald, Headmaster, and the clergy of the Diocese.

Diocesan Banquet

Those who attended the Diocesan Banquet last year will remember with pleasure the evening at the Reef Hotel. We will again hold our banquet at the Reef, on Monday, February 11th, at 6:00 p.m. Dean Cox, of St. Andrew's Cathedral, will be the Toastmaster. Mrs. Gordon Halstead, of St. Clement's Church and Diocesan Hospitality Chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary, will be Appointed Vicar of St. Mary's Mission

The Reverend Richard Ainslee Kirchoffer, Jr., son of the present Bishop of Indianapolis, has been appointed Vicar of St. Mary's Mission, Honolulu. He and his family will arrive on the Leilani, Sunday, February 10th. He has four children, Richard III, 8½ years of age, Mary 6½ years, Margaret 3 years, and Christopher 2 years.

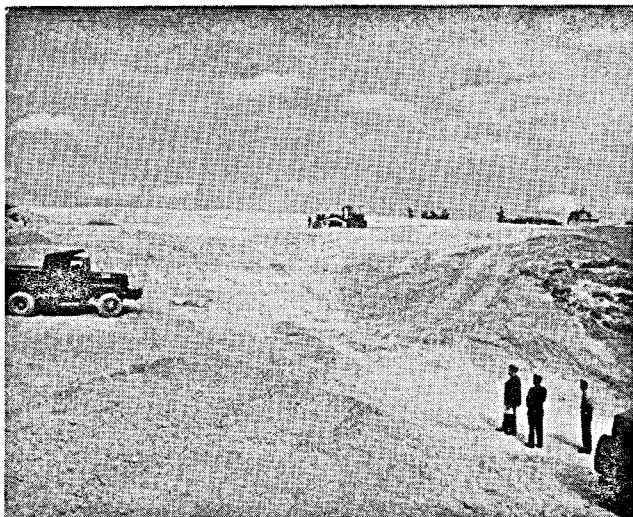

The Rev. Mr. Kirchoffer is a graduate of Sewanee Military School, of the University of the South and Virginia Theological Seminary. He was four years in the United States Navy, serving aboard the USS Honolulu. He has served in parishes in the Diocese of Tennessee, coming to Honolulu from Christ Episcopal Church, Memphis.

He and his wife come to us highly commended and we shall welcome them into our Diocesan Family with a very warm Aloha.

Chronicle Subscriptions

January is the month when the Hawaiian Church Chronicle subscriptions are due. Many of our churches have followed the policy of sending the Chronicle to all who have pledged toward the support of the Church. This is commendable and urged by the Bishop, since it is his only means of informing our people of the work and life of the Diocese.

If your church does not follow this policy, we would appreciate your gift or subscription. Even if you do receive the Chronicle through your Church a gift toward its support would be appreciated.

The Third Marine Division Engineers clear the ground for the erection of the church for the American congregation, Okinawa.

The Marines Help in Okinawa

The Church in Okinawa is greatly indebted to the 3rd Marine Division for all of the work that they have done in helping clear the land for the building of our new church, All Souls Church.

Major General Alan Shapley has been instrumental in seeing that this work was accomplished through the Third Marine Engineer Battalion. Many of his officers and men shared in the accomplishment of the task.

The Bishop has written to General R. McC Pate, Commandant of the United States Corps, thanking him for the help that has been given to us.

All Soul's Church was organized on August 29th, 1954, dedicated to all who fought and died in the Battle of Okinawa, World War II, in 1945. Its location on a bluff overlooking the China Sea to the west and facing Hacksaw Ridge to the east, scene of the bitterest fighting of the campaign, is therefore significantly appropriate. The Church has obtained building funds by appeals to the National Council, by donations from sponsoring churches in the United States and by its own fund-raising activities in Okinawa. Design of the structures, the selection of a site, and utilities began in August of 1956.

