Hilo Hit Hard by Tidal Wave

Everyone has read of the devastation caused by the tidal wave that recently hit Hawaii, and more especially Hilo. Our Holy Apostles church was not damaged in any way. We did have one member of the mission lose his life, and many families were left homeless.

The Venerable Gerald P. Loweth, Archdeacon of Hawaii and Vicar of Holy Apostles Church, worked very hard in the cleaning up process and search for lost victims. He was in charge of the morgue and did much to give comfort and assistance to those who suffered the effects of the wave. Our prayers are with these people. We know it will be many months before Hilo will recover from the damage.

To Start New Mission

Under the direction of the Reverend Claude F. Du Teil, the Reverend Ivor J. Torgerson, Jr., will start services for a new mission on the Windward side of Oahu, about July 24th. The services will be held in the Maunawili School, near the Olomana Housing area. We sincerely hope that this mission will grow so rapidly that we can begin to make plans for the building of a chapel on our plot of land at the Waimanalo Junction.

The Reverend Edmond L. Browning, Vicar of All Souls Church, Okinawa, the American Congregation, preaching in the Church.

Clerical Changes

The Reverend Jefferson C. Stephens, Jr., Vicar of St. John's Mission, Kula, Maui, will join the staff of Iolani School as a member of the Department of Religious Education. He will also help with chapel services and do some coaching. The Reverend Robert N. Stretch, who has been teaching at Iolani School for the past three years in the same department, will succeed Mr. Stephens at St. John's Church.

The Reverend Grosvenor M. Needham, former rector of Christ Church, Ottawa, Illinois, is going to take the place of the Reverend Richard B. Baker, on Guam. The Reverend Mr. Baker will be Director of Sacred Studies at Iolani School.

The Reverend Joseph Turnbull and his family are leaving the Islands after ten years of every fine service. He served as Vicar at St. Augustine's Church, Kohala, Hawaii and then became Vicar of St. Mark's Mission, Honolulu, where he has been for the past seven years. We regret very much to have this fine family leave our Islands, but wish them every success and joy in the new work they will be doing. He is to be rector of Emmanuel Church, Lancaster, Wisconsin. Our warm Aloha goes with them.

The Reverend Joseph H. Pummill, Assistant Rector of Trinity Church, Santa Barbara, California, will arrive with his wife and two children, a son eleven and daughter one year, on June 30th. He will become Vicar of St. Mark's Church.

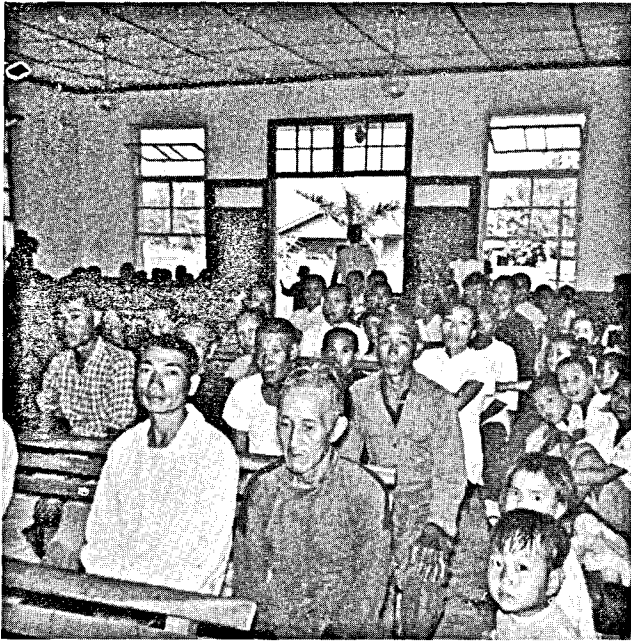

The Reverend George H. Quarterman, Jr., and his wife left on June 6th for Travis Field, California, where he is to be stationed as a Chaplain in the Air Force. He has been Curate at St. Andrew's Cathedral for the past year. We bid them farewell with our warm Aloha.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ling with their children Moses, Dorcas and June. Mr. Ling, a graduate engineer in Taiwan is giving up his profession to study for the ministry.

Staff Members on Taiwan: Seated: The Venerable Richard Yoh, Mrs. Wong, An-veng Loh, Mrs. Chen, Ming-teh Chang. Standing: Samuel Tai-Tung Chen, The Reverend Mark Ma, The Reverend Peyton Craighill, The Reverend Herbert Yen, John Ling, Judge Hao-Jan Chu, Mr. Yang.

