

HAWAIIAN

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII

LIBRARY

407-25-57

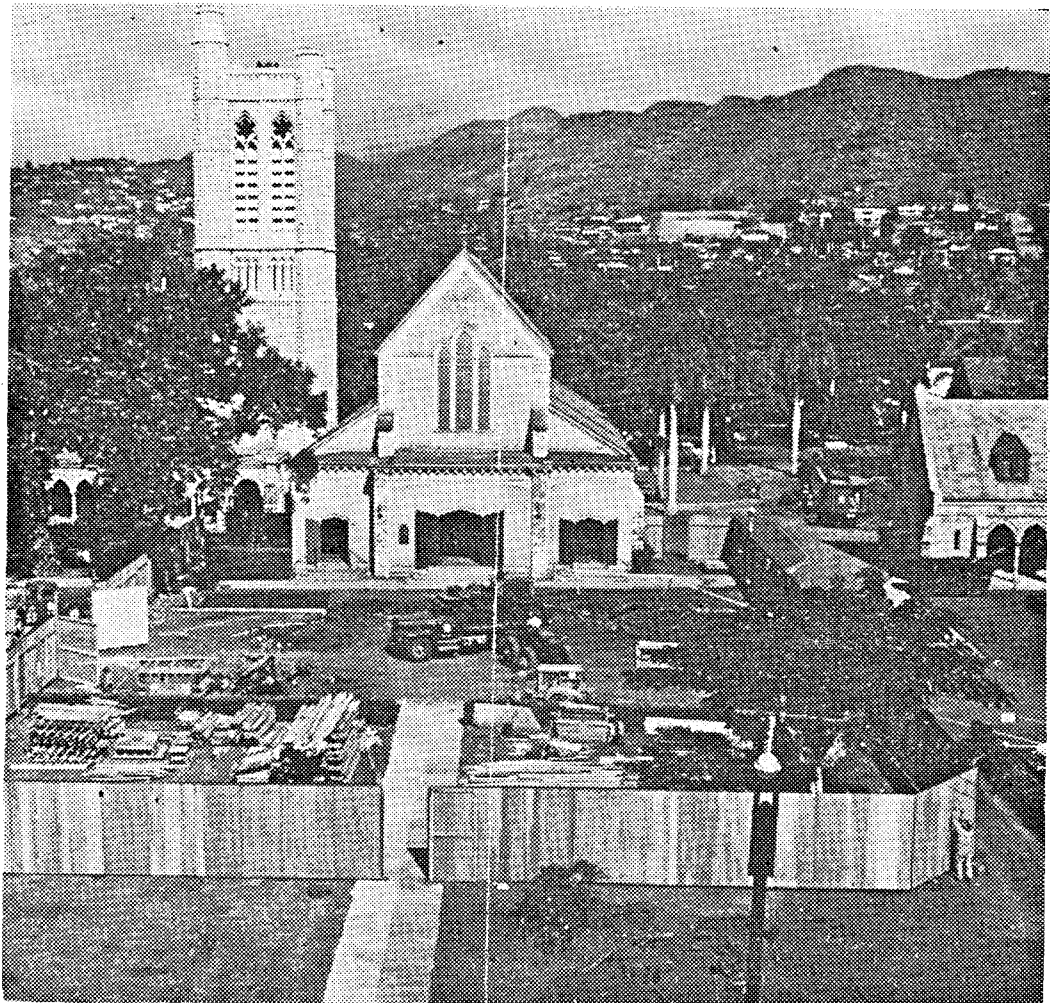

HAWAIIAN
CHURCH CHRONICLE

Published Monthly by The Episcopal Church, District of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii

VOL. 47—No. 9

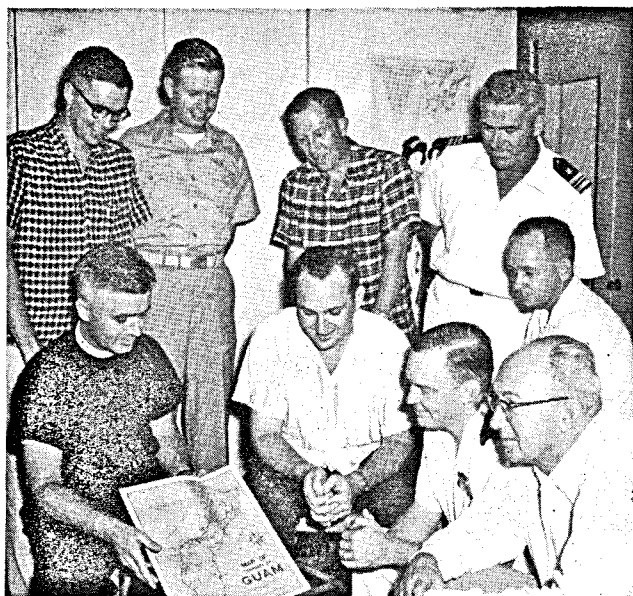

NOVEMBER • 1957

HONOLULU, HAW.

—Courtesy Honolulu Star Bulletin

Work to enlarge St. Andrew's Cathedral has started. A barricade large enough to allow workmen room in which to work on the 60-foot extension to the front of the church has been put up, as shown in the above picture. The entire facade will be a stained glass window 24 feet wide and 50 feet high. Three monkeypod tree stumps near the Cathedral were removed to make way for the additions. They left enormous holes of twenty feet in diameter for each tree. Trunks and limbs of the trees, all more than 100 years old, were made into bowls, plates and crosses and sold as mementos to members and friends for the building fund.

The Rev. Richard H. Baker, Agana, Guam discusses location of a permanent site for the Church with his committeemen.

The Birth of a Territory and The Birth of a Church

Guam is the youngest of American territories. It is also the location of the youngest of our overseas missions.

The island of Guam was incorporated into the United States through the Organic Act of August, 1950. It represents a vital, dynamic example of democracy in its earliest stages. The island also is increasingly a valuable center of defense, communication, commerce and transportation. Until August, 1957, it was the only American territory without an organized Episcopal Church.

As a result of the vision of the Bishop and the loyalty of Episcopal Navy Chaplains who have been stationed on Guam almost continuously before and since the second World War, the work of the Episcopal Church on Guam has now begun. In August of this year the Rev. Richard H. Baker and his family arrived on Guam to begin the organization of our newest mission.

The first service of the mission was held August 11th. The Church was loaned the facilities of a Navy Chapel on Nimitz Hill. Since then Sunday services have been held regularly. Recently an afternoon service was introduced at Andersen Air Force Base while a mid-week service is held at the U.S. Navy Hospital.

The Church on Guam, the Church of St. John the Divine, serves a widespread congregation of both military and civilian population. On the northern tip of the island there is a large Air Force Base while towards the center and southern end there are several Navy installations including the large Naval Station at

The Rev. Richard Baker poses after service with the members of a Baptismal party after the first Christening in the Nimitz Hill Chapel. Left to right are Mr. Porter Lewis, Warden; the Godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dritsche with the two oldest Lewis boys, Evan and David, while Mrs. Lewis holds the newly baptized child, Paul.

Apra Harbor. The center of the civilian population is in and about the capital city, Agana.

A weekly bulletin "The Episcopalian" is published by the Vicar and a staff.

Several parish organizations have already been organized. They include an acolyte guild, altar guild, a chapter of the Woman's Auxiliary, and, of course, the Bishop's Committee. The membership of the latter consists of Mr. Carroll Lewis, Warden; Mr. John Chick, Clerk; Mr. Arbis Shipley, Treasurer. Committeemen are Mr. Carl Le Mont, Mr. Russell Todd; Dr. Fredric Conklin, Capt. Porter Lewis, USN, Lt. Robert Litke, USN; LCDR Don Huddleston, USN; 1st Lt. Spencer Schedler, USAF; and Maj. Gen. Charles Schott, USAF.

The Rev. and Mrs. Richard H. Baker (Elizabeth) have four children—Peter, Katherine, Margaret, and Richard. The fourth was born on Guam at the U.S. Naval Hospital where the Rev. Mr. Baker is also an Associate Member of the Staff. Before coming to Guam, Mr. Baker was the Vicar of St. Martin's in the Fields, Grand Island, N.Y.