Canon William Heffner writes: "Not the least of the contributions to the building has been the interest of General Lemuel Shepherd, former Commandant of the Marine Corps, and various Commanding Generals of the Third Marine Division — General Eranshaw, General Wornham, Genarl Krulak, and General Shapley. This support has been material as well as moral."

Of great help in this project has been Colonel Hamilton W. Fish, who is now Warden of the Bishop's Committee. He is doing a great work for us. He will be

Mr. Luke Kabira, Lay Reader on Okinawa, who attended General Convention in Honolulu, shown with his son, wife and mother under the Christmas tree in the rectory of our Mission Headquarters, Miwashi, Okinawa.

Awarded Distinguished Service Cross

Mrs. Robert (Mary von Holt) White was awarded the Bishop's Distinguished Service Cross at the Annual Meeting of St. Andrew's Cathedral Parish, January 14th. The Bishop gave this to her at that time because she is leaving shortly for New Zealand and Australia for an extended vacation. She has been a devoted member of the Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary Board for many years, serving the past ten years as treasurer. She has always served graciously and well in the Diocese and richly deserves the honor accorded her by the Bishop. We congratulate her upon this distinction.

Record Confirmations

The year 1956 had the largest number of confirmations in the history of the Missionary District. This was no doubt due to the impact of General Convention in the life and work of the Church in Hawaii.

In the Hawaiian Islands we had 839 confirmations. In Okinawa there were 119 and in Formosa 264.

St. Andrew's Cathedral had 106 confirmations — the largest number in the history of the Cathedral, and the first time any congregation has had more than 100 confirmations in a single year.

Another point of interest is that we have 8 clergy who are retired receiving pensions amounting to $11,327.28 per year and 6 widows of clergy who are receiving $4,207.56, making a total of $15,534.84.

remembered by many in the Diocese for the work he did as a layman in World War II, when he was stationed on the Island of Kauai and assisted as Lay Reader at St. John's Church, Eleele.

Cathedral Extension Plan

Ninety-five years ago when Bishop Staley arrived in Honolulu to begin his Episcopate he found a little house of worship built for him on the corner of Nuuanu Avenue and Kuakini Street. That was the beginning of the Honolulu Cathedral. Four years later a pro-Cathedral was built on the present property at Emma Square, and on March 5, 1867 King Kamehameha V laid the cornerstone of the present Cathedral Church building. Work progressed slowly at St. Andrew's, the Choir and part of the Nave were completed in the eighties, additions were made around the turn of the Century and brought to the present point of building in 1908.

Ninety-five years is a long time by some standards, but not for a Cathedral. In Europe it is the exceptional Cathedral that was built in less than a hundred years, possibly none with the exception of Truro, Liverpool, and the new Coventry. Nevertheless ninety-five years has been a long time to wait for some who have desired the completion of the Honolulu Cathedral. Now we shall wait no longer. The long dream is nearly over and we are about to waken to the reality of the dream's beautiful fulfillment. Immediately following Convocation a campaign will be undertaken at the Cathedral to raise the funds necessary to complete the Cathedral in the proportions conceived by the original London architects of the last century, and in the same French Gothic spirit. There will be added a beautiful facade of glass and bronze, a new pipe organ to replace the old termite eaten one, and over all will be thrown a new steel and plaster roof.

The roof is really the beginning point of this great Cathedral building effort. When all is said and done the figure that stands out in our Cathedral effort is the soft, white elipsoid of a termite. When we replaced the old termite ridden pews and did over the old Chancel, we of course made a rather thorough examination of the Cathedral thinking that we might do some necessary patching while we had so many workmen about. Lo, and alas! termites in the roof. Great gouts had been chewed out of supporting beams and trusses. The architect and engineers said: "you will have to put a new roof on. This one is safe for about two years."

"How much will it cost," we asked.

"Oh, about $100,000.00," they said.

"Oh," we said.