Most of the Congregation are refugees from the Tachen Islands.

St. Paul's Church, Kaohsiung, Taiwan where chapel is made in a store building, on the second floor. A Confirmation Class is presented to the Bishop by Archdeacon Richard Yoh.

The Reverend Graham Liao, Taiwan, still loves to attend services, although retired.

Baptismal Shell for St. Barnabas Church

The Reverend Richard H. Baker, former Vicar of St. John the Divine Church, Agana, Guam, brought a beautiful shell from the Palau Islands as a gift to St. Barnabas Church, Ewa Beach, for a baptismal font. It will be placed on a pedestal for this purpose. We are deeply grateful for the gift. It is a Giant Clam Shell.

Visiting Clergy

The Reverend George W. R. MacCray, head of the Speakers Division of National Council, will be at Epiphany Church, Honolulu, while the Reverend Burton Linscott is on furlough. We shall be pleased to see him again in Hawaii. He visited the Islands at the time of General Convention.

The Reverend Martin H. Knutsen, of Trinity Church, Sonoma, California, will exchange pulpits and rectory with the Reverend Richard H. Kirchhoffer, Jr., St. Timothy's Church, Aiea, for the month of August.

Advisory Committee

The following have been appointed as an Advisory Committee for St. Andrew's Priory: The Reverend E. Lani Hanchett, Chairman, Mr. Henry F. Budd, Mrs. Keith Ware, Mr. Claude D. Steffenhagan, Mrs. George Townsend, Mr. Thomas Kamioka, Sister Evelyn Ancilla, C. T., and Sister Lucy Caritas, C. T.

Aioki-San reading a service to the Leper people at Airaku-en, Okinawa. He is our devoted Lay Reader at the House of Prayer.

Seminarian Assists With Our Summer Camps

John Liu, who has completed his first year at The Church Divinity School of the Pacific, arrived in Honolulu on May 31st to assist in preparations with our summer camps. We are delighted that he could come to the Islands for the summer, knowing that he will not only be a great help to us, but that this experience will be a great one for him.

Accepts Small Church

The Reverend Paul R. Savanack, former rector of St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, has recovered sufficiently from his recent illness to accept a call to a small church, St. James', Bucyrus, Ohio. We wish him every joy in this new assignment.

Go on Furlough

Sister Evelyn Ancilla, Superior at St. Andrew's Priory, and Sister Lois Mary will go on furlough this year. Both will return to the Mother House in Glendale, Ohio.

Diocesan Clothing Drive

All the missions and parishes of the Diocese are in the midst of a concerted effort to collect clothing for the refugees of Taiwan. This annual drive will be completed in mid-June. Capt. Steere, USN, COMSERVPAC, a communicant of St. George's has arranged for clothing from churches on the outer Islands to be picked up and delivered to St. George's for final storage before the Navy takes the shipment to Taiwan.

The refugee problem in Taiwan is severe. Through the work of the Episcopal Church there under Canon Gilson, the clothing will be distributed to villages where the need is greatest. The theme "The clothes they need are in your closet" holds great truth, for many of us can give usable, clean, mended clothes no longer in use. Clothes for infants, children and men and women are needed and ought to be brought to your mission or parish promptly. Blankets are also in great need. Items that cannot be used in Taiwan are shoes, hats, ties, bathing suits, or handbags.

—The Rev. Roger Melrose
World Relief Secretary

The Reverend and Mrs. Luke Kimoto, in charge of the Leper work on Okinawa, entertain the Bishop at dinner. The Reverend Peter Shinjo and Mrs. Kimoto's sister are also guests.

Parish Hall Dedication

Holy Trinity Church, Honolulu, will have the dedication of the new parish hall on Sunday, June 26th, at 9 A.M. The dedication will follow a service of Confirmation. We are pleased that this mission has this attractive new building, which has been so badly needed for some time.

New Art Room at St. Andrew's Priory

A most attractive addition to St. Andrew's Priory is the new art room. It has been completely redecorated and renovated, filling a much needed addition.

Honored By His Congregation

The Reverend Yim Sang Mark, former rector of St. Peter's Church before his retirement in 1952, was recently honored by the congregation of St. John's Church, Los Angeles, California, on the occasion of the celebration of his fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. He is now doing pastoral work at St. John's Church, assisting the clergy there.