Greet New Son

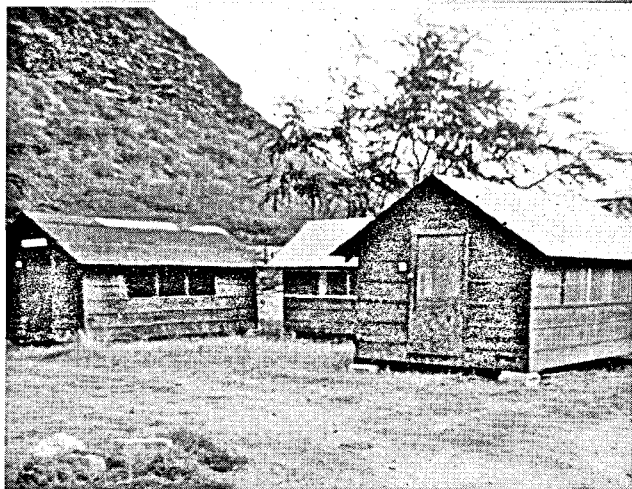

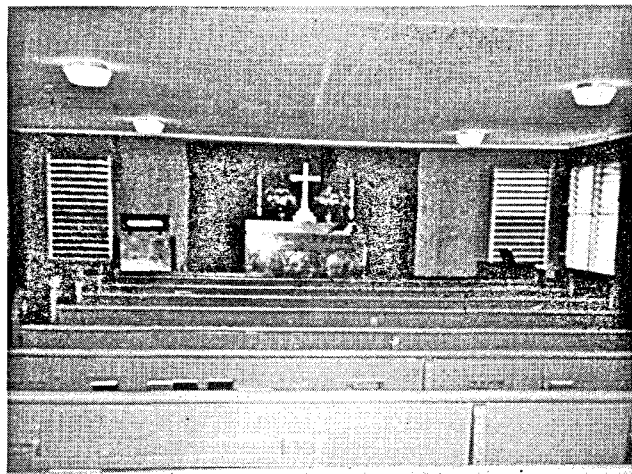

The Reverend and Mrs. Richard H. Baker, of Agana, Guam, are the proud parents of a son, Richard Andrew, born October 17th. He is their second son and fourth child. We welcome him into our Diocesan Family very affectionately and extend congratulations to the entire family.

Greatly Improved

Mrs. Gerald P. Loweth, wife of The Ven. Gerald P. Loweth, of Holy Apostles Church, Hilo, is greatly improved after a critical illness with meningitis. We thank God for her recovery and pray that she will soon be entirely well.

St. Philip's Church, Maili, Oahu. At the right, is pictured the interior of the Church and the buildings moved on to the property for Sunday School classrooms.

St. Philip's Church, Maili, Dedicated

On Sunday, November 3rd, the Bishop dedicated the new St. Philip's Church, Maili, Oahu. He was assisted by the Reverend David P. Coon, Vicar. The new church was completed on the first of October.

The first services for this congregation were held in the Waianae school building by Diocesan clergy and the Vicar of St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa. Finding it difficult to go to Wahiawa from Waianae, Makaha and Nanakuli, the people in these areas asked the Bishop to provide services for them at Waianae. Through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wong, a portion of their property at the corner of Farrington Highway and Milikami Street, Maili, was provided for a temporary structure, until we can acquire our own land. The congregation has worked hard to complete the chapel and to move some buildings, given to us by the Navy, onto the property for Sunday School rooms.

Members of the Bishop's Committee are: Mr. Paul Miller, Senior Warden; Mr. Arthur Liu, Junior Warden; Mrs. Arthur Liu, Secretary, Mr. Robert Davidson, Treasurer; and Mr. D. L. Baker, Mr. George Compton, Mrs. Dixie Jones and Mrs. Edith Sweet.

The Glazebrooks Leave Honolulu

The Rev. and Mrs. Donald Glazebrook, who have spent several months in Honolulu, left for the mainland on November 9th. We extend our sincere Aloha to them and wish to express appreciation for all that they did to help the church while here. Dr. Glazebrook took many services for us, where there were vacancies, and preached for several of our clergy.

