34th annual convention scheduled Oct. 25-26

By Sandy Souza

Come and join us at the 34th annual Meeting of the Convention on Friday, Oct. 25 at St. Andrew's Cathedral and Saturday, Oct. 26 at the Sheraton Waikiki Hotel.

Registration for the convention begins at noon on Friday at St. Andrew's. The annual meeting will convene at 2:30 p.m., following a 1 p.m. Eucharist. Bishop Richard S.O. Chang will address the convention, speaking on "The Mission of the Church." The convention will recess at 5:30 p.m., followed by a reception at the cathedral.

On Saturday, registration begins at 7:30 a.m. at the Sheraton Waikiki. The convention reconvenes at 8 a.m. in the Maui Ballroom of the hotel. Convention exhibits open that morning.

The convention banquet will be held at noon in the Kauai Ballroom, and the convention will reconvene at 2 p.m., with a scheduled adjournment at 4 p.m.

Observers and guests are welcome at the convention, but registration is required. You may register on the day of the convention if you are an observer or guest.

Convention information and forms are available from your delegates or clergy and on the diocesan intranet at www.lanakila.org.

Remember to adhere to all deadlines by looking at the information mailed out to all delegates and clergy.

For information about diocesan elections and some of the candidates for those offices, please see page C of this edition of The Chronicle.

Discerning ministry and vocation

Dear Friends in Christ,

There were many unexpected events during our sabbatical. We had planned informal visits with Dee's English cousins from Devonshire. But upon our arrival in London we were invited to the ordination of the Rev. James Morrish to the priesthood at Wells Cathedral in England (see photo, page E). James is son of Dee's cousin, one of fourteen ordained to the priesthood on that Saturday afternoon.

The entire day was filled with unexpected and memorable experiences. Wells Cathedral was one of the places visited by Queen Emma on her tour of England to raise funds to build our own Cathedral Church of St. Andrew. We met several generations of the Morrish family who came for the ordination service. Unfortunately our train back to London prevented us from attending the party celebrating James' ordination.

Given the number of

The Right Rev.
Richard S.O. Chang
BISHOP OF HAWAII

ordinands, each was allowed to invite two priests to join the bishop for the laying on of hands. I found it very interesting that a number of the ordinands invited the priest who had invited them to consider ordination as their vocation or who had supported them during their time of personal discernment.

As we rode the train back to London, I reflected upon my own vocation and those persons who were part of my faith journey. Kenneth Bray, Margaret Monterio, Shunji Nishi, Arthur Ward, David Coon, James Cox and Harry Kennedy were all part of my pilgrimage beginning with my conversion from Buddhism in 1951. Each was an important presence in my life as I came to know Christ. Each planted seeds of vocation.

Through personal witness each encouraged and supported my vocation quest.

In our baptism we are each asked to discern our vocation and ministry in service of Christ and God's world. Individually and corporately we are called to identify persons for ordained ministry. Be bold to ask and encourage vocations.

Is there someone in your congregation whose gifts and skills for ministry and faith are appropriate for the ordained ministry? Will those gifts and skills advance the mission and ministry of the Good News of Jesus Christ? Every baptized person participates in this ministry of invitation and discernment. It does not lie solely with the ordained. Begin with your own ministry discernment.

May your faith in Christ compel you to invite others to discernment of their vocations.

Faithfully yours in Christ,
+Dick

Candidates for diocesan offices

Here are some of the candidates for various offices, to be elected at the 34th annual convention of the Diocese of Hawai'i. Because of print deadlines, not all nominees will appear here.

Standing Committee

To be elected: 1 clergy, 1 lay person, each for four-year terms.

The Standing Committee serves as the Bishop's Council of Advice. Performs duties as specified by the General and Diocesan Convention. Serves as the Ecclesiastical authority when there is no bishop. Meets once a month, and occasionally, on call. The Committee meets at St. Andrew's Cathedral on the third Friday of each month. Travel expenses for neighbor island members are paid by the Diocese.

Nominees:

Mary W. Schulz (lay). A communicant at All Saints on Kaua'i. Previous church and community service positions: Diocesan Council, Vestry, Stewardship Chair and Program Chair, all within this diocese.

"My past diocesan and parish services have focused my interest toward the Standing Committee. Several years as president of Serenity House on Kauai (drug and alcohol rehab) added to a perspective which should lend credibility to this position. My goal is to max my assistance to the Bishop and diocese."

Secretary of Convention

To be elected: 1 person, can be clergy or lay person.