Opinion began to form at that juncture. Why not put in the new organ, if we were going to have to find all that money? Yes, and why not put on a new front, the old one is about to fall down anyway. Yes, but if you are going that far why not complete the Cathedral to its proper proportions and, so, take care of the congregations that cannot now be accommodated.

So we began to study the problem. A Building Committee headed by Mrs. Walter Dillingham began to

Japanese Bishop Visits Okinawa

The Right Reverend Paul Kurose, of the Diocese of Mid-Japan, Nagoya, visited Okinawa recently, at the invitation of the Bishop, to conduct services and take confirmations.

He celebrated at the Christmas midnight Holy Communion service at the House of Prayer, at the Leper Colony at Airaku-en. On Christmas Day he had the service for All Souls Church, our congregation for the military personnel and civilians in Okinawa. This service was held in the military chapel.

While on Okinawa he had 39 confirmations.

Bishop Kurose is the newest bishop of the Japanese Church and was consecrated last February.

The President's Prayer

Almighty God

As we stand here at this moment, my future associates in the executive branch of the Government join me in beseeching that Thou will make full and complete our dedication to the service of the people in this throng and their fellow citizens everywhere.

Give us, we pray, the power to discern clearly right from wrong and allow all our words and actions to be governed thereby and by the laws of the land.

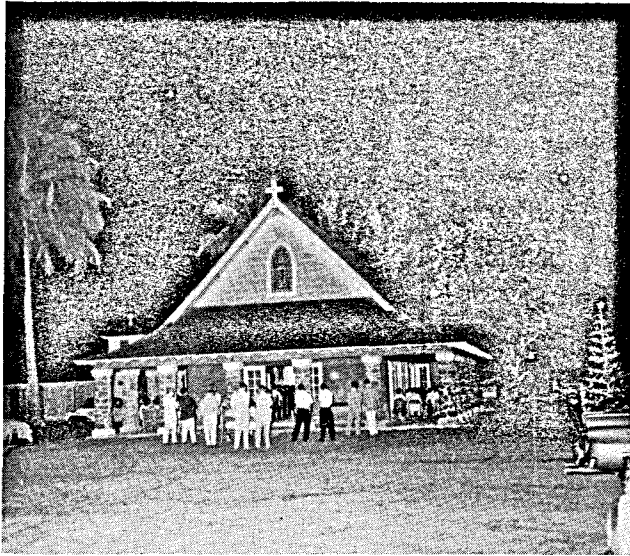

Especially we pray that our concern shall be for all the people, regardless of station, race or calling.

May cooperation be permitted and be the mutual aim of those who, under the concept of our Constitution, hold to differing political beliefs — so that all may work for the good of our beloved country and for Thy Glory.

Amen.

A man can make only one great discovery, namely, that there are other persons in the world besides himself.

Assisting With Services

The Reverend Paul Barbour, D. D., a retired clergyman from the Diocese of South Dakota, is in Honolulu with his wife. He has offered to assist in any place possible during his stay in the Islands.

At present he is assisting at St. Elizabeth's Church and Iolani School.

We are delighted to have the Barbours with us and extend a very warm Aloha to them.

Gleanings From Parishes and Missions

Island of Kauai — An Island-wide Youth Rally was held on the Island of Kauai recently with about 200 young people in attendance. The Rev. Samuel N. McCain, Jr. is the Advisor for the youth.

Holy Apostles, Hilo, Hawaii — The Rev. and Mrs. Gerald P. Loweth and baby have moved into a new Vicarage and are happily getting settled.

In Memoriam

Robert McCuaig

The Diocesan Office has been saddened in the death of Mr. Robert McCuaig, who has been with us as Accountant and Bookkeeper since January, 1956. He had endeared himself to the Diocesan Staff and to those in the Diocese, who worked with him. He was a man of high integrity and sincere purpose.

He had been failing in health for some weeks, but still tried to keep on with his duties. Death came while he was sleeping, January 15th.