Cathedral Thanksgiving Market

The Annual Thanksgiving Market at St. Andrew's Cathedral will be held on Tuesday, November 26th. This will provide everyone with an opportunity to purchase many delectable things for the Thanksgiving dinner and many beautiful gifts for Christmas. Place this date on your calendar as an important one.

To Head Committee for Juvenile Delinquency

The Rev. Dr. Shelton Hale Bishop has been elected to head a civic committee to aid in the elimination of juvenile delinquency in the Islands. He has had much experience in this type of work as rector of St. Philip's Church, New York City, so should render invaluable service to the community as head of the committee.

Mr. Richard Ching breaking the ground for St. Elizabeth's Parish Rectory. The Rev. Canon Wai On Shim and the Rev. Canon Paul R. Savanack watch the breaking of ground with members of St. Elizabeth's Day School.

Ground Breaking Service at St. Elizabeth's

On Monday, October 14, the Reverend Canon Paul R. Savanack, acting for the Bishop, had the Ground Breaking service at St. Elizabeth's Parish for the new rectory, which is under construction. He was assisted by the Rev. Canon Wai On Shim, Rector of the church and Mr. Richard C. Ching, Chairman of the Building Committee.

UTO Fall Ingathering

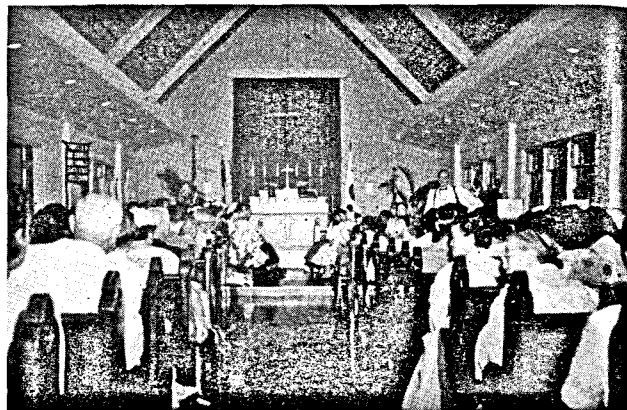

Mrs. Willard Buscher, Diocesan Chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary United Thank Offering, has announced that Sunday, November 24th, all women will place their thank offerings on the altars of our churches.

We, who have so generously received of this offering, should as generously give so that the fine work of the women of our Church can be extended to many areas where assistance is needed.

Returns from the Meeting of the House of Bishops

The Bishop returned on October 26th from attending the meeting of the House of Bishops and from a speaking tour in four dioceses — Kentucky, Rhode Island, Iowa and North Dakota. When in San Francisco, he went to Berkeley to the Church Divinity School of the Pacific to visit with our seminarians.

He also spoke at the Synod of the 6th Province, held in Omaha, Nebraska, on October 16th.

The Bishop preaching at Consecration Service at St. Luke's Church, Honolulu.

St. Luke's Church Consecrated

The fiftieth year of the founding of St. Luke's Church was marked by the Consecration of the Church by the Bishop on Sunday, October 27th, at 9 a.m. He was assisted by the Vicar, the Reverend Paul Kim, and a former Vicar, the Reverend Stephen E. T. Kim, now Vicar of St. Columba's Church, Paauilo, Hawaii, who was the guest of St. Luke's Church for the occasion.

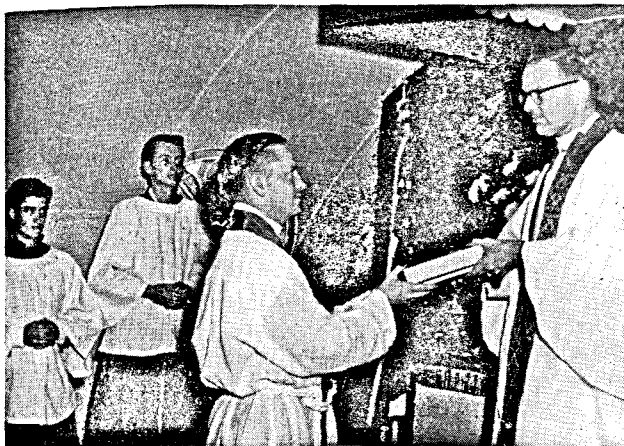

A booklet, "50 Years of St. Luke's Church" was published for the anniversary. Following the service of Consecration a delicious luncheon was served in the Parish Hall.