The Secretary of Convention records minutes, enters them in the Journal and, under the supervision of the Bishop, attends to the publication and distribution of the journal, and performs other duties as prescribed in the diocesan Constitution and Canons. Serves as chairman of the Committee on Convention Plans for planning the agenda and making physical arrangements for the Convention. Maintains various directories of Diocesan officers, commissions, departments, etc.

Nominees: None at press time.

Diocesan Council

To be elected: 2 clergy, 5 lay person, each for 3 year terms; 1 lay person for a 1 year term.

The Diocesan Council exercises the power of the Convention and performs planning and policy making between meetings of Convention. Oversees the policies, programs, mission, and budget of the diocese and may initiate new work. Also is the legal corporate body of the Episcopal church in Hawai'i and, as such, is responsible for the business and property of the Church. The departments of the Council are: Formation, Mission and Support.

If elected, Council members are expected to:

- Attend a working retreat weekend (November 2002)
- Attend all department meetings unless excused by the department Chairperson.
- Attend all Diocesan Council meetings except when excused by the President.

If you miss three (3) consecutive meetings (unexcused), the Council may declare that your lack of attendance has created a vacancy.

The Council meets monthly at St. Andrew's Cathedral at 12:30 p.m. on the third Saturday of each month. Most departments meet at 9:00 a.m. on the day of the Council meeting. Travel expenses for neighbor island members are paid by the diocese.

Nominees:

The Rev. Alison M. Dingley (clergy). Interim rector of St. Stephen's Church. Previous church and community service positions:

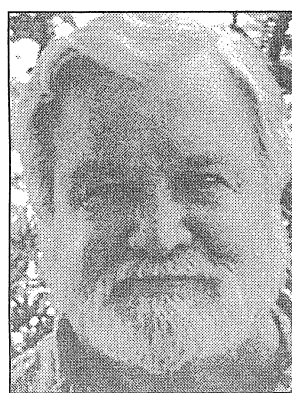

Diocesan Council; Commission on Ministry; Hawaii Advisory Committee on Drug Abuse and Controlled Substances; Board of Directors, Institute for Criminal Rehabilitation.

"I am completing a one-year, unexpired term on Council and believe I have only begun to be effective. I would like to continue on Council in order to be able to contribute the planning and organizational skills I have developed over the years to the Diocese's process of mission development."

Frank G. Embree (lay). A communicant at Emmanuel Church in Kailua. Previous church and community service positions: Former Planned Giving Officer for the diocese; Co-chairman of Diocesan Stewardship Committee; Area Representative of Episcopal Church Foundation; St. Andrew's Chapter member.

"After five years of working as Planned Giving Officer for the Diocese, I have met and worked with many of you in various parishes. Many of your concerns and needs have been addressed to me, so I feel I can help solve some of these problems by being a member of council. I am still quite interested in stewardship and planned giving."

The Rev. Ajuko Ueda (clergy). Priest-in-training, St. John's By-The-Sea Church. Previous church and community service positions: Commission on Diversity (Anti-Racism).

"When I look back upon what the people of this Diocese have done for me, I feel I want to contribute my time and passion to something really important. As a newly ordained to the priesthood, I hope I bring a fresh wind with awareness and consciousness for the marginalized."

The Rev. Liz Zivanov (clergy). Rector, St. Clement's Church, Honolulu. Previous church and community service positions: Diocesan Council; Chair, Diocesan Budget Committee; Task Force on Racism; Board of Directors, Genesee Valley Campus Ministry. All in Diocese of Rochester, N.Y.

"I find it exciting to work in a community that is undergoing a transition such as that occurring in the Diocese of Hawai'i. My experience with parochial finances could be helpful as we begin to align our identified mission with the manner in which we gather and allocate our resources."

Cathedral Chapter

To be elected: 1 clergy, 1 lay person, each for two-year terms.

The Cathedral Chapter serves as the Vestry for St. Andrew's Cathedral Parish. The Chapter is comprised of The Bishop; the Dean of the Cathedral and ten (10) lay persons elected by the Cathedral congregation. In addition, two (2) clergy and two (2) lay persons for two year terms, one of each, each year, elected by the Convention form the Diocese at large.

The Chapter meets on the third Thursday of the month at 4:30 p.m. Travel expenses for neighbor island members are provided.

Nominees:

The Rev. Alison M. Dingley (clergy). Interim rector of St. Stephen's Church. Previous church and community service positions:

Diocesan Council; Commission on Ministry; Hawaii Advisory Committee on Drug Abuse and Controlled Substances; Board of Directors, Institute for Criminal Rehabilitation.