For many years he had been with the Schuman Carriage Company and had to give up his work there due to ill health. He appeared to be in good health when he assumed his duties as Accountant for the Diocese.

Mr. McCuaig had a quiet way about him, and was a sincere and devout servant of our Lord. He came to the Diocesan Office at a time when he was very much needed and served us well. He had a delightful sense of humor that made one enjoy his company.

Funeral services were held in Parke Chapel on Wednesday, January 16th, with the Bishop, Canon Paul Savanack, and the Very Rev. James S. Cox conducting it.

To his widow and daughter, Mrs. Leon W. McCoy, we extend our very deep sympathy, with the assurance that we, too, grieve the loss of this fine man.

Reginald H. Carter

The entire Diocese joins in extending deep sympathy to the widow of Mr. Reginald H. Carter, of St. Andrew's Cathedral, who was called by death on January 3rd. He suffered a heart attack while asleep. His passing was a great shock, since he was apparently in good health.

Much has been said about him, but the Diocese and Church have lost a devout and dedicated layman, and will keenly miss his presence. For many years he was organist and choirmaster of St. Andrew's Cathedral. He also served as a member of the Cathedral Chapter and on the Diocesan Council of Advice.

One of his greatest interests was to raise a fund for a new organ in St. Andrew's Cathedral. He sponsored many garden tours to start this fund and enlarge it. He was also very much interested in the bird life of the Islands.

* * * *

Encouraged by their example and strengthened by their fellowship, we pray that these faithful servants of our Lord may increase in knowledge and love of Him, and go from strength to strength in the life of perfect service in His heavenly kingdom. Amen.

These women were members of Good Samaritan Mission when it started 25 years ago. The 25th Anniversary of the Mission was celebrated on January 21st, with The Rev. James S. Nakamura, Vicar, and the Rev. Canon Paul R. Savanack officiating. Seating, front, L to R: Mrs. Tsuta Ogai, Mrs. H. Okamura, Mrs. Ei Hata, Mrs. Sugi Nakahara. Theological Education Sunday

Let us keep our theological seminary students very much in mind on Sunday, January 27th, when we make an offering for their work. This is the Sunday set aside by the Presiding Bishop to remember their work and give them the support they so greatly need.

At Virginia Theological Seminary we have Mr. George Hayashi, who will graduate in June, and Mr. Ivor Torgerson, who is taking his first year at the seminary. The Church Divinity School of the Pacific will graduate Mr. Charles Crane and Mr. Masao Fujita in June. Mr. Norio Sasaki is a middler at the seminary and Mr. Roger Melrose is having his first year there.

These men are all making many sacrifices that they may return to this mission field and extend our work. They will need our prayers and assistance to see them through seminary.

Our Church faces a shortage of priests, so we must see that stress is placed on the importance of the success of Theological Sunday, the day on which attention of Episcopalians is focused towards our twelve seminaries in the United States. All the clergy know that there is no provision for theological education in the Church's national budget. If churches would make provision in their budgets to lend some support to seminaries it would eventually place them on the basis where they could be served adequately.

Presiding Bishop Sherrill has said in designating this Sunday: "The future of the Church depends to the greatest extent upon the quality of the clergy of the Church. This fact points directly, of course, to our Seminaries, for in them our clergy are trained. Let us see, therefore, that our Seminaries are so equipped in personnel and in facilities, that this vital task may be performed."

CAMP PECUSA, Maui. The Israelites who dwelt in tents had nothing on the children at Camp Pecusa last summer. Here the tents are shown against the backdrop of the West Mountain range. Winter rains and a number of volunteer weekends have produced a healthy campus of grass at the camp by now. The building in the background was built by the Episcopal laymen of Holy Innocents', St. John's, and Good Shepherd Parish on the "Valley Isle". Shown cutting the first carpet of grass is Mr. Rudolph Duncan, formerly of Calvary, Kaneohe, and now a devoted layman at Holy Innocents', Lahaina.