The congregation of St. Luke's Church was founded by Korean immigrants who left Korea on December 22, 1902, and arrived in Honolulu on January 13, 1903. They formed a group known as Chun Heung Hyup Hoi (Lightning Flourishing Association) so that in a strange land they could find fellowship. They met in a rented room near the corner of South Beretania Street and Alexander Street. The members numbered about fifty. Mrs. E. C. Perry and Deaconess Sands volunteered to teach the members English and paved the way for interesting them in attending St. Elizabeth's Church in 1907. Heading their group was Mr. Sang Ha Park.

Thus was the beginning of a congregation that has grown from rooms to a very humble chapel converted from a cottage on the grounds of St. Elizabeth's Church, and now their own beautiful church of today. We pray that God will strengthen them in their work and worship together.

I cannot tell any man how much to give to church and charity in dollars and cents, for I do not know that much about any man; but I do not have the slightest hesitation in asking a man to give as God has given to him, which is the principle of proportionate giving or tithing.

—by the Rt. Rev. Richard Emrich, S.T.D.

The Rev. Peyton Craighill is installed as Vicar of All Souls Church, Okinawa, by the Rev. Canon William C. Heffner.

Heads Department of Christian Education

The Rev. William R. Grosh Vicar of Calvary Church, Kaneohe, has been appointed head of the Department of Christian Education on the Bishop and Council, to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Gerald G. Gifford, who left for the mainland to accept a call in the Diocese of Southern Ohio.

Episcopal Church Laymen's League Annual Training Conference:

The Laymen's League of the Episcopal Church in Hawaii held its annual fall conference at the Episcopal Conference Center, Mokuleia on Saturday and Sunday, October 12th and 13th.

Key laymen from each parish and mission met and planned laymen's activities for the coming months.

K. L. Ching, diocesan keyman, who recently returned from the provincial conference of laymen of the Pacific or Eighth Province area, was the leader. He was assisted by Mr. Titus Fong, who also attended the conference.

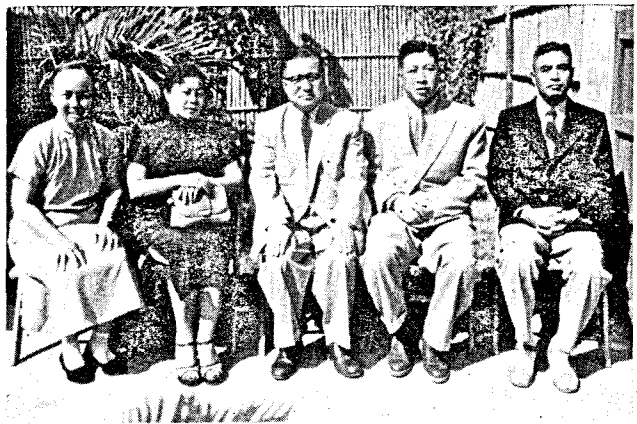

The main topic on the agenda was: "How Can the Laymen Help Their Parishes to be More Truly the People of God?"

The Reverend Paul M. Wheeler, of St. Clement's Church, was the chaplain. He officiated at the services and celebrated Holy Communion at a Corporate Service.

In the last eight years the number of licensed lay readers in the Episcopal Church has doubled, from 5,218 in 1948 to 10,587 in 1956. The number of candidates for Holy Orders in the Episcopal Church has also doubled in the same eight years; 363 in 1948, 748 in 1956.

Taiwan staff of clergy and workers. Seated, left to right are: Mr. P. C. Wang, lay reader; the Rev. John R. Caton, in charge of our work; Mr. Herbert C. M. Yeu, lay reader. Standing, the Rev. Richard S. K. Yoh and the Rev. Mark Y. L. Ma.