"With my training in Interim Ministry, in addition to experience in secular organizational development, I have skills that may be valuable to the Chapter as the Cathedral begins this phase of its corporate life. As Pastor of a small rural church I bring an important perspective to the Chapter's deliberations."

Ecclesiastical Trial Court

To be elected: 1 lay person, five-year term.

Nominees: None at press time.

A happy day in Kona

Christ Church breaks ground on new community center

Christ Church Episcopal in Kealahou celebrated the ground breaking and blessing in preparation for construction of its Community Center at the church.

The congregation raised nearly $900,000 to build the center, which will house a wide variety of community service programs in Kona.

"We are thrilled to begin construction of our center," said campaign co-chair Sherwood Greenwell.

The Blessing included both Anglican and Hawaiian traditions and concluded with a large circle of participant ringing the painted perimeter of the planned center; singing "Hawai'i Aloha."

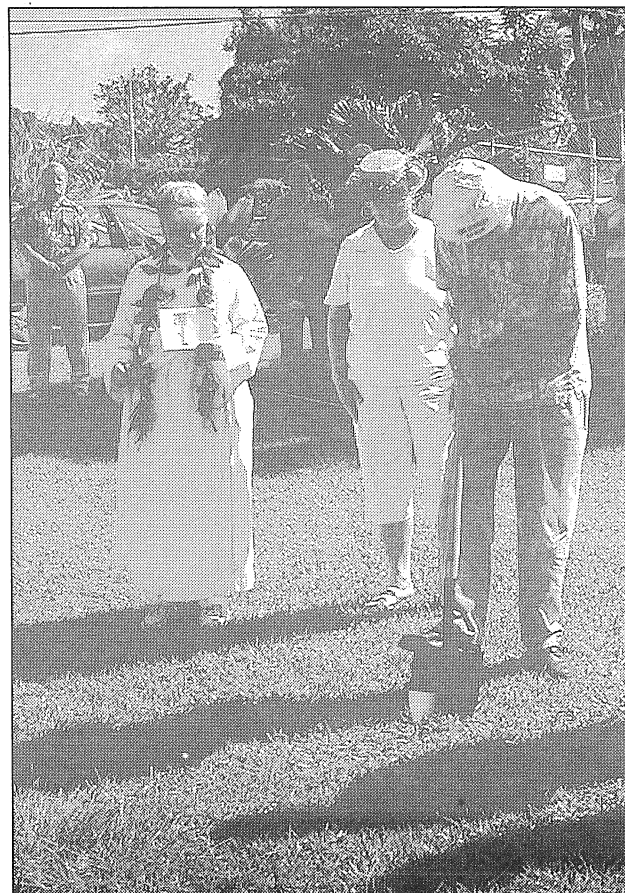

The Rev. Carol Arney, rector of Christ Church, officiated at the blessing. She was joined by Kahu Billy Paris, who provided the Hawaiian blessing.

Remembering 9/11

On Sept. 11, the Cathedral Close of St. Andrew's held a "Day of Remembrance" for people of all faiths, one year after the terrorist bombings on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. Both the Cathedral and Parke Chapel were open for the entire day for those who sought a quiet place. On the altar in Parke Chapel was this arrangement, created by Marilyn Howard, who describes the piece thus:

The dark base and the latticework patterns represent the wreckage of the Trade Towers after the attack. There are three crosses in the patterns reminiscent of the cross found at Ground Zero and planted there. The white lei represents both the offering of the children of Hawaii in lei sent to the workers, and God's gift of love and grace in the midst of that horror. The ti-leaf lei represents the "aina of Hawaii. The charred driftwood indicates our island state with its many beaches. The whole arrangement is subservient to the cross, both in size and placement. This is a "one day" specific arrangement, created specifically for this Day of Remembrance.

In England

The Rev. James Morrish, left, was ordained at the Cathedral Church of St. Andrews in Wells, England, this summer. Morrish is the cousin of Dee Chang (center), wife of the Right Rev. Richard S.O. Chang, Bishop of Hawai'i. Morrish has been appointed Curate in Porlock and Porlock Weir with Stoke Pero in the Diocese of Bath and Wells in the Church of England.

On Maui

Labor Day afternoon, the Maui Clericus and spouses welcomed Pastor Al Stepanik and his wife, Claire, new Priest-in-Charge and wife at Holy Innocents' Church, Lahaina. The potluck was held at Scottie Clark and Layton Zimmer's home in Pukalani. Chefs par excellence were: Morley and Linda Frech, Heather and Rik Mueller-Fitch, Marvin and Cindy Foltz, David and Geri Barr, Jodeine and Kit Hawkins, Layton and Scottie Clark Zimmer.

