St. Andrew's Priory Centennial Observance

At 7:30 p.m. in St. Andrew's Cathedral on the eve of Ascension Day, May 3rd, a festival Evensong with sermon was held to commemorate the occasion. Following Evensong a reception was held in Davies Hall so that the congregation could meet honored guests among whom were The Rev. Mother Edith Mary of the Society of the Holy Trinity, Ascot Priory, Birkshire, England (it was Sisters of this Community who founded the Priory and staffed it for many years) and her companion Sister; The Rev. Mother Esther Mary of the Community of the Transfiguration; Sister Olivia Mary, first Transfiguration Sister Superior of the Priory; and Dom Anthony Damron of the American Anglican Benedictines.

ASCENSION DAY EUCHARIST was held in the Cathedral at 9 a.m. on May 4th with Bishop Kennedy as the celebrant. Following the Eucharist the student body, faculty and other members of the congregation processed to the Priory Main Building court for a commemorative service at the Coral Cross which was decorated with flowers by the girls of the Priory Junior Class. Refreshments were served following this ceremony.

Returns For Priory Celebration

We have all been delighted to have Deaconess Sarah Swinburne return to Honolulu for the St. Andrew's Priory Centennial Celebration. She is now living in retirement in San Francisco. Her many friends in Honolulu rejoice that she could return for this occasion.

Episcopal Young Churchmen

Under the direction of the Reverend Fred G. Minuth, Rector of St. Timothy's Parish, Aiea, Oahu, the Episcopal Young Churchmen have started regular meetings and have shown much enthusiasm regarding their program. They have organized their center under the name of "Depot," taking on the train motif. They will hold their meetings either at the Diocesan House or the old offices of the Bishop.

Assisting the Rev. Mr. Minuth in this work are: The Rev. Messrs.: David K. Kennedy, Richard Chang, William Reeves, Hollis Maxson and John Engelcke.

All young people of high school age are urged to join this group, who plan to meet every other Sunday.

The Bishop And Council

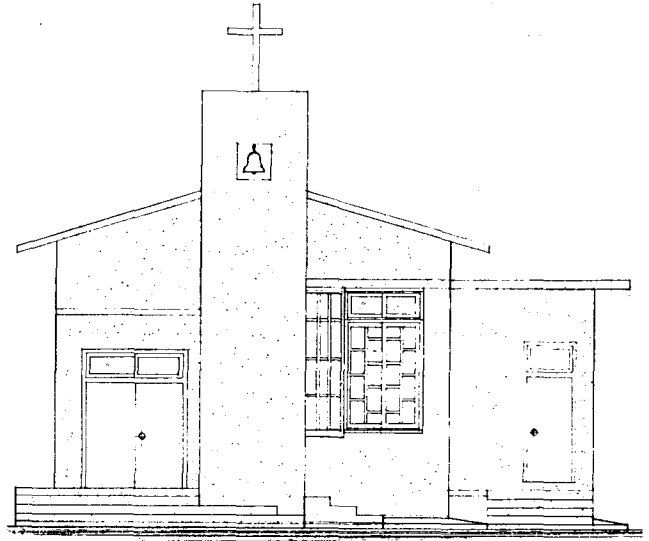

Following the instructions of Convocation and the change in the Canon concerning Bishop and Council, a new Bishop and Council has been formed. A group of the Diocesan Planning Committee presented recommendations to the Bishop and there are now six departments: Finance, Christian Education, Christian Social Relations, Mission Strategy and Extension, Communications, and the Department of Building and Grounds. Each department will have subdivisions.

Holds Clergy Retreat

Dom Anthony Damron, OSB, was the leader of a Clergy Retreat at Mokuleia May 8-11. He was one of the special guests for the St. Andrew's Priory Centennial observance.

PLANS FOR St. James' Mission, Taira, Miyako, Okinawa.

To Help On Guam

The Reverend Thomas R. Heimann, who for the past four years has been Chaplain at St. Andrew's Priory and an assistant priest at St. Peter's Church, holding services for the Holy Cross Mission at Malaekahana, will leave the middle of June for Guam, where he will assist with services and in the school of St. John the Divine.

We know that his help is greatly needed by the Rev. Jordan B. Peck, Jr. Being in seminary together they are very close friends, which will make the association a very happy one for them.

We wish him Godspeed in the new work he will be doing.

THE REV. PETER SHINJO standing on the site of St. James' Mission.