The Reverend Mr. Mark, a native of China, was ordained by the Bishop of Auckland in 1910. He became rector of St. Peter's Church in 1928, going there from Tonga. He had gone there with the Anglican Bishop of Honolulu, Bishop Willis, to help start an Anglican Church there. He attended Iolani School in Honolulu, having come to Hawaii with his parents from China, at the age of six. He started his "retirement" work at St. John's in 1954.

We are pleased his people honored him on this memorable occasion in his life.

The Reverend William Hio, St. John's Church, Nago, Okinawa, instructs home workers who make supplies for the craft shop.

St. John's Craft Shop, Okinawa

The Reverend William Hio, seeing the needs of many widowed women in and about St. John's Church, Nago, Okinawa, started a tiny craft shop in one of the rooms of the Church, helping needy women to earn a little money in order to feed their families.

Through showing them how to help themselves, he has also taught them the influence of the life of our Lord. It has been an amazing work that he has accomplished with these women. He now has over 100 women making beautiful gifts for the Craft Shop. Their sales have extended throughout the United States. The women can make up to $2.00 per day, which is a very good wage in Okinawa.

He learned to weave so that he might teach them. He now has twenty-five looms busy all day. The stoles, skirts, mats that are woven are most attractive. Through their small profits they have built a new craft shop, which was dedicated by the Bishop on his recent visit to Okinawa.

The Reverend Mr. Hio is on furlough in New York this summer, but expects to visit textile schools to gain more ideas for the shop. Women who cannot come to the shop and work are allowed to make things at home, so they can receive an income for their work. It has been a real venture, for which he has been commended by the officials of Okinawa, as well as the Church.

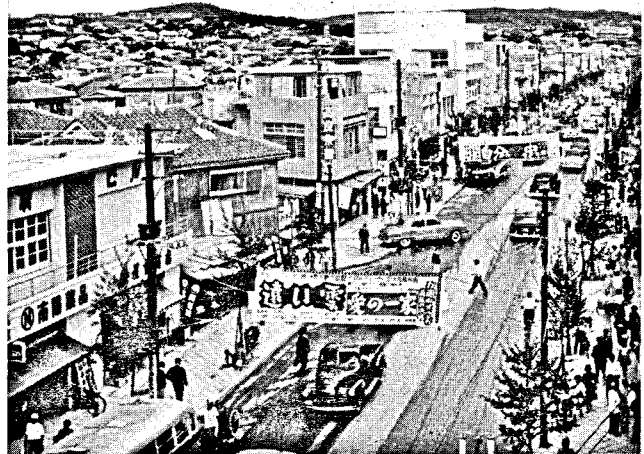

There are two kinds of men who never amount to much—those who cannot do what they are told, and those who can do nothing else.

We'll See You in September

No more issues of the Chronicle until September, so do not wonder why you are not getting your July and August numbers. There are always those who write to see what has happened to their copies—so remember we do not go to press during July and August.

Plans Being Laid for Hundredth Anniversary

"It is more important that we look ahead rather than look behind." This was Bishop Kennedy's opening remark to the Committee for the Hundredth Anniversary at its first meeting, held in early June.

The Committee at present consists of Archdeacon Charles Crane, Kapaa, Kauai, and the Reverend Messrs. Claude Du Teil and Lani Hanchett, of Oahu. As the time for the 1962 observation draws nearer additional members will be added.

Tentative plans have been made for a year-long celebration, probably revolving around four or more major events. The Committee hopes to have activities at Convocation time, mid-Spring, Whitsunday, early Fall, and Advent.

It is hoped that a history of the Diocese, now being prepared by the Reverend C. Fletcher Howe, will be ready for printing by early 1962. A suggestion was made that the Convocation edition of the Hawaiian Church Chronicle be expanded into a special souvenir program edition.

The Committee earnestly solicits your suggestions. You may phone or write the Chairman, Mr. Du Teil, or contact the Bishop's Office.

St. Barnabas Church Has New Rectory

St. Barnabas Church, Ewa Beach, has a new rectory, which will be in readiness for the Reverend Covy Edward Blackmon and his wife on their arrival on June 25th. He is to be the Vicar of this mission.

Receives Master of Arts Degree

The Reverend Burton L. Linscott, Vicar of Epiphany Church, Honolulu, was granted his Master of Arts Degree from the University of Hawaii at its recent Commencement exercises.

He has done an outstanding work in the Diocese with his day schools. Epiphany Day School is growing rapidly and under his leadership enjoys a fine new educational classroom building.

We congratulate him on this new honor. His accomplishment had to be discovered by reading it in the newspaper!