Bishop's Committee, Grace Church, Tainan, Taiwan, left to right: Mrs. Milan S. P. Hsi, Mrs. Feng Mei Wang, Judge H. C. Chu, Mr. C. C. Chu, Mr. M. C. Chea.

Congregation of Grace Church, Tainan, Taiwan with the Rev. John R. Caton, Center, who is in charge of our work. The Rev. Mark Ma, left and the Rev. Richard Yoh right are shown also.

—Courtesy Honolulu Advertiser

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Taylor, Hawaii Preparatory Academy, Kamuela, Hawaii, entertain boys in their home at a story hour. Mrs. Taylor serves the boys apples while their Headmaster reads to them.

In Appreciation

All too often laymen in the church do much that receives little recognition for the contribution they make to the life and work of the church. We would like to have our members know of one man who has done much, without such recognition. He is Dr. Joseph Lucas, of St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa. Since the beginning of our church camps at Mokuleia, he has made daily trips to the camp to check on the children to see if medical attention should be given to them. He has become a very beloved part of the camp life of the youngsters. He has done this because of his concern and without remuneration. We are deeply indebted to him because we know that our children are in good hands and are well cared for at all times.

Conducts Preaching Missions

The Rev. Shelton Hale Bishop, S.T.D., has conducted preaching missions for the churches on the Island of Hawaii, at Holy Apostles Church, Hilo, at St. Christopher's Church, Kailua, and will have one at All Saints Church, Kapaa, Kauai, for all the churches on Kauai, the week of November 24th.

Youth Conference to be Held

St. Clement's Parish and St. Peter's Parish will join in a Youth Conference at Mokuleia, on November 29-30, which will be a Bible Study Conference. The Reverend Paul M. Wheeler, Rector of St. Clement's Church, and the Rev. J. Robert Jones, Rector of St. Peter's Church, will lead the group discussions.

Entered Novitiate

Friends of Miss Elda Smith, who was at one time an assistant at St. Mark's Church, Honolulu, having come here after many years as a missionary in China, and who later joined the staff of the Hawaii Episcopal Academy, Kamuela, Hawaii, will be interested to learn that she was clothed as a Novice of the Community of the Transfiguration on Sunday, October 9th, in Bethany Home, Glendale, Ohio. She has taken the name of Sister Magdalene.

Sister Magdalene's good friend from China, Miss Rose Lee, who taught at Epiphany Day School for some time, and who left about three years ago to enter the Sisterhood of the Transfiguration, is now Sister Rebecca Louise.

Christmas Trees

The young people of Holy Nativity Church will welcome orders for Christmas trees. They will be available after December 15th. Any desiring trees may call 32-131. Money from the sale of the trees will go toward the building fund for the Youth Center that will soon be under construction.

Elder's Day Dinner

St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, honored the elders of the parish with a dinner on Sunday, October 20th, in the parish hall. The Very Reverend Paul Roberts was the guest speaker for the occasion. Entertainment was provided by the men of the parish. This is an annual event looked forward to with great anticipation by the elders and members of the parish. Mr. Robert Wong was the Master of Ceremonies and introduced the guests.

To Hold Bazaar and Carnival

St. John's-by-the-Sea Mission, Kahaluu, Oahu, will hold a Bazaar and Carnival on November 22nd to raise money for the construction of a Community Hall to be known as Hookano Memorial Pavilion. It will be in memory of Charles Hookano, who was for many years a devout and beloved Lay Reader in the Mission.