The Island Of Miyako

On the Island of Miyako, Okinawa, we have St. James' Mission outside of the Hansen Disease Colony. The Reverend Peter Shinjo is in charge.

We have been using the rooms of an old medical clinic for the chapel. We also have an orphanage where we care for children of parents who are patients living in the colony.

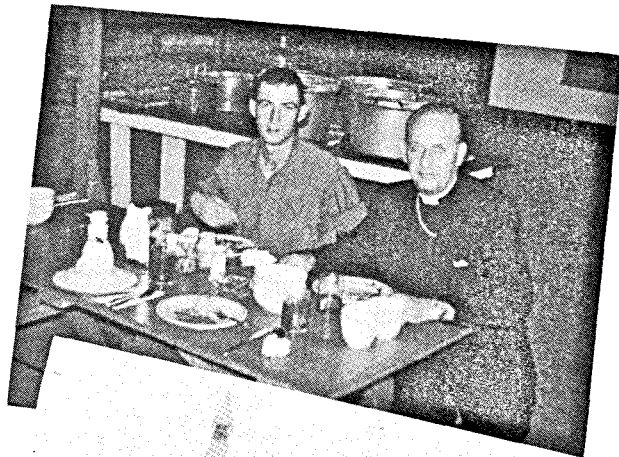

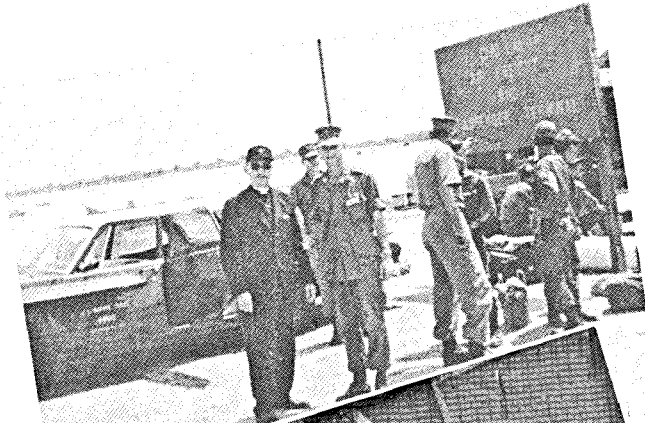

We now need to expand the work for other purposes, thus the rooms we are using for church services will no longer be available nor adequate.

These devoted people have raised $4,000 over a long period of time. They now need $3,000 more in order to erect a $7,000 church. They have the plans drawn and are ready to go ahead. Some of the work will be done by our lay people.

Our MRI program in Honolulu has accepted the responsibility of raising the $3,000 to complete the cost. Opportunities will be given to our people in Hawaii to contribute to this fund. We hope that all will respond generously to help provide a proper place of worship for this new, young group of Christians of Okinawan ancestry.

New Diocesan Key Layman

Mr. John Kim, a member of Holy Nativity Church, was elected Key Layman for the Diocese at a meeting of the Laymen held at the home of the Bishop on April 19th. This was a supper meeting.

Extends Service

Captain Victor H. Krulak, Jr. has extended his service in Vietnam for six months. He is with the First Medical Battalion (Rear) in Chu Lai. During the first quarter he made 9,000 calls in the hospitals, which is approximately two per day on each patient.

The Bishop had a good visit with him on his recent trip to Vietnam. He feels that "Vic" is doing a magnificent job with his men.

The Bishop says that Vietnam has greatly improved militarily. The men get a great spirit of dedication after they have been there awhile, even if they do not have it when they arrive. The Pacification program is moving, but slowly. The health of the people seems to be improving. He feels that no one can predict the end.

SAMPLE SAFE CONDUCT leaflet, emblazoned with the flags of the Free World Forces, United States, Australia, South Vietnam, Korea and New Zealand, fighting against the Communist Viet Cong and North Vietnam Regulars, the leaflet translated reads: "Safe conduct pass to be honored by all Vietnamese Agencies and Allied Forces."

Killed In Vietnam

Captain Cornelius Lau, former Senior Warden of St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa, and a member of the 25th Division, was killed the Monday in Holy Week in Vietnam.

The Rev. Howard B. Kishpaugh, Rector of St. Stephen's, paid high tribute to him.

He joined the Infantry in 1949 as an enlisted man and rose to the ranks of Captain. He served with distinction during the Korean conflict and during the other years was a very fine leader of men.