The Chronicle wants your photos!

The Chronicle is always looking for photographs of events around the Diocese for publication.

Pictures can be sent to us either by email, by snail mail or by dropping them off at the Diocesan Office.

If you are emailing photographs, please use the highest resolution possible on your camera, and send only JPG formatted photos. The email address is hcchronicle@aol.com. Please include the name of the photographer and the names of those in the photographs in the body of the email.

If you are sending pictures through the regular mail or dropping them off at the Diocesan office, please address them to Elizabeth House, Chronicle Editor, The Diocese of Hawai'i, 229 Queen Emma Square, Honolulu, HI 96813-2304. We can use photographs, negatives or slides. Again, please be sure to include the name of the photographer and all those shown in the photographs themselves.

As a rule, photographs cannot be returned, but can be left for pickup at the Diocesan office.

NEWS FROM AROUND THE DIOCESE

Maui Ministry 2002

The Episcopal parishes of the Maui region will sponsor Maui Ministry 2002, a two-day shared ministry weekend, November 1 and 2 in upcountry Maui.

The Rev. Phillip Roderick of the Diocese of Oxford, has accepted the invitation to be the keynote speaker for this two-day event. He is scheduled to speak on the topic "Attraction, Need, Desire: How can everyday Christians discover a delight in God, gold in the shadow and blessing in the mess of things?"

The weekend will begin with a Liturgy for All Saints' Day at St. John's in Kula, at 6:30 p.m., followed by a potluck featuring multi-cultural main dishes. Other highlights of the Friday evening program include a labyrinth walk, a youth lock-in, "talk story," meditations, compline and Taize prayers. Saturday's program starts with a youth sunrise service at Haleakala Crater tentatively scheduled about 5:30 a.m. (leaving St. John's at 4:30). Workshops during the day will be on topics such as "Writing through the Spirit," "Polarity Management/ Decision Making," and "Harry Potter and the Gospels." The day's events are scheduled to end around late afternoon.

There is still room at the inn (or in this case the Retreat House at St. John's) but call soon as space is limited (808-878-1485).

Call 808-878-1485 to register. See you on the Mountain.

Domestic violence workshop scheduled

St. Christopher's in Kailua is sponsoring a one-day workshop called "Domestic Violence: What Every Congregation Needs to Know" on Saturday, Oct. 12, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

This practical workshop is designed for anyone who wants to be a better parent, neighbor, grandparent, or friend.

The workshop is free and open to the public. Please call St. Christopher's church office, 262-8176, to register. Groups are asked to phone in the total number of participants who will attend. Childcare is available if registering before Oct. 5.

Strength for the Journey

Strength for the Journey is a four-day spiritual retreat which intends to provide a tranquil, safe, substance/alcohol free and healing environment for people living with HIV/AIDS.

The retreat is open to any person (18 and older) living with HIV/AIDS. The retreat is scheduled Oct. 13-17, and costs only $100, which includes meals and lodging. Funding for the retreat comes largely from the Hawai'i District Camping and Outdoor ministries of the United Methodist Church, and a substantial grant has also been received from the Missions Department of the Episcopal Diocese of Hawai'i.

For more information on the retreat, contact the Rev. Rob DeWolfe, Retreat Chaplain, at 735-5944 or email him at goodsam@aloha.net.

First Saturday Seminars

St. Timothy's Episcopal Church will offer three "First Saturday Seminars" on Christian Formation. The seminars, which will run from 10 a.m. to noon each day, are free and open to all.

Saturday, Oct. 5: "Spirituality and the Christian."

Saturday, Nov. 2: "Prayer and the Christian."

Saturday, Dec. 7: "Sacred Scripture and the Christian."

Call the church office at 488-5747 for more information.

St. Mary's Centennial

St. Mary's in Honolulu will celebrate its Centennial with a three-day affair beginning Dec. 6.

The Rev. Dr. Douglas McGlynn, a former rector, will speak on Dec. 6 at 7 p.m., with refreshments to follow. On Saturday, there is an invitation-only lunch. The big celebration will occur on Sunday morning, when the Rev. Rudolph Duncan, the first rector of St. Mary's, will be the guest preacher at a Festal Eucharist.

Come join the people of St. Mary's as they celebrate the 100th anniversary of the church!

For more information, call the church office at 949-4655.