Conducts Services on Molokai

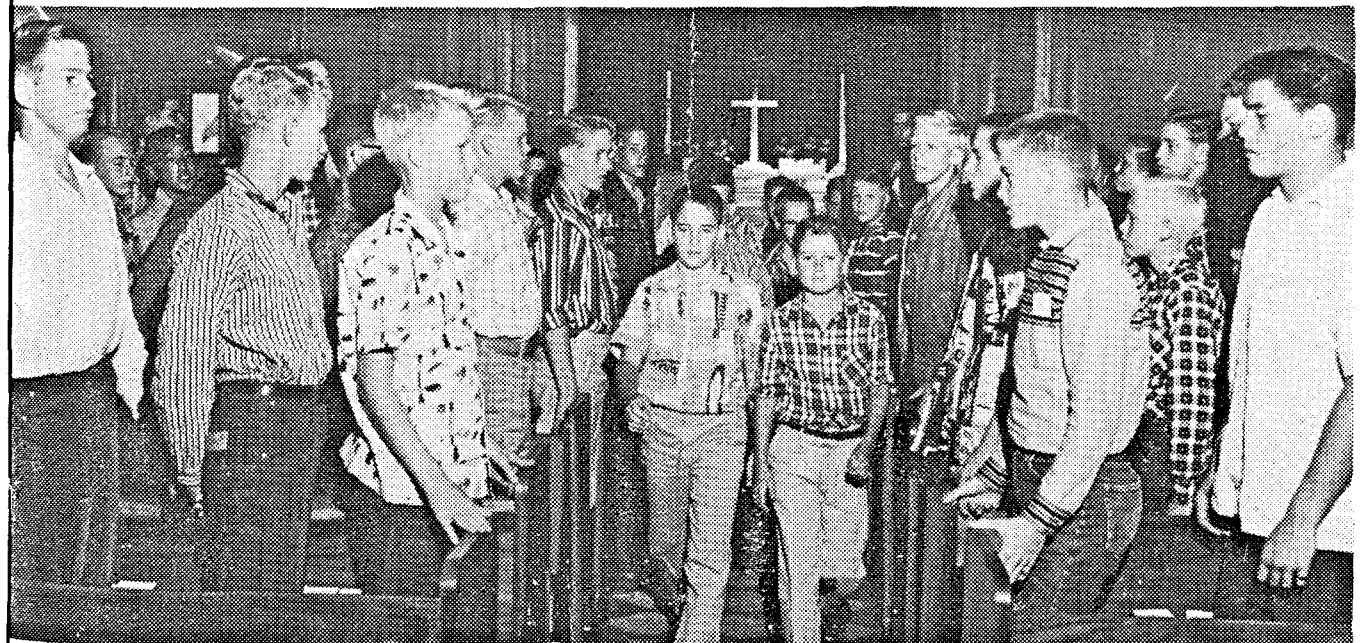

The Reverend Robert Stretch, a member of the faculty at Iolani School in the Department of Christian Education, conducted services of Holy Communion at Grace Church, Molokai, and at the Leper Colony at Kalaupapa, on October 27th.

Returns To Honolulu For A Visit

The Rev. Y. Sang Mark, former Rector of St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, until his retirement in 1951, returned to Honolulu for a six-weeks' vacation with friends and relatives. He has lived in Los Angeles since 1954 with his wife, who is the sister of the Rev. Wai On Shim. He has been helping at St. John's Episcopal Church in that city and at the John Wesley County Hospital as Chaplain. His many friends in Hawaii were pleased to see him and his wife.

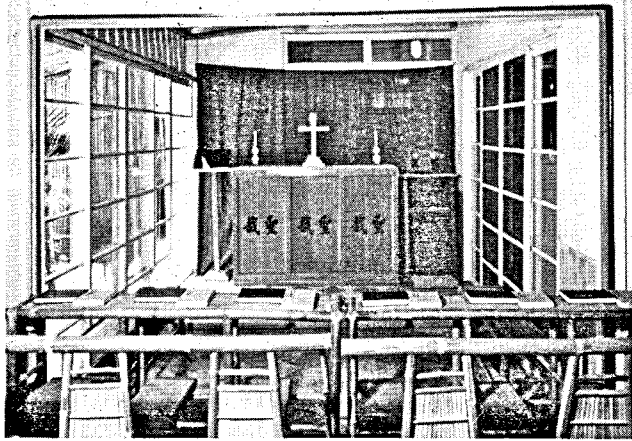

Christian Social Relations

The National Council of our Church urges that foreign students attending the University of Hawaii be extended a welcome by our members. Especially would they desire members to invite them into their homes for the holidays. The Rev. Canon Norman C. Ault will be happy to provide names to any desiring them.