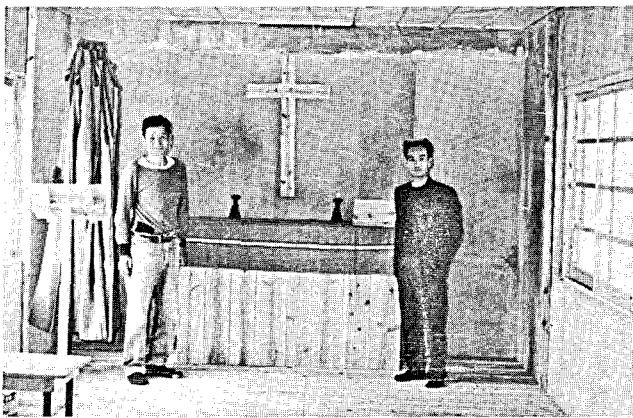

The Rev. Mr. Kishpaugh presented him and his children to the Bishop for Confirmation. He made his communion every Sunday, Holy Day and every day during Lent.

He helped the mission become a parish and found no work too great for him to undertake. from laying tile, painting the rectory, etc.

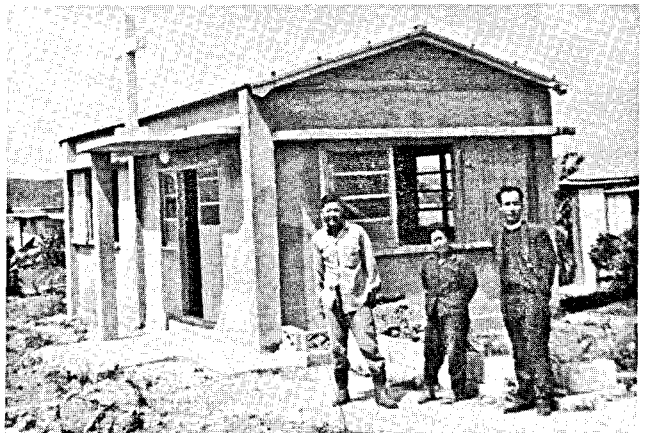

"He died the way he wanted to die, since he wangled duty in Vietnam. He died for something good—loving God, his family and country and freedom so much. He was buried at Punchbowl."

Executive Office Member Visits Islands

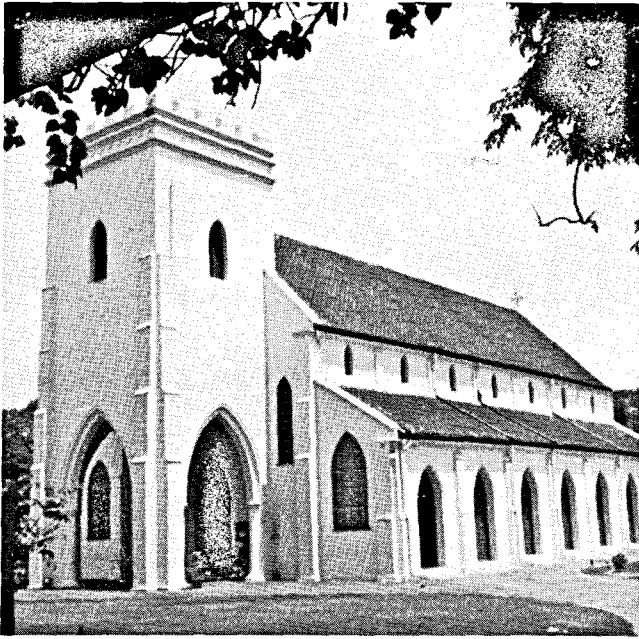

The Rev. Edmund Partridge, Associate Director of Laymen's Work of the Executive Council in New York, was in Honolulu from April 25th to the 29th. He was the guest of the clergy for a luncheon meeting at the Diocesan House on April 25th. He held meetings with small groups of laymen on Oahu and the neighbor islands, giving valuable suggestions.

To Be New Vicar Of St. Mary's Mission

The Rev. Canon Eugene B. Connell, of St. Andrew's Cathedral, will assume his duties as the new Vicar of St. Mary's on June 1st. He has been at the Cathedral for four years and has been the Diocesan Director of Christian Education.

A new rectory has been purchased for the Connells by the Diocese at 3750 Mariposa Drive.