Iolani School Raises $83,000 in Fund Drive

Iolani School parents have raised $83,000 in the school's $250,000 building campaign.

The total contribution will be matched by another group, according to the Reverend Canon Frederick A. McDonald, head of the school. He said he could not disclose the name of the group.

The building program includes a Primary Center, already under construction, and a $200,000 Student Center.

The Primary Center is expected to be completed within a month. It will include a kindergarten room and two first grade rooms.

Primary youngsters now are attending classes in old army buildings on the school campus.

Canon McDonald says no target date has been set for ground-breaking for the Student Center, although the school hopes to build it this year.

The Student Center also will replace an inadequate old army building.

Parents have raised the building fund largely by pledges.

However, the students also are doing their share, he added.

He said the Hi-Y Association at Iolani is washing and polishing cars to raise money and residents may obtain car-washers by calling Ray Masuda, president of the senior class, at the school.

Clergy and Wives Guests of Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy

Tuesday evening, at the Princess Kaiulani Hotel, the clergy and their wives will be the guests of Bishop and Mrs. Kennedy at a buffet supper. This is to afford new clergy and their wives an opportunity to meet and know the older ones and is a time for fellowship.

Clergy Conference

Wednesday, February 13th, the clergy will meet for their conference. The Holy Communion service at 8:00 a.m. is for the clergy only. The Bishop will be Celebrant, assisted by the Rev. Messrs: Lawrence Ozaki, Joseph Turnbull, Kenneth T. Cosby, William Smythe and Alfred C. Krader.

Bishop Lewis will address the clergy following breakfast at Cluett House, where Mrs. Elsie Kastenbein will be hostess. This will be held in the Diocesan House.

Teachers Institute

New this year is the Teachers Institute for Diocesan Parochial and Day School teachers. This will start at 8:00 a.m. with Holy Communion in the Cathedral, at which the Bishop will be Celebrant. He will be assisted by The Rev. Canon Frederick A. McDonald, and the Rev. Messrs: Shunji F. Nishi, Ph.D., Norman C. Ault, Burton L. Linscott, E. Harvey Buxton.

Dr. Nishi, Chaplain and Director of Religious Education at Iolani School, the Rev. Burton L. Linscott, Principal of Epiphany Day School and Mr. James M. Taylor, Headmaster of the Hawaii Episcopal Academy, Kamuela, Hawaii, will conduct the Institute.

conceive plans and ascertain costs. No committee ever worked harder. At last plans were approved and costs were pinpointed: roof, $100,000.00; organ, $50,000.00; extension of Cathedral two bays and porch, $150,000.00; wiring ventilation, etc., $40,000.00; new facade including stained glass window, $60,000.00 total $400,000.00. The problem was then turned over to the Cathedral Building Finance Committee headed by its co-chairmen Mrs. Mary K. Robinson and Mr. Harold Dahlquist. Their solution will soon be spread before us all. We expect to raise the needed sum of money in February, we hope to begin work on the completion of the Cathedral in March, and we hope to hold services in the completed Cathedral by Christmas of this year.

You can see by the beautiful cover picture in this issue of the Hawaiian Church Chronicle something of the dramatic concept of the new Cathedral. The center portion of the facade is in reality a great stained glass window twenty-four feet wide and fifty feet high, giving a surface area of over one thousand square feet introducing into the Cathedral the gorgeous color which will give us one of the most richly satisfying experiences imaginable.

In raising the funds necessary to building, we are not going outside of the regular Cathedral supporters in our campaign. This does not mean that we will not welcome gifts from whatever quarter they may come. It is only that we do not wish to place a burden on the parishes and missions of the District. We are sure that Cathedral friends will rally around and help us rise up and build.

The announcement of this honor was made by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, Evanston, Illinois. The ten are among 7,500 finalists picked from 162,000 selected students throughout the country.