—Courtesy Honolulu Advertiser

Daily Services are held in the Chapel for the Academy boys by the Vicar of St. James Church, The Rev. George F. Hayashi. Here they are shown leaving the Chapel.

Grace Chapel at Tainan, Taiwan, set up in a home of one of the families. This is our newest work on Taiwan.

A Beloved Saint of the Diocese Dies

Mr. Thomas John Hollander, one of the most beloved members of the Diocesan Family passed into life eternal on October 15, 1957, after a short illness at Queen's Hospital.

He came to Honolulu in 1932, after serving 38 years as a missionary in Hong Kong and Shanghai, China. He served as our Diocesan Treasurer for twenty-five years, retiring at the age of 80 years. At that time he was given the Bishop's Distinguished Service Cross for his outstanding contribution to the Diocese. He would have been 93 years of age on November 14th.

After serving as Diocesan Treasurer, he continued to live in his small cottage in Emma Square and the Cathedral Close. He became the "Diocesan Treasure", slipping into the offices in the Cathedral Close to see if there were ways in which he might help. He was a messenger of the Lord, as he liked to term himself, doing important things for everyone that would have taken them away from the busyness of the offices.

His gentle, sweet way brought light into the lives of everyone. He was never known to speak an unkind word to anyone. He befriended the friendless, holding out his hand to those who had fallen or would fall—never too busy to stop and care for the most unfortunate of souls. He let his light so shine that he walked among us as a true example of our Lord. He lived so for God and His Son that his sole purpose in life was to exemplify Them.

He was born in Sweden and was the survivor of seven sons of a Swedish farm family, who emigrated to Nebraska in the early 1890's. When he left Sweden with his brothers at the age of 18, he spoke only his native tongue. He learned English in Nebraska and in China he mastered the Mandarin Chinese, in which language he also sang.

Funeral services were held in St. Clement's Church, conducted by the Very Rev. James S. Cox, Dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral, and the Rev. Paul M. Wheeler, Rector of St. Clement's Church. The clergy on Oahu, in tribute to his life as a "living Apostle" were in procession, vested. His ashes were buried in the Chapel of Peace, at St. Clement's Church, with those of his wife.

Our deep sympathy is extended to his daughter, Mrs. Grace Littlejohn, and to his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Walter J. Hollander.

May he go from strength to strength in the service of Him, for whom he dedicated his life. We know that he was one of whom it can truly be said, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

For Parents Only

THINKING that three hours at any movie are harmless for the child, but that two hours of Church and Sunday School are too much for his nervous system, is just bad thinking.

GIVING him a nickel for the collection and fifty cents for the movies not only shows a parent's sense of values, but is also likely to produce a proportionate giver.

LETTING him listen to several hours of radio and television thrillers a day with no time for a short prayer and a few Bible verses is criminal unbalance.

BEING careful that Junior has his week day lessons, and caring not that he knows his Sunday school lessons make for spiritual illiteracy.

SAYING that a child must make his own decisions as to whether or not he should go to Church or to what Church, is shirking parental responsibility.

WHEN FATHER spends Sunday morning in mowing the lawn, cleaning the garden, washing the car or playing golf, his sons are left to walk alone.

WHEN PARENTS idle away Sunday morning in reading the paper or listening to the radio, while brother and sister are sent by themselves to church, something happens to the children's evaluation of church attendance.

WHAT A MAN SOWETH — THAT SHALL HE ALSO REAP. — Selected.

Hawaiian Church Chronicle

SUCCESSOR TO THE ANGLICAN CHURCH CHRONICLE

Official organ of the Missionary District of Honolulu of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States

Entered as second-class matter February 14, 1908, at the post office at Honolulu, Hawaii, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THE RT. REV. HARRY S. KENNEDY, D.D., S.T.D., Editor
KATHERINE M. MORTON,
ASSISTANT EDITOR

THE HAWAIIAN CHURCH CHRONICLE is published once in each month, except July and August. The subscription price is One Dollar a year. Remittances, orders and other business communications should be addressed to Bishop's Office, Queen Emma Square, Honolulu 13, T. H.