Canon Connell succeeds the Rev. Morimasa Kaneshiro, who is now Archdeacon of Kauai and Rector of All Saints Parish, Kapaa.

To Be Ordained

Mr. Donald P. Giddings, of The Church Divinity School of the Pacific, will be ordained by the Bishop on May 24th, at 7:30 p.m., in St. Alban's Church, Albany, Calif.

The Reverend Norman C. Mealy will be the preacher; the Reverend Preston T. Kelsey, Presenter; the Reverend Samuel M. Garrett, Litanist; the Reverend B. B. Vincent Lyons, Jr., Epistoler.

Seminarians from Honolulu, Winston W. Ching, Franklin Chun, Rudolph A. Duncan, Donn H. Brown and Charles Halter will usher. Richard R. Simpson will be the Bishop's Chaplain.

If General Convention Approves

Okinawa will become a missionary diocese, if the General Convention in Seattle approves. They are presenting a petition for this. The Bishop, the Rt. Rev. James C. L. Wong, of Taiwan, and the Rt. Rev. Anson P. Stokes, of Massachusetts, are on the Presiding Bishop's Committee for nominations for the first bishop of the new missionary diocese.

Gives Generous Gift To Former Church

The Reverend Richard H. Baker, Rector of Trinity Memorial Church, Warren, Pennsylvania, and former Vicar of St. John the Divine Church, Agana, Guam, wrote the Bishop that his vestry has appropriated $6,000 for the new church building on Guam.

The Rev. Mr. Baker was the first resident priest on Guam and wrought an excellent work in the three years that he was there. We are indebted to him for his continued interest in this work.

Benefactress Of Holy Apostles Church, Hilo, Dies

Mrs. C. C. Kennedy (Laura V.) died in the Hilo Hospital after a long illness on April 18th. Services were held in the Church with the Ven. William R. Grosh and the Rev. Albert J. Collins conducting it.

Mrs. Kennedy gave $60,000 to complete the new church and $20,000 for the pipe organ. She also paid $16,000 to have it installed.

Mr. Stanley Kennedy, of Honolulu, is the nephew of her late husband.

Prominent Layman Dies

Mr. Hugh Tennent, a devoted member of St. Andrew's Cathedral, entered life eternal on April 15th, following heart surgery. He had retired from active business, but maintained his deep interest in Iolani School as a member of the Board of Governors. He established the Tennent Art Foundation for the famous paintings of his wife, Madge, who survives him. He is also survived by Mr. Val Tennent, a dedicated layman of St. Clement's Church, Honolulu. Deep sympathy is extended to his family.

New Caretakers

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Manning are the new caretakers at the Conference Center at Mokuleia, Oahu. Many have reported that they are most cooperative and helpful. We are delighted to welcome them as part of our Diocesan staff.

New Hymnals And Prayer Books

We are grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brodhead, members of St. Clement's Church, Honolulu, and members of our MRI Committee who visited Okinawa in the early stages of our companionship with Okinawa, and who have through the Brodhead Memorial Fund placed entirely new sets of Hymnals and Prayer Books in many of our churches.

Visitors From "Keep"

The Reverend Mitsuji Muto and Mr. Kunio Koshigawa, from KEEP—Kiyosato Educational Experiment Project, Japan—visited Honolulu for a few days. They were here in the interest of KEEP, which is an unusual and extensive program started by Paul Rusch. It has meant much to the people in Japan.

Sympathy Extended

We extend deep sympathy to the Reverend E. Lani Hanchett, of St. Peter's Church, Honolulu, in the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary Hanchett Rice, and to the Reverend William Reeves, of Iolani School, in the death of his father, William Reeves. He was called to Connecticut because of his father's serious illness. Mrs. Hanchett died in Honolulu.

Island-wide Meeting of Women

On May 25 at St. Peter's Church there will be an island-wide meeting for Episcopal Churchwomen of Hawaii. It will begin with Holy Communion at 9:30 a.m. The United Thank Offering ingathering will be taken at the service.

A workshop on the purpose of General Convention will be held. Hugh Shearer, the chancellor of our Diocese, will be the guest speaker. He is one of the lay delegates to the General Convention in Seattle. There will be a question and answer period after his talk.

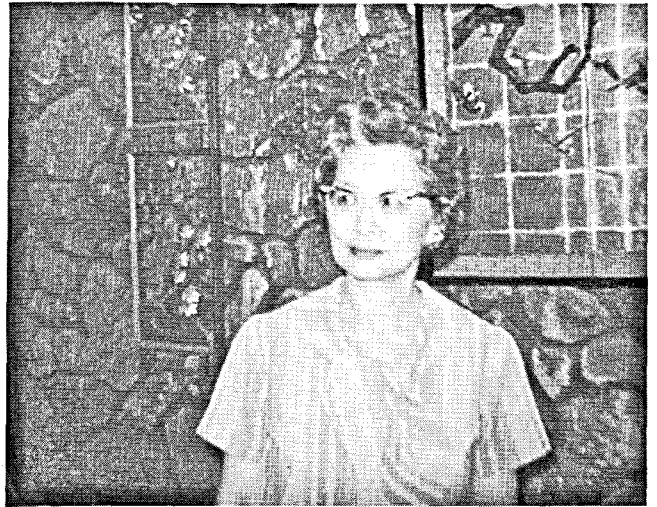

"Mindful of the demands placed upon us as Christians in a world torn by hate, separateness and the struggle for a new life and meaning."

What is women's work?

What are our goals and objectives?

What structure do we need?

With this in mind, the group will be broken into small buzz groups, in hope the women will voice their thoughts and our delegates can express their wishes at General Convention.

MRS. TIM CHONG (JULIET) YOUNG, new President of the Episcopal Churchwomen in Hawaii. She is a member of St. Elizabeth's Church, Honolulu.

Work Camps In Okinawa

From six to ten young adults will go to Okinawa this summer for our MRI in work camps. They will build a road to our preaching station on the Island of Miyako and paint the new chapel. This will take two weeks.

They will then go to St. Matthew's Church, Oroku, for four weeks of work.

The Diocese will pay fifty percent of the transportation for the young people. Okinawa will be responsible for their hospitality while there.

HAROLD PAUL MORIN, JR. presented by Lay Reader Robert E. Board for confirmation in Thailand.

Yes, He Is

What is God?

Or

Should I ask if God's dead?

Well, no, but—but He's dying.

Once again—What is God?

He is—the omnipotent being the Divine Creator

the Trinity.

But people worship many different gods.

Mr. Jones (the god next door)

Money (the god of green)

God in a pipe or a pill

God in a blue uniform.

But there is really only one God.

People supposedly worship God in many varied places:

On the golf course

In church (mostly at Easter and Christmas)

At a ball game.

However, the question is not:

Are you able to?

rather

Do you, honestly?

Why are there many sects?

People want and need order

People want pomp and ceremony.

In short:

People want to physically identify.

That's why there's candles.

People stay until they're blown out because God lives in the candles—spiritually.

He doesn't leave till they're blown out.

(Don't spread the secret, but—Abraham didn't have candles at his altar—but God was surely there.)

God's in the flowers.

Why not, he made them.

He made everything.

He's in the altar, too.

God's in the offering plates.

They spread his word.

When his word stops, he stops, cold.

And the Cross—

Yes, God's on the cross.

Today, too.

Just as much as on Calvary.

Only then He was dying from without.

—Today it's from within.

Christ doesn't only live in a Church.

—Actually, His cathedral is in men's hearts.

True faith is his Gospel,

and true Love his dogma.

Bishop Bayne Reports On MRI

Bishop Bayne, reporting to the Executive Council of the National Church, offered the following encouraging comments as reported by the Episcopalian Magazine: "At present, 86 dioceses are engaged in MRI projects in cooperation with 61 overseas dioceses in 10 sister Churches and two regional councils of the Anglican Communion. In 1966, 147 projects, 88 of them new commitments, were promised support or supported. In terms of money, Episcopalians gave $1,841,247 in 1966 for MRI-related work. "While the dollar value is significant," Bishop Bayne said, "the number of dioceses represented is far more significant. It means that to nearly all our dioceses, a new door into mutual responsibility and interdependence has been opened."

The Marks Of A Christian Family

The Christian family:

1. Seeks to live by the teaching and example of Jesus Christ.
2. Joins in the worship of Almighty God on Sundays in church.
3. Joins in common prayer and Bible reading and grace at meals.
4. Is forgiving one to another and accepts responsibility for each other.
5. Shares together in common task and recreation.
6. Uses abilities, time, and possessions responsibly in society.
7. Is a good neighbor, hospitable to friend and stranger.
